events, including welcome rainfall, and probably a little more economy on the part of the citizens, have indicated that it was not absolutely necessary to cut off the layn service, but the lawns do not require it since, the rain, so the order still stands until further notice.

Mr. Buchanan believes that there is plenty of water for everybody, including enough for an adequate lawn service, if only everybody would be reasonable in the use of water. Because some people carelessly waste water, regulations have to be made restricting the use of the water service for everybody. Public buildings, banks, office buildings and public institutions are the biggest offenders in the matter of wasting ers in the matter of water, the general manager declares.
The other day in a club lavatory he found three out of four taps running full force into the washbasins. Three different people had left the water running to get a cold drink and each one had selected a different tap.

PATRICIA THEATRE.

To lovers, of motion pictures that thrill and grip from beginning to end may be heartily recommended "The She Tiger," a powerful all-star William Fox production, which opens today at the Patricia.

The story of "The She Tiger," which is from N. P. Niessen's novel. "The Love Thief," has for its theme the influence of a woman's love and hate upon the lives of others, One of the finest episodes is a raid by Mexican bandits on the American town of San Felice. Anyone who has read of the barbarous raids on border towns by the adherents of Villa would do well to see this picture, which shows most effectively the methods pursued by Mexican outlaws in swooping down on unprotected American communities.

SHEESLEY SHOWS OPEN TONIGHT AT QUEEN'S PARK

Like a small city in itself, with an enormous mass of tents, show structures, and rides being assembled by several hundred men, Queen's Park this morning presaged a week of sport and pleasure. The Greater Sheesley Shows will open there tonight under the auspices of the Army and Navy Veterans.

Many children were flocked around the grounds anxious to get a sight of the building of the queer-looking city. Many a London father, or mother will Many a London father, or mother will be wondering why Johnny did not go to school, or why Willie did not come back with the bread and buns. What does Willie care about father's coffee and buns, when he has a chance to see the lion trainer order the cages around, when he can hear the lions bellow, and the panthers screech, and when he can see the racing motors and automobiles, and the funny-looking fat man?

The assembling of the structures started about daylight, when the big tent for the animal show was first spread over part of the ground. The side-show tent was another of the big enclosures.
