

Unique Millinery

Truly this season has introduced some startling effects in Spring Hats for Ladies. There are a variety of titles for them, too, among which the "Merry Widow" and "Lustinia" and other styles are distinctly popular. There are some individual creations, however, which have no particular name, yet are very fetching — just like the one shown above.

All our Millinery was specially imported and cannot be duplicated beyond our doors

CAPT. TOM WALLACE IS CHOSEN IN CENTRE YORK

Big Meeting Re-Affirms Confidence — Death of John Burke — Suburban Items.

Centre York Conservatives on Saturday afternoon, by a vote of 192 to 40, re-affirmed their confidence in Capt. Tom Wallace's ability to redeem the riding at the next federal election by selecting him as their candidate.

The convention, which was held in the Labor Temple on Church-street, was in all respects the most enthusiastic ever held in connection with the riding and the spirit of aggressiveness and harmony shown augured great things for the next election.

Dr. Robinson of Kleinburg, president, was in the chair and seated with him on the platform were Rev. H. A. Fish, Rev. Peter Campbell, A. W. Wright and John Bryant.

Some Who Were There.
Among others in the gathering, many of whom had rendered yeoman service in hard-fought contests in the riding, were noticed:

Ellas Woods, Adam Hood, Alex Baird, David Beldam, W. Pittman, T. B. Willis, Dr. Teft, John Thomas, Col. Selby, George Scott, Frank Law, C. N. Hagerman, L. H. Armstrong, R. Ash, A. Weighill, A. G. Gormley, W. H. Pugsley, J. Sanderson, John Savage, H. A. Nichols, Sam McClure, Dr. Forbes Godfrey.

Three cheers for Bill Pugsley! sang out Dr. Godfrey, and the thunderous applause which followed showed that the Reeve of Richmond Hill has lost none of his old-time popularity.

R. O. Harvey made a rousing speech and retired in favor of Capt. Wallace.

Ward Milne was well received, and made a splendid impression, and declared his willingness to abide by the will of the delegates.

Frank Roche, W. H. Hall and Thomas Griffith were appointed scrutineers, and the balloting was proceeded with. Short addresses by Rev. Peter Campbell, Rev. H. A. Fish and A. W. Wright filled in the interval.

When the result of the voting, 192 to 40 in favor of Capt. Wallace, was announced by Secretary Keefer there was no need of enthusiasm.

The candidate briefly returned thanks, and the greatest convention in the history of Centre York was over.

TORONTO JUNCTION.
Town Continues to Furnish Local Hold Up.

TORONTO JUNCTION, March 22.—Attempted burglaries and rumors of hold-ups were the chief topics of discussion on the streets to-day.

There was due to an occurrence which took place on Saturday night. About 9:30 a man entered the home of John A. Irish, engineer, 38 Victoria-street.

Irish was at home, and she was quite amazed when she saw a stranger enter by the back door and present a revolver to her head.

The proceeding was accompanied by a demand for money, and Mrs. Irish promptly handed out her purse and its entire contents—20 cents. Seemingly satisfied, the man then left the house.

MONDAY, March 23.

A Three Day Sale of Men's Shirts

Tuesday--Values Up to $2.00 for 79c

Several reasons continue to bring about a reduction in the price of shirts in the Men's Furnishing Department just now. The new spring stock is pouring in while the balances of the winter stock have still to be cleared out. That accounts for some.

A firm made a mistake with a detail in the finishing of another lot. They had either to be sent back and altered or an allowance made. The allowance has been made.

The mistake matters not a jot to the wearer of the shirt. The Simpson label is side-tracked a little, that's all.

All this has made for a big sale. Tuesday we start. You can buy them by the half-dozen if you like.

Men's Fine Colored Neglige and Soft Bosom Shirts, cuffs attached and detached, plain or pleated bosoms, some coat style, made from English figured Oxfords, Scotch Madras, Zephyrs, Prints and Percales, all perfect fitting shirts and guaranteed fast colors, sizes 14 to 19, values up to $2.00.

EARLSCOURT'S ALL RIGHT.
At Same Time Residents Don't Want Place Maligned.

Editor World: I see by one of the morning papers that during the discussion re annexation of a certain portion of territory of York Township, one of the controllers of the City of Toronto made the statement that Earls-court was not a desirable district to annex on account of its being an unhealthful place, because so many shacks had been built on 45 foot lots, and the outhouses being in such close proximity to each other, thereby creating an unsanitary condition in that locality.

Now, sir, as one of the residents in that district, I wish to say to that controller, and those who are laboring under the same impression, that they are not conversant with the state of affairs in that locality, otherwise they would not make the statement contained in the morning papers.

The fact is that Earls-court is one of the healthiest districts in the proposed main reason why they favor annexation, and is far more healthful than any of the districts referred to. Its location, and the different properties of the soil render it a desirable place for the poor man to provide a home for himself and family without a heavy burden of taxation, and in fact more healthful than many other districts who favor annexation.

At the present time the sanitary question with those districts is the main reason why they favor annexation. The residents of Earls-court are opposed to annexation at the present time, as the situation of the district and the obstacles in the way would make it very difficult to obtain city improvements and city conveniences for some years to come, and therefore they do not see fit to place upon themselves a load of taxation for which they would receive no return for a long time.

Probably in years to come, when the majority of workmen have paid for their little homes, and the city is in a position to give the people the conveniences they require, the question of annexation may be favorably entertained by that portion of York Township known as Earls-court.
