PAPKE BACKS KETCHELL Johnson Remains 10 to 4 Favorite For

Saturday's Fight at Colma. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.-With the SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—With the fight for the heavyweight championship of the world only a few days away, both of the principals have begun to taper down in their work. While the betting continues at edds of 10 to 4 in favor of Johnson, considerable money is being placed on Ketchell. One of the latest of the short-end bettors is Billy Papke, the Kewanee fighter, who has faced Ketchell four times in the ring. Papke has writ-Beaucoup Beats Nimbus.

JAMAICA, Oct. 13.—Beaucoup, at 10 to 1, easily won the Garden City Selling Stakes to-day. Beaucoup followed the pace set by the favorite, Nimbus, to the turn into the stretch, where he took the lead and won easily by three lengths. King's Daughter, at 1 to 8, scored an easy victory in the third event. Summaries:

1. Sou, 94 (Harner), 16 to 5, 6 to 5 and 1 to 2.
