The Accident.

"About 8 o'clock we were asleep, when the ties came down with a crash. "We were pinned fast. "A heavy weight caught me across the shoulders, and I thought I would "I made as much noise as I could, but the other two fellows were working, and soon had me out. "My head swam, and I was about all in. "When I came to, I saw the old man was done for. He was bleeding out of the mouth and ears and nose, and was spitting blood. "He never said a word, and only lived a short time.

"My pal, Wardrope, was not hurt the contract price. The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.
