

tinctly understood that no one will be allowed to continue in the Academy whose habits are damaging to good morals, or who persistently disregards its rules. In cases where it appears necessary to take steps towards severing the connection of a student with the Institution, preliminary notice will be given to parents or guardians, if the gravity of the offence does not require instant action, and all possible chance will be afforded for the beneficial operation of family influence. As it is believed, however, to be of pre-eminent importance to preserve in the school a wholesome moral atmosphere, nothing shall be permitted to stand in the way of a rigorous discharge of duty in the expulsion of unworthy members.

Requirements.

It is unnecessary to state these in detail. The general principle insisted on is obedience to proper authority. There may be mentioned, however, as points of great importance, punctuality and regularity in attendance upon school duties, industrious application to study, chasteness of speech, proper observance of the Sabbath, a careful refraining from injury to the buildings and property of the Institutions, and a strict abstinence from tobacco, and from intoxicating drinks and places where they are sold. The legitimate penalty for neglect of this last principle is immediate expulsion.
