

OWES HER LIFE TO "FRUIT-A-LIVES"

Cured Both Stomach Trouble and Headaches

"Palmerston, Ont., June 20th, 1913.
"I really believe that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-lives'. Ever since childhood I have been under the care of physicians and have been paying doctor's bills. I was so sick and worn out that people on the street often asked me if I thought I could get along without help. The same old Stomach Trouble and distressing Headaches nearly drove me wild. Some time ago I got a box of 'Fruit-a-lives' and the first box did me good. My husband was delighted and advised a continuation of their use.
"Today I am feeling fine, and a physician meeting me on the street, noticed my improved appearance and asked the reason. I replied: 'I am taking Fruit-a-lives'. He said, 'Well, if Fruit-a-lives are making you look so well, go ahead and take them. They are doing more for you than I can.'"
"MRS. H. S. WILLIAMS."
"Fruit-a-lives" are sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIALS TO FORM AN ASSOCIATION

At the request of the county secretary, J. K. Kelley, K. C., a gathering of municipal officials took place last night in the court house, and from it was organized the Municipal Officials' Association. Sheriff Wilson acted as chairman of the meeting, with J. V. McEllan secretary, and the objects of the organization were explained by Mr. Kelley. He said that the intention was to establish a fund for employees too old for service. He had no definite plans in view regarding the system to be adopted but made reference to the government annuities plan, and suggested that a committee be appointed to consider the matter.
Comptroller McIntyre, Deputy Chief Clerk, County Secretary Kelley, Mr. Chief Blake and Chamberlain Lingley were appointed to attend a municipal convention in Fredericton, to be called next week by the attorney general for the consideration of such matters, and then report back to the local body. Mr. Kelley, Mr. McIntyre and Wm. Murdoch were appointed to draft a constitution.

CANADIANS' VALOR PRAISED BY ENEMY

"Dug Own Graves and Died in Them," Says Paper in Saxony —A Prisoner's Letter

Colonel Rennie sends the following letter from Captain Streight: "Our casualties have been very heavy, but, as you see from the enclosed, the regiment behaved most creditably."
Captain Streight's letter is as follows: "I was wounded and made prisoner on the evening of the 24th of April. I cannot go into details, except to say that my command was completely wiped out. The men were wonderful, and faithful to the last. We were the last to be taken, and then only after a hand-to-hand struggle. The press here gives a good account of us.
"It says we dug our own graves and died in them, and that their troops never met such pluck and determination. They speak the truth. We have fallen into good hands. Every attention is paid our wants and needs. A casualty list is impossible. Many were left behind on the field. We never got in touch with them after the first advance. All are well here. I wish to be remembered to all and better luck to you who remain."
In the foregoing Captain Streight is referring to the press of Saxony where he writes from. Captain John Everett Streight was an officer in the Governor-General's Body Guard. He saw service in South Africa. His home is at Islington.

NURSES SMOKE CIGARETTES
The Montreal Gazette in its appeal for the front says:
"Even the women on active service, the Red Cross and other nurses, have found the benefit of smoking the secreted weed as a relief to their overstrained nerves. This is pointed out by Arthur H. Gleason, writing in the Saturday Evening Post. Mr. Gleason writes that not only do practically all the soldiers smoke, but that most of the Red Cross nurses and other women on service, often under fire, find cigarettes indispensable.
"Mr. Gleason writes: 'Almost all our women at the front smoke, and find the same relief from it that the men do. Cigarettes are what they use. They smoke them at the end of a hard day. The sudden lull of waiting when one is expecting action and noise are hard to live through, and they find that smoking a cigarette quiets the jumping nerves.' Mr. Gleason says that in his experiences near the firing line he has frequently seen nurses, tired out, sitting on the roadside, smoking cigarettes, and evidently getting as much comfort from them as the Tommies themselves."

Was Troubled With Choking Spells and Shortness of Breath.

When the heart becomes affected, there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, and dizziness and a weak, sinking, all-gone feeling of oppression and anxiety.
Many men and women drag along with weary step, and become worn out and haggard, when otherwise they could be strong and healthy if they would only pay some attention to the first signs of heart or nerve trouble. On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened or of the nerves becoming overstrained, the nerves unstrung Millburn's Heart and Nerve Pills should be given a fair trial and you will find that they will soon correct both these organs.

James Leard, Tyson, P.M.I., writes: "Just a few lines to let you know what Millburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. I had choking spells, and was troubled with weakness of the heart and shortness of breath. I tried three doctors but they all failed. A neighbor recommended me to try your pills, so I got a box and they helped me so much. I have taken six boxes. I highly recommend them to all who are troubled with their heart and nerves. I was not able to do any work for over two years; now I can do quite a bit."
Millburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

RED CROSS APPEAL

May 19, 1915.
To the Editor of the Times:
Sir—The recent list of casualties, more especially of the Canadian expeditionary force, clearly indicate to those who administer the funds and supplies of the Red Cross Society, that the available resources at present in hand will speedily disappear, and can only be maintained in the future by a steady flow both of money and supplies; and not by spasmodic appeals made too late to be really effective.
To secure the supply of funds so much needed, there seems to be only one way, namely, that every one should be called upon to practice some self-denial, and set aside a monthly contribution of money or material as may be required.
Where branches of the Red Cross are established such contributions should be forwarded by the executive of such branches at least monthly to the headquarters of the society at 77 King street east, Toronto, and in the absence of such branches they may be sent direct—bearing in mind that no contribution is too small to be gratefully received and recorded.
Any other method than this causes a loss of power to do good, and this has been clearly established by past experience. Surely, no one who realizes his debt to the men who are defending his liberty, and has a heart and a conscience, will fail in such a duty, a duty in which even children may share.
It is estimated that if each head of a family throughout the Dominion contributed but five cents a month during the duration of the war, sufficient money for all purposes would be obtained, and few are too poor to be unable to do so. It is therefore to secure a wider publicity of the needs of this deserving work, that you are asked to publish this appeal in your paper, and to draw attention to it, editorially and further, call upon the clergy of all denominations as to their privileges and duty in helping the Red Cross in its work of mercy and charity.
It needs but such action on the part of the church and the press to point the way in which every one may play his part in this great crisis of Canada's history.
Signed on behalf of the General Council, C. R. C. S.
NOEL MARSHALL, Chairman.

CABINET TO BE NON-PARTISAN

Announcement Made in British House Last Evening—Rumors of Prospective Changes—Kitchen Criticized

London, May 19—The formation of a non-partisan cabinet is assured and will be completed before parliament resumes on June 8th. The announcement was made tonight, before parliament prorogued, by Premier Asquith, and was confirmed by Bonar Law, leader of the opposition. The prime minister and foreign minister will be among those to remain and the change will not mean any alteration of the policy of pressing the war to a successful issue as early as possible.

It is believed that the most prominent members slated for retirement are Lord Haldane, lord high chancellor; the Marquis of Crewe, secretary of state for India; Lewis Harcourt, secretary of state for the colonies; and Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland. The Marquis of Crewe and Mr. Birrell will go willingly. Mr. Harcourt may be raised to the peerage and promoted to be Viceroy of India.

As Lord Fisher remains in his office, it is believed that his resignation has not been accepted and this will mean that another office will have to be found for Winston Churchill if he decides to remain in the government.

The Conservative members of parliament are reported to consider eight cabinet members as their share, and A. Bonar Law, opposition leader in the house of commons; A. J. Balfour, Austen Chamberlain, Lord Curzon, Lord Selborne, F. E. Smith, the Earl of Derby and Walter Hume Long, are regarded as certain.
The Labor members have decided to support Arthur Henderson and John Redmond will have an opportunity to accept office if he will consent to do so, and thus have the cabinet embrace all the parties represented in the house.
Some criticism of Lord Kitchener is beginning to appear in the papers, chiefly on the grounds that he has undertaken more work than any one man could accomplish.

VANCOUVER OFFERS 1,000-BED HOSPITAL

Ottawa, May 20—The Vancouver General Hospital has offered a hospital of 1,000 beds at the front to the Militia Department, according to the statement of the minister of militia. The Canadian expeditionary force, thanks to the fine offers which have been made in addition to those provided in the ordinary course, is splendidly equipped with hospital facilities.

FIELD COMFORTS FOR THE SOLDIERS

At a meeting of ladies, held yesterday afternoon in Centenary church, the organization of an association to supply comforts to soldiers in the field, and lines of communication, to all except those in hospitals, and therefore almost all of the other organizations. The name of Field Comforts Association was suggested, but the decision was deferred until an adjourned meeting, which will be held this afternoon, to which all women, particularly of soldiers' families, are invited.
The officers elected were: President,

Alexander Hamilton—"Father of American Credit"

DANIEL WEBSTER says of Hamilton: "He smote the rock of National resources and abundant streams of revenue gushed forth; he touched the dead corpse of public credit and it sprang upon its feet." No man did more to build the Constitution of the United States than did Hamilton. He took a prominent part in every debate, and worked indefatigably on all the important committees. His genius, individuality and daring foresight are indelibly stamped upon every clause of our National Law—the law under which Americans are guaranteed for all time Religious, Commercial and Personal Liberty. During Hamilton's lifetime he used his great influence to encourage and protect the brewing industry. Among all the Fathers of the Republic none knew better than he that honestly-brewed barley-malt beers make for true temperance. This American Colossus, who was second only to Washington in the service rendered to his country, drank good beer all his days. We know of no one who has yet dared declare that it injured him in any way. Under the tenets of the Constitution, which Hamilton did so much to make a fact, Anheuser-Busch 58 years ago launched their great institution. During these years they have honestly brewed honest beers. To-day 7500 people are daily required to meet the public demand. Their world-famed brand BUDWEISER because of its quality, purity, mildness and exquisite flavor, exceeds the sale of any other beer by millions of bottles.
