REGARD POSITION AS STILL CRITICAL

Comments on the Situation in Ireland.

Believe De Valera Influenced by Followers-Some Anx iety Over Attitude of the Army - Organized Labor for the New Government.

(Canadian Press Cable) Dublin, Jan. 10-As the Dail Eireann assembled today, it was expected that a motion requesting Arthur Griffith to form a provincial government under the newly ratified peace treaty would ne submitted soon after the opening of the

The motion has been prepared by Michael Collins, who gave notice of his intention at yesterday's session, at which Eamonn De Valera was defeated for reelection as president, by a margin of two votes Although the divisions in the Dail on Saturday and vesterday cleared the at-mosphere to a certain extent, the posi-tion in regard to formation of the new ernment continues critical. A paragovernment continues critical. A para-doxical situation arose yesterday in the Dail itself, the majority of the members opposing the leader whom they all re-spect, and cheering him with affectionate enthusiasm while at the same time striv-ing to defeat him. ing to defeat him.

This attitude was attributed in some quarters to fear that if De Valera triumphed a dangerous conflict would arise in the country over the powers of the new government.

His opponents do not charge De Valera with playing his own hand or
