Although nearing the four score mark, the old guide is enjoying remarkably good health and plans to leave for his camp in the Miramichi woods in the course of a few weeks.

Four Generations.

Repairs were made last night to the axle of the fire chief's car, which was brought on the way to a fire station, and the vehicle was out again this morning.

The new motor ladder truck was taken out this morning, and despite the out chills, was able to negotiate the snow-covered streets without trouble.

The big piece of new apparatus is being driven by Charles McCuskey, who formerly handled the three-horse hitch in the old horse-drawn ladder truck.

BRADSTREET'S ON LAST WEEK'S TRADE

Not Up to Last Year's in the United States, But Better Tone in Financial Lines.

(Bradstreet's, Dec. 25.) The favorable features of the week in distributive trade are seasonal increases in retail buying, stimulated by holiday purchases of seasonal goods, a slightly enlarged distribution of heavy wearing apparel, due to colder weather, with snow north and west and some isolated activity in the part jobbers in shipping goods to fill in broken stocks.

Some bright spots are, however, noted in the larger lines as the year draws to a close. Following a formal lowering of steel rail prices by $10 a ton, the level maintained for twenty-one months by the leading interests, has come the release of orders for some 200,000 tons of rails by leading railways, for which reservations had already been made.

A continued bleak spot in the general trade situation is disclosed by the statement that very large sums are tied up in products, a great deal of them in transit, in which orders have been cancelled, including much export as well as domestic trade.

In leading industries quiet is the prevailing note, with very general agreement that unemployment has increased during the seasonal period being added to the widening circle of slowing down in leading trades.

Notions of wage reductions, too, have increased, and the reductions are being accepted as inseparable from the conditions ruling. In iron and steel the industrial pace is slackening and more farmers are being added to the other metals, slight but general declines are noted in copper, zinc and lead.

Prices at Pittsburgh are only about one-third those reached at the peak in the summer. Coke is weaker, with prices less than one-third those quoted August 1st.

The lumber trade is dull, and prices are lower than those reached at the peak in the summer. Lumber and shingles are dull in California and Washington.

Prices of other building materials, except brick, are lower than those reached at the peak in the summer. Lumber and shingles are dull in California and Washington.

YOUR RHEUMATISM

Remove Its Cause by Purifying Your Blood.

One of the most important duties of your system is to burn up certain substances no longer of use in your body. One is uric acid, now generally held to be the cause of rheumatism. It inflames the joints, stiffens the muscles, causes pains aches, and tenderness.

The system is helped to dispose of this troublesome substance, and rheumatism is prevented, by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the one true blood purifier. It is aided in many cases by Hood's Lent, which in small doses is a general laxative, in larger doses an active cathartic. A grand course of treatment, economical and effective.

HALF-PRICE STOCK TAKING SALE WOMEN'S AND MISSES' GARMENTS The great halftone sale of women's and misses' ready-to-wear at the London House continues Thursday and Friday. Were ever such splendid garments offered so low before? The drastic reductions still obtain on women's especially cotton, metals and hose and their products, struck new low levels. The grain markets have fairly well held above the level of the rather unusual for the season) increase in export buying. Live animals, too, are up on the week. The Weekly Food Index shows a slight rally, but the declines in wholesale prices still heavily outnumber the advances, though the latter are more numerous than for months past. Bank clearings are a little off from last week, but are ahead of the holiday week of 1919. Fullers show a decrease from recent weeks.

WHAT OF ST. JOHN? The C. P. R. has issued a very attractive, beautifully illustrated and nicely arranged booklet entitled "A Winter in Canada." In spite of the fact that all of the winter business of Canada passes through the gateways of the lower provinces, they are ignored. Judging from the illustrations and reading matter in the booklet, Canada extends from Quebec to Victoria, B. C. The one reference to the lower provinces is a statement that there are also curling clubs in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

ST. JOHN AND THE EMBARGO. It is not known yet what effect the embargo declared last night by employees of the C. N. Speaking of the embargo this morning L. R. Ross, local terminal agent, said that he did not anticipate any trouble and expected that goods would be handled in and out of St. John as usual.

The postmaster will be pleased to get any information that will enable him to put the package in the hands of Little Laurence.

BEAVERBROOK ON THE EMBARGO

London, Dec. 29.—(Canadian Associated Press)—Lord Beaverbrook, writing in the Daily Express on the embargo against Canadian cattle says:— "I feel it my duty to speak out not to protect the material interests of Canada, but because I believe the British people do not in the least realize the moral damage being done the imperial connection by the conduct of the British government."

"The embargo in Canada is not caused so much by any actual damage that may be inflicted on an important Canadian industry, as by the feeling that the imperial authorities are not treating Canada straightforwardly. I can assure the Canadian people that once the British public realize the wrong being done in their name they will compel the government to take prompt and satisfactory action."
