GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

NEW PROGRAMME AT OPERA HOUSE

All Vaudeville Numbers Have Been Highly Recommended—Have Many Features, Which Are Sure to Please.

From all indications the new programme in the Opera House tonight will be one of unusual interest. The five vaudeville acts are all reported to be exceptionally good and should prove pleasing to local patrons. The programme will be as follows: Three Pianos, Midgets, three diminutive comedians in a comedy variety offering with burlesque dancing, hand to hand balancing and a rattling good comedy boxing match; Kurt and Edith Kuchan in a refined musical skit in which violin selections, vocal solos and pantomimicallism will be featured; Florence Henry and Company, in an original one act play entitled, "The Real Remedy"; Baldwin and Shelton, in catchy songs, breezy chatter and pianology; Juliet Bush is a sensational aerial offering. In addition there will be another episode of "The Black Secret," featuring Pearl White in the leading role.

THE GREAT SALE CONTINUES

King Squares Sales Company Is Clearing Stock Completely.

"Everything must be sold; my prices are the lowest in the country, that this sale will be remembered by my customers for years." These words, coming from the manager of The King Square Sales Company, carry a certain significance, more noteworthy than advertising, because it was spoken to an acquaintance, but not a customer.

The big page of bargains that appeared in this paper last Friday was surely a catalogue of economy. At a glance, scores of big, whole-hearted bargains stand out; yet, in the manager's own words: "These are but a key, a suggestion of the hundreds of other offerings throughout the store."

Anyone interested in dry goods, men's, women's or children's clothing, hats, caps, footwear for all the family, umbrellas, jewelry, hosiery, traveling bags, leather goods, etc., should not miss this great sale.

Special staff of salespeople at your service; come early. Store opens at 8:30 a. m. and closes at 10:30 p. m. Everything must be sold.

WHY IS IT

That chronic skin diseases which have defied all other treatments yield to Zam-Buk?

It is because Zam-Buk is germicidal, and also has such power of penetration that it reaches disease in the underlying tissues and cures from the "root" up. That is the only way a permanent cure can be effected.

Mr. H. C. Buckley of 461 E. Broadway, Portland, Oregon, says: "For chronic skin diseases there is nothing like Zam-Buk. For fifteen years I had eczema, and I tried an endless number of so-called 'eczema cures,' but nothing was capable of curing me permanently until I used Zam-Buk. Ten months' use of Zam-Buk has effected a complete cure."

For ulcers, abscesses, boils, ringworm, blood-poisoning, piles, burns, scalds and cuts, Zam-Buk is equally good. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

TRURO DISCUSSES CHANCES OF BEING AVIATION CENTRE

Moncton and Amherst, Now the Other Towns Mentioned—Said $25,000 Must Be Subscribed.

(Special to Times.)

Truro, N. S., March 16.—Truro's chance to become the headquarters of eastern Canada air lines and the centre of aviation in the maritime provinces was discussed at a meeting of the board of trade last night. The meeting was addressed by Colonel John Wise of Halifax, president of the P. E. Island Aerial Transport Co., Ltd., and Capt. L. E. D. Stevens, vice-president and managing director. It was said that the choice for headquarters lay among Moncton, Amherst and Truro and that the latter could get it by giving the company sufficient support. It is understood that Truro people would have to subscribe $25,000. The board unanimously voted that the aerial concern be asked to submit a definite contract as to what they would do in Truro if $25,000 stock were subscribed here. It is understood that Major Clayton Kennedy of the Aircraft Manufacturing Company, England, will be here on Thursday en route to Halifax to sell for England.

The board of trade last night passed resolutions against the proposed government and asking the provincial government to deny their acquiescence to Canada.

CANADA'S FIRE LOSS IS NOT DIMINISHING

Main Portion of Total is in Larger Losses of $10,000 or Over—Carelessness and Neglect.

(John Dixon in Conversation.)

Fire losses in 1919—$28,500,000. With the war over, with no munition plant fires, with industry under normal conditions, and with many interests advocating fire prevention, Canada, in 1919, reached the above enormous total of fire waste—a waste equal to $2.90 per capita of her population.

Of the larger losses, there were 288 of $10,000 and over. These larger losses are mostly of business properties or manufacturing plants. They make up the greater portion of the total loss, and the effect of this loss is widespread. With the destruction of the factory, employment is discontinued and the workman suffers; business is interfered with and the employer suffers. The keen competition today, very often absorbs the market for a product before a business can be re-established, and the owners, realising this condition, decide not to rebuild.

Many of the smaller municipalities have as their chief support, one large industry. If fire should destroy this industry the community must almost cease to exist, or, alternatively, secure another, often by burdening itself to pay a bonus.

Employers and workmen are almost universally responsible for fires in factories. Through carelessness or negligence they allow conditions to exist which sooner or later create fire dangers. Where little care is taken with matches, ashes, lighted cigarettes and cigars, etc. The careless man at home is careless at work, and this carelessness is the root of our fire loss problem.

To reduce our fire waste radical measures are necessary. Legislation or rules are of no avail unless enforced. Personal care and responsibility by both employer and employee are essential.

THE IMPORTANCE OF FREE SPEECH

(Canadian Finance.)

Speaking to the Montreal Canadian Club recently, Professor O. D. Slighton touched upon what he termed to be the extraordinary development of Prussianism in America which five years ago would have said was impossible. Thousands of men have been deported without trial, newspapers have been suppressed, books forbidden to be sold, men expelled from the legislatures, simply because they were members of a particular political party. Most of this has happened in the United States, but Canada has also experienced the same conditions to a certain degree. Professor Skelton asserts, and many will agree with him, that these Prussian methods are doing more to develop unrest than ten thousand agitators would do in a thousand years.

Great Britain, slow and ponderous in many ways, is still to the front in the matter of individual freedom. The government and the people are tolerant. The agitator has to agitate for something worth while before he can secure the ear of the Britisher. Dryden once wrote: "Freedom, which in no other land can thrive, is the birthright of the subject's sole prerogative." Give the Britisher freedom and there need be no uneasiness when dealing with British people.

Unfortunately conditions in Canada are not quite the same as they are in Great Britain. Our foreign population intimidates them. Coming from foreign lands where they were oppressed and burdened down by autocrats and bureaucrats, they do not understand the value of Canadian freedom—they get the limit. They are inflammable material for the agitator, and we, therefore, cannot give the same freedom of utterance as is given in Great Britain. Notwithstanding this, it does seem that Canadians are becoming intolerant. There are men who do not hesitate to attempt to completely deprive their fellow-men of their right to voice their opinions. They do not realize or will not realize that there are, at least, two sides to every question. Professor Skelton claims that "We have to learn the importance of free speech." We are all better off when we know our opponent's viewpoint.

How can we get together if we do not search for common ground upon which we can all agree? We all want a better Canada, only we have different ways of expressing our desires. The men who were mainly responsible for the many liberties we now enjoy were considered to be extremists in their day. Extremists spur us forward if their objects are lawful and sane.

A Contrast.
Vancouver Sun.—The contrast between the present talk of the Allies about getting Germany on her feet and the former wild, pre-election promises of indemnities to be collected is very striking. The fact is that Europe is in danger of punishing itself more than the Germans, however richly they may deserve punishment.

LEO P. BILLODEAU

In Lancaster Military Hospital a little after noon yesterday, Leo P. Billodeau, a native of Ingebricht, Sask., passed away after a very brief illness from meningitis. Mr. Billodeau, who came east some years ago, had been for a considerable time in the Canadian Naval Service, holding rank as chief writer in the paymaster's department. He lived for several years in Halifax, where he made many friends, who, with those in St. John, will regret the early death of one who had every prospect of a brilliant future. Upon demobilization, Mr. Billodeau came to St. John, where he had been employed as a salesman with
