LUMBERMEN VERY ANXIOUS FOR RAINFALL

Richard O'Leary, in City Today, Says Conditions Throughout Province Begin to Look Serious

Richard O'Leary, of Richibucto, was in the city today at the Royal. Speaking of lumbering conditions throughout the province, he said, they were beginning to look serious, and unless there came an abundant rainfall, it would be a poor year for those engaged in that industry. In most sections the water did not rise high enough in the streams for the whole drive to be gotten out, and much of the winter's cut was hung up.

A heavy rain fell early yesterday morning, but it was not nearly sufficient to satisfy the lumbermen not to cause any change in conditions. It did considerable good, however, in aiding in stamping out the remnants of the forest fires which have been raging about the province. As far as information received goes, the fires are now entirely extinguished, but they have been known in some cases to smolder all summer in forests affording deep shelter. Those who are acquainted with fighting forest fires claim that a rain of two or three days would be required to thoroughly saturate the ground so as to remove all possibility of their again breaking out.

The liquor case against Ernest Howes, proprietor of the Park Hotel, will be reviewed before His Honor Judge Forbes at 2:30 this afternoon. Last December the Park Hotel was convicted before Judge Ritchie of having more than one entrance to their bar. The case of The Canadian Fairbanks Co. vs. Day, which was to have been heard before His Honor Judge Forbes this morning, was adjourned until this afternoon at 3 o'clock, because of the absence of witnesses George H. J. B. M. Baxter appears as counsel for L. B. D. Lewin, who is acting for the plaintiff.

Before His Honor Justice McLeod this morning, application was made by J. H. A. L. Forrester for an order for the sale of the property of A. E. Hamilton, Ltd. The mortgages in possession constitute an order will be issued. J. B. M. Baxter, A. A. Wilson, and S. B. Baxter appeared for the mortgages and A. E. Hamilton, Ltd.
