THE PEOPLE VS. THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.—This is a Canadian edition of the great speeches of the Hon. J. B. Finch, and is pronounced by competent critics to be one of the most masterly arraignments of the drink system that has ever been made. This Canadian edition has been specially revised and corrected by Mr. Finch. It contains eight lectures reported in full, and should be in the hands of every temperance and Prohibition worker. It is sold at a reduced rate through the kindness of the R. W. G. Lodge, I.O.G.T. Paper covers, 166 pages, with portrait. Price, 25 cents.

CANADIAN PROHIBITION RECITER.—Edited by Jas. L. Hughes, Public School Inspector of Toronto; specially prepared for use in Lodges, Divisions, and at temperance entertainments. It contains seventeen dialogues and twenty-three readings and recitations; neatly gotten up on good paper, handsomely designed paper covers, 180 pages. Price, 30 cents.

THE PROHIBITION CONTROVERSY.—This work consists of the Alliance Year Books for 1884 and 1885, bound together. It gives full reports of proceedings at the two annual meetings of the Council of the Dominion Alliance; it contains full Hansard reports of the great debates in the House of Commons upon Prohibition (in 1884) and Compensation (in 1885). These debates alone cover over 80 pages, and the book contains much other invaluable information. 16mo., paper covers, fine paper, 160 pages. Price, 20 cents.

SELECT SOCIAL READINGS.—Edited by Jacob Spence, contains a large number of carefully edited selections, adapted for public entertainments; more than one hundred pieces, many of them never published before. Tastefully bound, paper covers, 126 pages. Price, 25 cents.

CANADA TEMPERANCE MANUAL AND PROHIBITIONISTS' HANDBOOK.—By Professor George E. Foster, M.P. The very best epitome of information in reference to the Scott Act and the working of Prohibition that has ever been published; full of valuable facts and statistics, condensed into the smallest possible space; an invaluable work for everyone who wants to be posted on the present condition of the great Canadian prohibition campaign, and who wants to know how to answer every argument that is offered by the liquor party. Bound in paper covers, 116 pages. Price, 20 cents.

CANADIAN HUMOROUS RECITER.—Edited by James L. Hughes, Public School Inspector of Toronto. Specially adapted for providing really good, amusing selections for popular entertainments. There are in this book seventeen dialogues and twelve readings and recitations, every one of which is full of fun, and of suitable length. It is handsomely bound in designed colored paper covers, 180 pages. Price, 30 cents.

DANGER.—By T. S. Arthur. A thrilling temperance tale, 230 pages, paper covers. 15 cents.

THE ALLIANCE YEAR BOOK, 1884.—Full of valuable information; very nicely printed; contains House of Commons debate on Prohibition, in full. 10 cents.

SCOTT ACT PACKET I., containing the Scott Act in full, with all amendments, 40 pages; An Appeal for the Scott Act, by Rev. W. A. McKay, 32 pages; Alliance Year Book, 1884, 112 pages; The Nation's Curse, by Archdeacon Farrar, 16 pages; and 50 pages of assorted tracts and leaflets. Price, 25 cents.
