Dr. Lorenz Performs Two Operations at Montreal Hospital-Death of a Centenarian.

Winnipeg, June 22.—Mildas Andrews and his nephew, a lad of about 12 years, were driving across the tracks at Regina this evening, and did not notice the approaching express. Both were killed. Deceased was a prosperous farmer, residing near Regina.

Operations by Dr. Lorenz.

Montreal, June 22 .- Dr. Ado h Lorenz, the Austrian surgeon, performed two operations at Montreal General hospital to-day. One was a case of con-genital hip and the other a club foot, both of which were successful. There was a large number of local physicians and surgeons present. There were some 50 applicants for operation, which had to be denied on account of lack of time, and because it is expected that local surgeons, after witnessing to-day's opera-tion, will now be able to perform similar operations with success Sudden Death.

WOMAN'S CONFESSION Tells How She Killed Her Husband and BRITSH MINSTER

Spokane, June 20.—Overwhelmed by the miss of circumstantial evidence, Amanda J. De Lartigue to-day went on the witness stand at Pomeroy and con-fessed to the killing of her young husband with an axe.

counger than his wife, mysteriously disappeared September 23rd last. He was a well-known rancher. Mrs. De Lartigue said he had gone to Honolulu. Suspicion fell upon her when she tried to sell their give up a small piece of land near the house. The detectives finally dug into the old potato cellar and found the body of her husband. Bit by bit little items of evidence were secured culminating in a mass of testimony, all showing that the woman had tried to make the people believe her husband had died en route to Honolulu.

This morning she went on the stand London, and in a trembling voice related the events of the fateful night. She said sisted. He struck her.
"I said, 'If you strike me again I will expose you about the horse you stole in the Grand Ronde," she continued. "I jumped out of bed and he after me and out of the house. He shot at me once. When I got further away I heard a fall. I looked back. He was on one knee, getting ready to shoot. With an oath, getting ready to shoot. With an oath, he fired. I had stopped at a small tree, at the root of which was a chopping block with an axe. I reached it and went back and struck him."

"Did you kill him?" asked the attorney.
"I did. I then dragged or carried the body into the old potato cellar and buried it. I saw his saddle and blanket and threw them in on him."

Adopted.

Toronto, June 22 .- The News' Lonlon cable says: "The Federation for Imperial Defence has promulgated a resolution urging the government to insist on colonial contribuions to the army and navy in the event of any preferential scheme being adopted. They point out that the whole burden of empire falls on the upholders of the homeland, and this must be changed. Amid conflicting views of Chamberlain-ism Motherlanders are agreed that if any fiscal favors are granted to the colonies, the latter must contribute to Imperial defence. Mr. Chamberlain, it is pointed out, keeps this feature of his policy in the background, but his opinion thereon is pronounced.
