Delegates in

Remarks Relative to nen and the Synod Meeting.

Interesting Digest of the Clerical Reports from the Parishes of the Diocese-The Public Missionary Meeting.

(Staff Correspondence of the Sun.) ST. STEPHEN, July 7 .- The synod so far has been favored with magnificent weather, of a warm but not exceptionally hot character, the nights being sufficiently cool for refreshing sleep. A gratifying feature of the session is the large attendance, the number of lay delegates being much in excess of the average. This demonstrates that there are some false prophets in the body, and that St. Ste-phen is a good place for an occasional meeting. Nowhere has the synod been more agreeably housed and entertained, and had it been known in time the lay delegates would have been cared for in private residences as well as

Despite the great crush of July 4th, a sort of overflow from Calais celebration, the Windsor hotel was able to provide for the comfort of every guest, having secured beds in many private houses near by. Host Ganong knows how to run a hotel, something that must be born in man and cannot be acquired.

Much of the success of the synod meeting is due to the energetic labors of Rev. O. S. Newnham, the popular rector of St. Stephen and secretary of synod. This dergyman is beloved by his flock and respected by the entire

Much progress was made with business yesterday afternoon and evening. F. S. Sharpe, auditor, submitted a carefully prepared report, accompan ied by some suggestions that were received with general approval. This is Mr. Sharpe's first year in this position. W. Emile Smith, the treasurer, came in for large meed of praise for the manner in which he had kept the accounts and books of the synod.

The vote to meet in Chatham next year was a unanimous one. That it was so is due more to the general popularity of Canon Forsyth than to any other cause. While most of the members felt desirous of stimulating church work along the North Shore holding the next synod meeting in Chatham, there was an undercurrent feeling that the hotel accommodation Forsyth's promise to see that everybody would be properly cared for is one that will be carried out to the letter, and the synod will be as well looked after as if it met in St. John or Fredericton. The discussion last night on Sunday chools was one of much heartiness. ndations of the commit tee were fully explained by Rev. H. Montgomery, and Archdeacon Brig-stocke, Dean Partridge, Judge Hanington and others in stirring speeches the general desire being to stir un more interest in this great department well filled with visitors, chiefly ladies, during the progress of this debate. The synod will finish its business on Friday, in time to enable the clergy to reach their respective homes for Sunday.

St. George and Pennfield-Rev. Ranald E. Smith gave a concisé resume of his work during nearly 40 years' connection as a missionary with the old Diocesan Church Society. Thirty years of this time he has been harge of this parish, had baptized 80 persons, 410 had been confirmed and 179 marriages celebrated. He attended 420 burials. He held 6,285 services given 6,285 sermons and resses. The present number of com-nunicants is about 130.

St. David-The church of St. Thomas at St. George has been repainted and the Church of the Ascension will be repainted during the summer. A handome new fence has been around the churchyard of the Trans-

Queensbury and Southampton Mis-

ions-Rev. R. Coleman read a good report of his first year's work in id. From Nov., 1897, to May, 1898, he held on the average two Sunday ervices a month at St. Paul's, Upper on of a Sunday service at one f his regular stations. To fill his nday appointments alone and drive of 49 or 50 miles. This, gether with other parochial work and isiting, runs up the total to considerably above 4,000 miles in the year. The services were well attended and the missionary found much to grateful for. Salisbury.—Services have been held regularly at Petitcodiac, Havelock and other parts of this field. The congregations are small. "Havelock is the most encouraging portion of the field." A most substantial fence has on which St. Paul's church stands, and the outside of the church soon be painted. St. Andrew's church, Petitcodiac, will be shingled and painted before winter sets in. The parish register for the year shows four baptisms, three marriages and three baptisms, three marriages burials. The people will raise $35 more burials. for this than in former years. Simonds.—Rev. L. A. Hoyt reported steady growth during the past year, especially at Golden Grove. Re-gular monthly classes for Bible in-struction were held at Garnet. Owing to the state of the rolling mills Coldbrook, church work has not flourished. The chief event of the year was the building of a church at Red Head. Rev. Mr. Hoyt heartly acknowledged the practical encouragement he had received from Mrs. Medlcy of Fredericton, and many kind friends in St. John. Prince William and Dumfries-The report covers about six months, Rev. J. F. Scovil having been ill the hall-ince of the year. Eighty services were held and the communion list ind from 65 to 85. In early June the bishop consecrated All Saint graveyard at Upper Magaguadavi and confirmed 48 candidates. Ten o these were confirmed at Hawkshaw During January, February and Mar the rector was efficiently assisted Mr. Maunsell Shewan as lay reads The rectory near St. Clement's church is almost completed at a cost of between $1,300 and $1,400. The mission has relieved the diocesan funds from paying $105 annually. St. Luke's, St. John.—The—usual services have been held in the parish thursh with an increasing number of communicants. Services have been held at Millidgeville regularly on Sundays and on Friday evenings throughout the year. In October last, Rev. Mr. McKim, the rector, opens, a mission service at Stran Snore road, a hitherto neglected portion of the city. It has proved a success. The money contributions have been good. Two hundred and fifty dollars has been paid on the bonded debt of the church and $600 to missionary a charitable objects. For the first tir the parish has made a contributi to the mission fund of the die to the mission fund of the diocese. Rothesay.—Rev. A. W. Daniel reported services held every Sunday at Rothesay, Hammond River and Gondola Point, and a regular midweek service at Quispamsis. The aggregate average attendance is 253. In ddition, Rev. O. W. Howard, principal of the Rothesay boys' school, has held a second service in St. Paul's, Rothesay, each Sunday of the school term, and "I have held a regular Friday service at Rothesay and special services on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, Ascension day, and Christmas day." Number of communicants on the roll, 170; average numper, 91; number at Eastertide, 120 Sunday school work had been faithfully carried out. Alt Easter, St. Paul's, Rothesay, received a very beautiful memorial chancel window relieved by handsome carvied aish panelling, erected by the family of the late Hon. John Bobertson in me-mory of himself, his wife, his sons his grandson. A chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew was form ed in connection with St Paul's church in December and has already borne much good fruit. The sewing circle of St. Paul's has paid off an additional $200 on the church organ. The congregation of S. Augustine's Mission, Quispamsis, has bought and paid for a new prayer desk and a cabinet organ. The year's baptisms were 24; confirmations from parish, 31; from schools, 16; marriages, 1;

St. Jude's, Carleton (St. John)-Rev. H. M. Spike reported he had supthe services since Rev. Mr Withycombe left the parish. Sunday school Lent boxes realized $11.10; the Epiphany appeal for do-mestic and foreign missions, $7.22; Ascension appeal for same object, for centenary of S. P. C. K., for Jews' mission at Jerusalem, $4 24

Woodstock-Archdeagon Neales reported that while doing the work of docesan delegate, his duty was taken by Rev. E. A. Warneford, and during the last few weeks of his absence Rev. W. B. Belliss, his assistant, conducted the parish work unassisted. Great regret was expressed that the parish could not afford to retain Mr. B.'s services beyond August 1st. Last autumn a beautiful Caen stone front was placed in St. Luke's church as a memorial to the late Bishop Medley by those on whom he had laid his hands in the holy rite of confirmation. A new pipe organ was placed in this church last April.

Richibucto-The congregations at Buctouche have placed a $100 organ in the church, and the Kingston peoside and out. The most important work of the year was the ten days mission held last October by Rev. R. P. McKim. It was a time of specia Wicklow-Rev. J. E. Flewelling reported services held regularly during the year. Gifts from St. John and Fredericton for parochial work were gratefully acknowledged; also to many parishioners for kind words and pres-ents. The death of Albert Brittain ,en route to the Klondyke, was feelingly alluded to. The baptisms of infants have been greater than usual, but marriages are few in number.

Sussex-The rector of Sussex and Studholm reported a year of peace and harmony and of some encouragement Although $400 of debt was paid off last year, the parish is still more than $1,000 behind. The Sunday school was not in a flourishing condition. As soon ble a church hall would be erected in Sussex village, the need of one at a central point being much felt Feeling reference vas made to the loss sustained by the church in the recent death of Mrs. Medley.

Weldford and Harcourt-Rev. Geo. L. Freebern reported 21 infants and 3 adults baptized since July, 1897; also 16 burials and 3 marriages.

Trinity church, St. Stephen—Rev.

F. Robertson reported the past year one of spiritual blessing. The Wednesday evening services are exceptionally well attended. The parish's financial standing is better than for many years and the communicant's rell is gradually increasing.

St. Stephen-Rev. O. S. Newnhar reported Christ church congregation somewhat increased in numbers. Some names have been added to the communion roll and the Sunday sch holds its own. Many improvement and additions around the church and school room are due to the untiring efforts of the Young Women's Guild a new cote for the bell and purchased new carpet for the platform in school room and vestry; also new prayer ooks for the church. They have also nade a donation of $45 towards the the photos of the rectors of the par-ish, of much historical interest, has ish, of much historical interest, nas lately been secured. The work of the church in Milltown is somewhat hin-dered by the fact that service can only be given on Sunday afternoons and Wednesday evenings. Four p. m. on nday is not the most convenient hour for holding service in a town parish. Milltown was a good field for the labors of a superannuated clergyman. The report goes on: "We are glad to welcome the synod of the diocese in St. Stephen, and though our numbers are not many, we are glad to be able to say that the visiting clergy are to be entertained by the members of the church in the parishes of St. Stephen and Trinity, without having to go outside. It would have given us much pleasure if we could also have extended the same hospitality to the visiting lay representatives. If our number had been greater this would have been done." The contribution to the diocesan mission fund is more than last year by $41.54. year by $41.54.

on June 1st, after a pastorate of three years and eleven months, "the second "Among the difciculties of this parish may be mentioned the small number of church people, the way many of these are mixed up with dissenters in marriage and otherwise, the want of unity among the church people themselves, and the lack of sympathy and support for those who watch for their souls. St. Mary's, St. John-Rev. W. O. Raymond reported he had been at this church over fourteen years, and in that time had paptized 742 infants and adults, presented 212 candidates for confirmation, married 252 couples, and officiated at 616 burials. During the past year the services have been renarkably well attended and the offerings have increased correspondingly. The church does not now owe a dollar, but it needs an organ, a furnace and other things. A breathing spell was being taken just now after an expen-diture of about $3,500 in putting the church and Sunday school in a thorough state of repair. The premises have been greatly improved lately through the zeal and energy of E. V. Godfrey. Special mention was made in the report of the young men's orchestra, the singing, the chapter of St. Andrew, the Young People's Association, the ladies' guild, etc. The Sunday school continues to do good work, with a total enrollment of 387. The school raised $330 for all purposes Alfred Bareham were dwelt on, and mention made of many persons who had loyally helped St. Mary's in various ways last year.

sion church had pursued the even tenor of its way during the past year. There were held over 1.300 services in the church, of which 486 were celebrations of the holy communion, 128 sermons, courses of sermons in Advent and Lent; 27 baptisms, 27 confirmed, 8 funerals, 4 weddings. The roll of communicants is at present 270. Special mention was made of the parochial conducted by the Rev. R. Dolling. The Sunday school was progressive and successful. The church was well served by a guild of women called the Guild of S. Monica, which includes within itself several committees for special works. It numbers about 35 members. Last year this guild contributed $250 towards the support of the Branch House of the Community of the Holy Name, which does in the church. One for young women communicants, under the care of Sister Eunice and the Rev. P. Owenlones, its warden, is named "The Holy Cross Guild." A Guild of Perseverarce in charge of Rev W Have for young men communicants, meets once a month. Considerable space was given to other features of the church, and a strong plea was made for better support for the Davenport school. The church is maintained by offertories and envelopes. Including children's offerings, they contributed over $225 to the D. C. S. last year, over $260 for the sick and needy, about $50 to Bishop Blythe, $30 to the Bishop of Algoma, $30 to the S. P. G., foreign, $50 to Bishop Richardson's Central African mission, and scmething to domestic missions in general. The conribution to the Board of Home Missions this year would be $50 ahead of Richmond-Rev. A. W. Teed reported 11 baptisms, 1 marriage and burials for the year ending April A small debt on St. John's church has been paid and funds collected to have the interior complete-ly restored. The exterior of St. Paul's has been painted and the work paid

St. James, St. John-Rev. Mr. Dewdney reported much to encourage dur-ing the year. The present number of communicants is the largest in the history of the parish. Contributions to the funds of the church have in-orensed between 30 and 40 per cent. To accommodate the large Sunday school it has been found necessary to enlarge the school house. A touching reference was made to the death of the late Robert W. Crookshank.

Andover-Rev. S. B. Hillock began sion church in Glenburn district, the St. John Medley memorial church at Four Falls, and St. George's church, Bairdsville district are included this parish. Mr. Hillock is a worker He reports: "I have visited family and every individual within the bounds of the parish of Andover who is a member of Trinity church or who is in the habit of attending upon its services." "Up to date there has been no trouble in raising money for all church purposes."

Petersville—Rev. W. B. Armstrong reported services maintained during the year without a break. Last winter monthly services were held at Clarendon station. At Welsford a fund has been started for new seats for St. Luke's church with a grand outlook. The parish met with a great Norton—Rev. C. P. Hanington re-ported regular services at the three churches to fairly good congregations, New Maryland—Rev. F. H. E. Whalley reported a service every Sun-day except two, when bad roads pre-vented. The Sunday school has 23 names on its roll. Fredericton-Rev. G. G. Roberts reported average attendance 150 at 133 unday services. There were 16 baptisms, 6 marriages, 13 burials. There were 2 Sunday schools; total roll, 236. Gagetown-Rev. N. C. Hansen reported at length on the great progress made in repairing the churches, etc., in the past seven years.

Richibucto - The rector reports a otal church population of 350, with churches, average attendance, 90 to 120. There is one Sunday school Raised for church purposes, $525.11. Monoton-Rev. E. B. Hooper reported a larger number of communicants than ever, and services on the whole well attended. St. George's church has been raised and a fine school room fitted up beneath. The total cost of the improvements was $3,000, of which $1,600 has been paid, the balance to be wiped out within three years. A deeper interest in home missions was aroused by the visit of Rev. H. Montgomery.

Ludlow and Blissfield-The sioner reported that the field manded greater attention and care than it now receives with only a monthly service. The crying need is last year. The good results of the a resident missionary. The death of parochial mission held by the Rev. the late Robert Swim of Doaktown was fittingly alluded to.

The parish had undertaken to raise $25 additional to its present

Albert-Rev. A. W. Smithers submitted a very interesting report from this new field of labor, which pened June 8th of this year.

Hardwicke-Rev. W. J. Wilkinson ported no cause to be discouraged. He heartily praised the good work done by the W. A. A. and the men of the parish, and heartily acknow-ledged gifts from Fredericton, St. John, etc. 'The death of John G. Williston had been a severe loss to the church. "The salmon and lobster fisheries are unusually poor here this year, but the crops look well." Hammond and Upham-Rev. W. J. Bate reported work "healthy and progressive." In October last the bishop confirmed 56 people, 37 men and 19 women. There were 31 baptisms, 7 marriages and 14 burials in

The women of the parish had raised $50 towards a fence enclosing cemetery, church and rectory. The report acknowledged gifts to St. Alban's church of a lectern and prayer desk from Ven. Archdeacon Brigstocke and Chatham-Rev. Canon Forsyth reported much progress and activity in his cure. Derby and Blackville, Dorchester, Canterbury, Campobello, Cambridge, and Burton; and Addington and Eldon, and the Cathedral also sent in carefully prepared reports.

Carleton—Rev. Mr. Sampson reported a steady increase in the number communicants and the attendance of communicants and the attendance at the Sunday school. He held 190 services during the year; also 40 baptisms, 10 marriages and 23 burlals. There were 21 persons confirmed. The Sunday school has 230 on the roll, with 20 officers and teachers, and a communicant roll of 220. Appended to the report was a list of subscribers to the home mission fund.

Blissville and Gladstone—This mission is perhaps better known as Fredericton Junction. Rev. Mr. Dibblee reports that the first C. of E. service was held Dec. 10, 1894. The missionary work embraces the two parishes Blissville and Gladstone. The record shows for the year 22 adults and cord shows for the year 22 adults and infants baptized, 18 candidates confirmed and a Sunday school organized with 30 scholars. Average congregations, 125 and 70; church members about 90. GEORGE HARVEY'S DEATH.

(Toronto World, July 6.) Late this afternoon George Harvey, clerk in the Bank of Montreal, Toronto, here in his holidays, was drowned while bathing at Cartwright's Point. He was taken with cramps. Deceased was 24 years of age, and the son of a widow. Mr. Harvey was col-lection clerk in the head office of the Bark of Montreal, Toronto, where he was exceedingly popular. Deceased's home was at Kingston, and he was on his vacation. He was a very bright young fellow, and was shortly to have een promoted. The initials of de-eased were P. G. W. H. It is stated hat he was not in the best of health when he went for his holidays. Monday evening, however, he telephoned the bank officials that he was all right and would return to his duties today. Mr. Haryey was for several years attached to the St. John branch of the Bank of Montreal, and was well known in society circles in this city.

AN UNDERGROUND CRIME.

At Southern Cross, West Australia, a miner named Manley was sentenced to penal servitude for life for a cowardly attempt to murder his mate. There had been a trifling disagreelaw case and Manley's discomfiture. In reverge he waited until his mate was at the bottom of a 24 foot minng shaft, when he hurled an iron bucket and a quantity of heavy quartz on top of him, and fired two evolver shots at him, vounding him in the leg. More boulders followed, and when the victim, putting a buckto the surface, another stone knocked him off the ladder. Much cut about the head and bruised about the body eventually escaped to prosecute would-be murderer. — Western Mail. Perth.
