INTERRED AT DONEGAL The funeral of the late Abraham Adair of Donegal, Kings Co., N. B., took place on Friday, the 28th ult., at 1 p. m. At the hour appointed a large nber of relatives and friends gath ered at his residence, where a funeral service was held, conducted by the Rev. T. Allen, Methodist minister, after which the remains were borne away and laid in the cemetery at Mechanic Settlement. Abraham Adair was a native of the north of Ireland; emigrated to this country when quite a young man, and came to the grave in the full age of 87 years. With others of his country men and relatives he took up a ne farm among the hills in the southeast of Kings Co. For long years they toiled in clearing up land and making home for themselves in the new settlement, which they called Donegal. The land did not fulfill all their hopes of it at the first, nevertheless Mr. and Mrs. Adair, by their toil and thrift, made a comfortable home gathered their household treasures around them, raised a family of five daughters, all of whom are living with families around them, Mrs. Jones and Frs. BEAR HUNTING IN CHARLOTTE CO.

There are plenty of black bears in Charlotte Co. this autumn. A party, composed of David Bradt, and wife, of Boston, and Clarence Godard of Work been more conclusively displayed than the wonderful clam regulation which is published over the signature cester, Mass., are now staying at one of T. A. Sullivan's club houses at Mc4 Dougal Lake, twelve miles from Bonny River. The party have as guide the veteran hunter and trapper, Wiborr Reynolds, and during the time they have been at McDougal they have shot four bears and hope to secure more before they return to their homes. One of the bears, a female and a monster in size, whose cub had been killed, and who was slightly wounded, closed with the guide. cartridge jammed in the breech of his rifle and he had quite a lively struggle with the infuriated brute, narrowly escaping serious injury. Mr. Godard, however, fortunately appeared on the scene, and a well directed bullet from his gun soon ended bruin's car-No. 82,700 — Wm. Rath, Conjuring eer. In addition to the bears the party shot, they saw many more and also report deer very abundant. They came in the first place for fishing and outing generally and intended to return home before now. Game is so plentiful, however, that they have decided to prolong their stay until the end of the month and take advantage of the open season, which begins on the 15th. They have taken large the 15th catches of excellent trout.
