St. Patrick's Team Won From Quebec

Toronto, Ont., Jan. 18.—Notwithstanding the fact that St. Patrick's are practically out of the running for the first half championship in the league race, one of the largest crowds of the season turned out here on Saturday night to see the Irish hand Quebec an 8 to 3 defeat. Matto and Producers lined up with the locals and both made good. Matto, the former Tiger star, was every bit as effective as he was in the O. H. A. and he made himself solid with the fans by fearless efforts. Canadians and Ottawa are having a close battle for first half honors but the acquisition of Matto and Producers means that St. Patrick's will likely be the teams to beat for the title in the second half.

PRINCESS MARY BOX REACHES ST. JOHN

Duplicate of the Christmas Box Presented to All British Soldiers Received by Natural History Society.

A duplicate of the Christmas box which Her Royal Highness the Princess Mary presented to all the men of the British army has been recently presented to the Natural History Society through the medium of the Under-Secretary of State and the Private Secretary of the Lord Governor. The box is neatly made of brass and contains the Christmas and New Year's cards which the Princess sent to the troops in 1914 and 1915. An "unbroken" bust of the Princess is on the cover of the box, as well as the names of the Allies—France, Russia, Belgium, Japan, Montenegro, and the United States. The box will be highly treasured as one of the souvenirs of the Great War, and a noteworthy example of how the women of the British Empire, from the highest to the lowest, were kept green in their memory by such kind deeds the men who were fighting for home and loved ones on the bloody fields of war.

An excellent photograph of Princess Mary, and a chart showing the number of men who received her Christmas box, accompanied this interesting souvenir.

LOADING AT HALIFAX.
The steamer Melmore Head, Head Line, which met with a mishap in the St. Lawrence river last November, and towed to Halifax, is now awaiting repairs to her machinery, and is also being loaded with general cargo there for Belfast. This steamer was proceeding to St. John, but since loading her cargo at Halifax she will not come to this port.

GENEROUS DONATIONS.
The Canadian Fairbanks Company, in appreciation for work and services rendered at recent fire in their premises, has given one hundred dollars to the Princess Mary's Association, and fifty dollars to the Police and Protective Association.

"Our sports programme for the coming month is the best we've ever had."

Tomorrow snowshoe clubs will make long trips across country and hockey and skating will be featured. Lord and Lady Shaughnessy and other notables are at the Chateau Frontenac for the carnival opening.

MONCTON TALKS TELEPHONE RATES

Board of Trade Discusses Application of N. B. Telephone Co. Asking for An Increase — Want to be Shown.

Moncton, Jan. 16.—At a meeting of the Moncton Board of Trade this evening for the purpose of considering the application of the New Brunswick Telephone Company for an increase of rates, no definite action was taken for or against the proposed. The general feeling, however, was that the company was entitled to a reasonable increase, but more information is desired as to what is meant by "measured rates."

If "measured rates" means that places within a radius of a few miles are to be charged long distance, the board was unanimous in the opinion that this phase of the application should be opposed.

The Voice of England.
Never so high the voice of England rose.

As in her agony,
Nor spoke so clear and far, as when her breath

Came mid the throes of worlds in smoke and flame,
And in the storm of war and chill of death

Was never still, but kept on living warm,
Then, while at grips with fate and desperate,

Ever so true and well tuned she her lips,
That, like some holy bell, they seemed to flight

The cloven-footed Majesty of Might,
With grim proctors of the Powers of Hell

Arrayed against the Right,
Her foot was as the root of her own oak

And turned not back,
Nor when the tempest broke, bowed she her head

Or let her courage slack. Her only dread
Was fear of shame cast on her ancient name.

And to the last she kept her honor pure,
As in the stately days of Agincourt.

Yet though the voices of her myriad dead
To us seem dumb, though their be loved feet

Which were so faint once more to meet and tread
Upon the English shore, come not again

Their glory still survives, a living voice,
Strong, proud, supreme, music of gallant lives

Unhushed by fear, and bidding us re-echo
With Death, that he has found so high a theme

To score to triumph-song that shall resound
Ringing for evermore in England's ear.

—Fred G. Penney, in United Empire

On Friday the C. P. R. officials handled 1,350 passengers from the Empress of France in eight hours and ten minutes. After the passengers disembarked they had to pass through the customs, be ticketed to their destination, have their baggage checked and secure sleeping accommodations, etc. There were more than 2,000 pieces of hand baggage to be handled, but this work was effectively carried out in the new shed, which was recently constructed. As a result of the new structure the entire working was facilitated and in addition the passengers were under cover from the time they left the steamer until they passed into their cars, which were lined up outside the baggage shed.

Misdirected Energy.
The motorist emerged from beneath the car and struggled for breath. His helpful friend holding the oil can beamed over him.

Flying Frenchmen Won From Senators

Montreal, Que., Jan. 18.—Taking almost a desperate chance and shooting from centre ice to break the existing tie, Arbour, who played brilliantly throughout for Canadiens, scored the old goal in five that gave the Flying Frenchmen a victory over the Senators by a score of 3 to 2. The victory assured Canadiens of second place in the race for the honors of the first half of the schedule and gives the team an outside chance of beating the Senators for the premier position.

While luck was a factor in the scoring of the goal that brought the game to the termination, the exhibition of hockey furnished by the teams was perhaps never surpassed in a local rink.
