Sad Case of Drowning. Capt. Ansley Patten, of the schooner Digby, was drowned in Yarmouth harbor, near Bunker's Island, yesterday. The vessel was frozen in the ice, and, in attempting to reach her, Capt. Patten broke through and was drowned, after struggling half an hour. His body was recovered. The Captain, who was well known in St. John, leaves a wife and several children.

Sunday School Festival. The scholars of the Centenary Sabbath School were treated last evenining to a Christmas Tree and festival in the School Room last evening. The children each received a suitable present from their enter tainers the teachers, and some pleasing music was furnished during the evening.
