

- ties, command; Dominions, the war; Imperial Conferences; requisitioning of ships; items below relating to war
- War Appropriation Act, 69-70, 72, 161
- War Cabinet (UK), functions and composition, 92, 94, 96-97, 153; financing of military operations, 171; discussion of Passchendaele offensive, 201-3; attendance by Dominions Prime Ministers, 303-4; by other Ministers, 304, 352; attendance by Canadians, 318-19, 321; relations with Imperial War Cabinet, 308, 335-36, 352; Borden asks to see important documents of, 358; Secretariat, 332, 332n, 337-38—see also Imperial War Cabinet; War Policy, Cabinet Committee on
- war contracts—see Imperial Munitions Board; purchasing agents; Shell Committee; war orders; War Purchasing Commission
- War Department (US), permit for construction of Calumet and Sag Channel, 429-30, 432-33—see also War Secretary (US)
- war finance, Canadian borrowing in London, 1914, 44-46, 49, 51-52, 57, 60-61; 1915, 62-63, 84, 91-92, 94-95, 102; British backing for Canadian financial measures, 46, 49, 81-83, 91, 95; funding of debt to UK, 1916, 137-38; borrowing in US, 1914-17, 44, 49, 60, 62-63, 80, 83-84, 92, 95, 120, 137, 170, 172, 179; domestic financial measures, 1914, 44-46, 49, 51, 60; 1915, 62-63, 69, 81-83, 91, 95; 1916, 63, 130-31; 1917, 170-72, 176, 187-88; British borrowing, 1914, 46, 52; 1915, 88-90, 119-20; 1916, 129-31, 135, 142; 1917, 169-70, 172, 174, 176-77, 179; Canadian financing of British purchases, 169-72, 174, 176-77, 179, 188; review of British borrowing in Canada, 171; US government policy in relation to accommodating UK and Canada, 169, 172, 177, 179—see also borrowing in the US, above
- war graves, 315
- War Measures Act, 33, 99-100, 139, 147, 166, 196, 506
- War Office (UK), procurement: war supplies and their transportation, 50, 61, 65, 93, 106, 109; purchasing agents, 77, 92-93; acquisition of Canadian ships, 150, 156; war orders in Canada, 170-72, 174, 176; Shell Committee, 121; munitions patterns for Canadian manufacturers, 231-32—see also Cubitt, B. B., assistant secretary; war orders; War Secretary
- organization of military effort: co-ordination of war programme, 54; acceptance and organization of Canadian divisions, 43, 45, 53, 73, 79-80; expenses of operations in France, 90; movement of Canadian troops and supplies, 74, 109, 120; request for additional Canadian troops, 127; limitation of reserve battalions in Britain, 128; promotion of Canadian officers, 114n, 134, 166; channels of communication with Canadian Headquarters Organization, London, 152; General Staff planning dependent on Cabinet policy, 161-62; prepared to accept Overseas Military Council of Canada, 194-95; Siberian expedition, 206-7; development of air arm in Canada, 124, 135, 156; acquisition of patrol boats, 156; development of Canadian defences, 229; War Office would not form part of an Imperial organization, 336
- Director of Movements, 109; Director of Military Operations, 161; Directorate of Military Aeronautics, 164-65—see also Army Council; Imperial General Staff; War Secretary (UK)
- war orders: procedure, 30-31; orders invited by Canada, 50, 61, 76; alleged neglect of Canada as a source of supply, 59, 61, 75-77, 88 (see also United States, the war, 1914-18); British orders, 59, 61, 98-100, 116, 171-72, 174, 176-77, 179; French, 59, 61, 75-76, 90-91, 103, 105; Italian, 90, 103, 105; Russian, 72-73, 138, 140, 171; threat of curtailment of deliveries owing to shipping shortage, 92-93; purchases in US of supplies for Canada, conditions for, 179-80—see also Admiralty, shipbuilding in Canada; Imperial Munitions Board; purchasing agents; Shell Committee; War Purchasing Commission; munitions; foodstuffs; coal; clothing; wheat
- War Policy, Cabinet Committee on (UK), task of co-ordination, 94, 96, 201—see also war, conduct of
- War Purchasing Commission, 69-72, 75