TO THE ELECTORS

COUNTY OF RENFREW GENTLEMEN _

As I stated, in my reply to the Requiabonists. I would consult my own perremain in retirement; but the urgent HOR School Section No. 1, in the requests of many friends, and the presentation of a requisition, signed by so many of the influential residents of the County, compel me to lay aside private feelings, and place my services at your dis-

All those who want would always have my steady and cordial Ocean, is one of the means which I con-Ocean, is one of the means which I consider of the utmost importance and absolutely necessary to this end, and as I do not doubt its practicability, I - would earnestly urge the necessity of a prelimmary survey being made as soon as possible, feeling assured that the completion of such a work would materially add to our commercial importance and prosperity and at the same time be a safe detence against hostile invasion or foreign ag-

Economy in the public expenditure is and one of the leading principles of a wise administration should be a due and strict attention to the financial affairs of the Province, This I regret to say has not been attended to in every case where it inight have been, and with the importance it demands in view, and judging from previous experience, I would strenuously oppose the useless expenditure of he public resources.

Whilst on this subject, I may remark that I consider the present system of perambulating Parliaments, from Quebec P OR School Sections No. 6 and 7, pjurious to the interest of the Province nd one which loudly calls for remedy, both on account of the enormous sum it periodically costs the country, without any corresponding advantages and the great inconvenience and delay to the public business which necessarily occurs by each removal. I have long been convinced of the necessity and advantage of having the Seat of Government permanently established, and without fear of being thought selfish or personally inter-ested, I unhesitatingly say the City of Ottawa should be chosen for this purpose, feeling assured that from the central position and increasing important as tage.

A great amount of political capital has been attempted to be made out by those opposed to me, with regard to my I the County Town, and as such a course might tend to damage my interest with some of the Electors, I think it only justice to myselfand you, to declare emphatically that I never sought to advance the claims of any particular place for this distinction, nor do I intend, whether in or out of Parliament, to advocate such a step. I consider our County is quite sufficiently (if not too much,) burdened with taxation, and my efforts would be directed to the lessening of expense, instead of increasing it by building a Court House and Jail ither in Renfrew or Pembroke.

The making of good and serviceable reads from one end of the County to the other, is a subject of immense importance, both to the Farmer and Lumberman,—to the former especially, as it would enable him to take his produce to the best markets with facility, which he take his produce to the best markets with facility, which he take his produce to the best markets with facility, which he take his produce to the best markets with facility, which he take his produce to the best markets with facility, which he take his produce to the best markets with facility. is now unable to do; and to the latter much valuable time would be saved, as he could have his supplies delivered at a more convenient distance from the scene of his operations, and in a much shorter time than he can at present. It would be my interest as well as duty, to effect this desirable object, if possible, and I would urge on the Government its ne-

Although thus frankly stating my views to you, Gentlemen, I would desire, if returned to Parliament, to go in as an independent member.
