

concise, practical lesson notes and teacher's hints, adapted for the several grades of the Sabbath-school, and well printed in clear type on good paper.

THE BEREAN QUARTERLY.

This is one of the cheapest and most attractive lesson helps we publish. Each number contains sixteen pages—sixty-four pages a year—with lesson notes, lesson hymns, catechism questions, open and closing exercises, a descriptive index of names and places with the pronunciation marked, and a piece of choice music. In quantities of five and over, post free, 6 cents each per year.

THE BEREAN LEAF

will contain all the lesson notes of the quarter, but it has not space for the opening and closing exercises, nor the descriptive index. Price, $5.50 per 100, post free.

PLEASANT HOURS

was never so popular as during the past year. We are determined that the next year it shall be better still. While retaining the same general features, it will introduce marked improvements of illustration and context. It will, as heretofore, give special prominence to Christian missions—especially those of our own Church—to temperance, and Canadian and patriotic topics. It is a quarto eight-page paper, issued every fortnight, at the following low prices:—

PLEASANT HOURS, 8pp. 4to., every fortnight, single copies, 30 cents; less than twenty copies, 25 cents; over twenty copies, 22 cents.

HOME AND SCHOOL

will be of the same general character as PLEASANT HOURS, but of a somewhat superior grade, with more copious lesson notes and more varied home reading. These papers are, for size, and price, and excellence, the cheapest in the world. We challenge comparison. They are even ordered from the United States and Australia, as superior to anything that can be produced for the price in those countries. Issued on alternate Saturdays, they furnish a paper for every Sunday in the year. They both abound in choice pictures, poems, stories, and sketches, in temperance and missionary sentiment, in loyalty to Queen and country; and both have copious lesson notes. Many schools circulate these papers instead of library books—finding them fresher, brighter, more attractive, and much cheaper.

HOME AND SCHOOL, 8 pp. 4to., every fortnight, single copies, 30 cents; less than twenty copies, 25 cents; over twenty copies, 22 cents.

THE QUARTERLY REVIEW SERVICE

gives review questions, responsive readings, hymns, etc. Very popular. By the year, 24 cents a dozen; $2.00 per 100; per quarter, 6 cents a dozen; 50 cents per 100.

The above rates are all post paid. Specimens will be sent free to any address. Send orders early, that we may promptly meet the increased demand. Schools sending new orders for the year now will receive the numbers for the rest of the year gratis, including the special Christmas and New Year's numbers.

GRADED LESSONS.

Schools desiring graded lessons will find them in these papers. The simplest of all for the primary classes in the SUNBEAM.

For the great intermediate mass of scholars, the lessons in PLEASANT HOURS will be best suited.

For the advanced classes, the very full lesson notes in the ~~Home and School~~ will be found in every way adapted.

We mentioned some time since that the Rev. A. Andrews was called to Winnipeg by the illness of his son. We are glad to know that the son is better, but we regret to learn that Bro. Andrews is now quite ill, though his disease has not yet assumed the typhoid form. As it is, however, he will not be able to take his appointments for some weeks to come, and must therefore cancel all engagements made before he left Ontario. An article by Bro. Andrews is unavoidably crowded out of this number.

THE Ontario Sunday School Association held its annual convention during the lovely October weather, at Stratford, Ont. The attendance was very large and the proceedings were of more than usual interest, but we regret that our space will not allow a full report. We regret, too, that the Rev. John McEwen, the indefatigable and successful agent of the Association, should feel called to resign the position which he has filled with such efficiency. He bears with him, into the pastorate which he now resumes, the best wishes of all who know his work of faith and labor of love.
