

dent of His Household, and His Plenipotentiary at the Congress for the General Peace.

Monfieur Peter Francis de Fréhicgnone, Count de Castellengo, Counsellor of State to His Royal Highness of Savoy, His Attorney-General in Piedmont, and His Plenipotentiary at the Congress for a General Peace.

De SAXE-COBBOURG.

Monfieur the Baron de Hagen, President of the Cabinet-Council of His Most Serene Highness of Saxe-Cobourg, Privy-Counsellor, and Commissary-General of War to all the Serene Families of Saxe, &c. Plenipotentiary at the Treaties of Peace.

SAXE-GOTHA.

Monfieur d'Arveman, Intimate Counsellor of State and War to His Most Serene Highness the Duke of Saxe-Gotha, and Plenipotentiary to the Most Serene Family at the Treaties of Peace.

STRASBOURG. (Bishop of)

Monfieur Herman de Halveren, Intimate Counsellor and Vice-Chancellor to His Most Eminent Highness the Cardinal Landgrave of Furstemburg, Bishop and Prince of Strasbourg, at the Treaties of Peace.

SUABIA.

Monfieur Frederick de Durheimb, Minister of State and Chancellor to His Most Reverend Highness the Lord Bishop of Constanz, Plenipotentiary-Minister at the Treaties of Peace.

Monfieur de Kalpis, Nobleman of the Empire, Minister of State, Director of the Ecclesiastical Council,