

the original, and shall state on the face that it is balance of receipt of the original number, and the receipt upon which a part has been delivered shall be cancelled in the same manner as if the whole quantity of grain mentioned in such receipt had been delivered. In case it be desirable to divide one receipt into two or more, or in case it be desirable to consolidate two or more receipts into one, and the warehouseman consents thereto, the original receipt shall be cancelled the same as if the grain had been delivered from store, and the new receipts shall express on their face that they are a part of another receipt or a consolidation of other receipts as the case may be; and the numbers of the original receipts shall also appear upon the new ones issued, as explanatory of the change; but no consolidation of receipts of dates differing more than ten days shall be permitted, and all new receipts issued for old ones cancelled, as herein provided, shall bear the same date as those originally issued, as near as may be.

21. No terminal warehouseman shall insert in any receipt issued by him any language in any wise limiting or modifying his legal liabilities or responsibility. Liability of warehouseman.

22. On the return of any terminal warehouse receipt by him properly indorsed, and the tender of all proper charges upon grain represented by it, such grain shall be immediately deliverable to the holder of such receipt, and it shall not be subject to any further charges for storage after demand for such delivery has been made, and the grain represented by such receipt shall be delivered within twenty-four hours after such demand has been made and the cars or vessels therefor have been furnished. The warehouseman in default shall be liable to the owner of such receipt for damages for such default in the sum of one cent per bushel, and in addition thereto one cent per bushel for each and every day of such neglect or refusal to deliver: Provided, that no warehouseman shall be held to be in default in delivery if the grain is delivered in the order demanded, and as rapidly as due diligence, care and prudence will justify. Delivery of grain on return of receipt. Neglect to deliver. Proviso: as to due diligence.

23. Every owner, lessee and manager of every terminal public elevator shall furnish in writing under oath, at such times and in such manner as the commissioner prescribes, a statement concerning the condition and management of so much of the business of such warehouseman as relates to such elevator. Statement of business to be furnished.

24. The warehouseman of every terminal public elevator shall on each Tuesday morning render a statement made under oath, before some officer authorized by law to administer oaths, by one of the principal owners or operators thereof, or by the book-keeper thereof, having personal knowledge of the facts, to the commissioner of the amount of each kind and grade of grain in store in his warehouse at the close of business on the previous Saturday. Weekly statement of grain in store.

25. Every warehouseman of a terminal public elevator shall be required during the first week in September of each year to Annual statement of rates for storage.