

I read your ^{3.} speech when you were elected with a great deal of pleasure, but it is because of that speech that I am daring to write to you. With very little effort you, with your practical idealism will be able to carry most of the women's vote, but that vote will be greatly diminished if you accept a Quebec seat. You have Quebec anyway, so don't one and had that been so a good liberal vote was lost for ever. I think you and the Liberal party and the Canadian people are to be congratulated for I know that besides having the knowledge necessary for the terrific problems before Canada, you will have the gumption to try to solve them honestly and fearlessly.
