347 Bay St. Toronto,
January 4, 1935.

My dear Sir George:

I have your letter of 2nd.

Having no portfolio and no salary (in this respect sharing a great distinction with yourself) I have not taken part since becoming a member of the Government without portfolio in any of the usual functions, but am glad to send a small contribution to the present which the Prime Minister obtained for the Duke and Duchess of Kent.

Yours very truly,

Ht. Hon. Sir George H. Perley,
House of Commons,
Ottawa, Ont.
