

- Q. Which scene?
A. The very same place where I had left him.
- Q. Was the accused's truck still there?
A. The truck of the accused was in a different position?
- X.
Q. What position was it?
A. The rear wheels were somewhat hanging over the canal.
- Q. What happened then?
A. The RPs got into my truck with the accused and we drove as far as the Support Coy with him.
- Q. In between the time the RP came and went back with Erisson what did you do?
A. I got off my truck and waited by the house. The Regimental Police came back with the accused and then they took him away.
- Q. How long did the Regimental Police were away from them?
A. Four or five minutes
- Press: Can I have that question again?
- Q. How long were the Regimental Police away from him; he stated that the police were away and he waited for them?
A. (No answer)
- Q. When you saw the accused at the time, in what state, in what state, what condition was he?
A. He had a glazed look over his eyes, he was very pale and he didn't look normal.
- Q. Did he offer - did the accused offer any resistance?
A. He didn't offer any resistance in front of me.
- Q. When the Regimental Police came back with Erisson did they have anything else with them, something they didn't have when they first left him?
A. I didn't notice.
- Q. When you got to the truck with the accused and the two RPs where did everybody sit in the truck?
A. I was the driver, one RP was sitting in front on the co-drivers seat with Erisson and another RP was sitting in the back.
- Q. Where was the exact position of Erisson in the truck?
A. Between myself and the RP.
- Q. What happened then?
A. The accused was talking to the RP, I didn't pay any attention I was driving.
- Q. When he was back to his truck what happened then?
A. After I arrived with the truck at Support Coy I brought the truck to a stop, Pte Erisson told me to drive on, I got off the truck, Erisson drove away with the truck.
- Q. Where were the two Military Police?
A. The RPs were in a truck - were off the truck and were standing on the left side of it.
- Q. What did he do next?
A. I didn't see anything else after he left with the truck, a jeep started to follow.

WCB