

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONY

General Booth, on Ontario's management of the Liquor traffic: "In this respect Ontario leads the world."

Rev. Ben. H. Spence, on amendments to Local Option Law, 1912: "The best strokes of legislation along temperance lines that had been enacted by any Legislature within recent years."

Organ of the Dominion Alliance on law enforcement: "The liquor laws are carried out in a manner that reflects credit upon the Government in general, and in particular upon the gentleman who is at the head of the license department."—"Pioneer" March, 1910.

Mr. Joseph Gibson, President Ontario Alliance: "You did your duty. You said at the start that you would make the license holders keep hotel, and you did."
