war time as does other educational endeavor, and may be applied to distributing special war-time instruction to schools, the public and the fighting forces.

A commercial museum on wheels, the "Made in Canada Special," carrying commercial exhibits on a railway train across Canada in peaceful years, was visited by crowds. The same means provides opportunity to spread useful war-time knowledge regarding conservation of food and fuel, the speeding up of necessary industries, the making of munitions, political propaganda as in the exhibition of captured guns, and the training of fighters. In the United States a Food Control exhibit has been installed in a railroad car.
