In a postscript to Saturday's Transcript, a befer summary of the news received by the Harre packet sings Albang and Porlland was given. We have since received more detailed particulars, in relation to Canada affairs and military intelligence, which will be found on our last page.

The packet ship Cambridge, 16th January from Liverpool, has arrived at New-York.-We are indebted to the Montreal Gazetic for the principal portion of the subjoined particu-

Major General Sir William Machean, K. C. B, will not, it is now understood, proceed to Canada, in consequence of the ill-state of his health, which would render him unequal to the performance in that climate of the active the performance in that climate of the active duties which possibly might be required of him. Major Gauctal Sir James Macdonell, K. C. H., is mentioned as likely to go out to Canada, instead of Sir Withiam Macbean. Colonel Wylde, Major Stewart, Colonel Maclachlan, and Captain Shepherd's Com-panies of Royal Artillery, are those under orders for Canada. Colonel Campbell, who orders for Canada. Colonel Campbell, who is to go ont as Commanding Officer, sails by the first packet from Liverpool. It is with much regret that we announce the death of Major General Sir Amos Nor-cott, K. C. H., late in command of the Southern District, which event occurred at his reern District, which event occurred at his re-sidence, Marysborough, near Cork, on the 8th instant. The Major General had latterly suffered much from paralysis, under which his constitution at length sunk.

The Earl of Eldon, for many years Lord Chancellor of England, died on the 15th Jan-uary, at the advanced age of 87.

London, Jan. 14 .- As soon as Parliament Lonuon, Jan. 14.—As soon as Parliament meets (to-morrow,) the ministers will lay be-fore it the additional documents which they possess concerning the revolt in Canada and will be prepared to state their views on this important subject.

The Scotsman contains an account of the riots which continued for two days at the Edinburgh University, originating from a snow ball skirmish between a party of students and some tradesmen.

and some tradesmen. The police interfered finally, and took into custody thirty seven of the students who were afterwards bailed. This not succeeding in quelling the riot, the 79th regiment marched upon them with fixed bayonets, and took the college by storm. Subsequently, enother row occurred between the students and citizens, but it ended in nothing serious.

The number of men intended for Canada, as announced by the United Service Gazette is incorrect; our cotemporary states the entire to be only 3900, whereas the troops at present under orders, including the Artillery, amount under orders, including the Artillery, amount to nearly 7000 Rank and File .- Times. Jon. 9

In another column will be found copies of two despatches from Colonel Maitland, ad-dressed to Colonel Foster, commanding the Forces in Upper Canada.—The first of these despatches contains the account of an engageon the 3rd instant. The brigands were, of course, defeated ; but the loss of life sustained by our gallant troops is much to be deplored. —The second despatch asnounces the capture of the notorious General Sutherland and his Aide-de-Camp, on whom we hope soon to see

The U. S. House of Representatives, on the 2nd inst, passed the Bill 4 for the preservation of our neutral relations "" and on the same day a Bill was proposed to authorize the Pre-sident to accept the services of volunteers, not exceeding 10,000 in number,

The day before the prorogation of the Upper Canada legislature, a Bill passed the Lower House authorising the Lientenant Governor to appoint the Hon. Chief Justice Robinson, and the Hon. Mr. Speaker M'Nab to pro-ceed to England on the affairs of the Pro-vince. £1000 is voted to each of the Agents for the expenses of their mission. The bill would doubless pass in the Upper House, and receive the Royal assent.

Her Majosty's ship Pearl, with Lord Paget, arrived at Norfolk on the 1st inst., with des-patches for Washington.

J. B. Ryan, (a son of John Ryan, a well-known traitor, who lately absconded from this city) was apprehended at St. Rocks on Sun-day evening. In his possession were found a number of papers of a sufficiently treasonable character to warenet his detective. We uncharacter to warrant his detention derstand that he will be brought up for re-perior of that city of the 6th instant. His Excellency the Earl of Gosford arrived at Boston on Moaday evening, the 6th ins-tant, is good health, and without accident. He was decianed at Augusta, the capital of the state of Maine, and other places along the road, by the great kinchass and attention with which he was received. At Boston, when his arrival at the Tremont vasknown, he was visited by great numbers of the prin-cipal citizens; and it was expected that he general feeling towards England is represent-ed as friendly. ed as friendly.

To the Editor of the Quebec Gazette. Sis,—Sir George Arthur, successor to the resent Lieutenant Governor of Upper Canada probably on his journey from New-York to oronto; and in a few days, we shall have Toronto; and in a few days, we shall have within our walls, the noble and patriotic Sir Francis Head. Let the citizens of Quebec do honor to themselves, by inviting this true-hearted Briton to a public banquet; and let a meeting for that purpose be called without delay. No reasons of delicacy towards the late Governor in Chief must now interfere with this proper and necessary act of respect, to one who has maintained to the last, the ho-nor and welfare of the Province entrusted to nor and welfare of the Province entrusted to his Governments
