CALDWELL'S

Conserve and Produce

The Government is urging you to produce more milk. The only way to accomplish this with your herd is to feed them a balanced ration. If you do so, your cows will give a maximum flow of milk.

CALDWELL'S DAIRY MEAL is a balanced meal ration for milking cows. It is high in protein and made from clean, sweet, nutritive materials, which are easily digested. When you feed our Dairy Meal you liberate extra nourishment from the rest of the food eaten. It balances their diet perfectly. Feed Caldwell's Dairy Meal if you want more milk and healthier cows.

Sold by Feedmen in nearly every town or direct from our mill. Send for free booklet and prices NOW.

NIAGARA PENINSULA HOLSTEIN CLUB SALE.

THE first annual sale of the Niagara Peninsula Holstein Breeders' Club, held at Welland on Dec. 18th, was in many ways a decided success. Superba Rag Apple, owned by Oliver Cahana, A. Rag Apple, owned by Oliver Cahana, A. led the high priced animal by selling to Geo. H. Pierce, Buffalo, for $2,700. When it is considered that the 47 head sold brought in $11,690, or an average of a brought in $11,690, or an average of a little better than $248 and that the six males averaged almost $540, it will be seen that the sale was a success.

Several factors prevented this sale attaining as great success as it might have. First, it had been postponed a week; second, the Elgin County Holstein Club was holding a sale at St. Thomas the same holding a sale at St. Thomas the same day and many prospective buyers were naturally drawn away from this sale. The rurally drawn away from this sale. The attendance was only about 150, comprised largely of local farmers, and again owing to poor train connections, some of the cattle did not arrive on the grounds till after the time for opening the sale. Included in this class was A. J. Cahane's consignment. His animals were on the train from the preceding Saturday, but even under these conditions showed a remarkable bloom.

The highest priced female was Rosalind Lulu Korndyke, consigned by Mr. Cahana and sold after $750 bid to Mr. Detchebb Chippewa. Other animals which sold for good prices were:
