"DON'TS" FROM THE CHIEF

Chief Tremblay, in issuing his annual bulletin of advice to the public concerning extra bazards of fire during the holiday season, calls attention to the fact that the disastrous fire in St. Louis Square on January I last originated in a Christmas tree, and gives valuable hints which may be summarized as follows: paluable finits which may be summarized as follows:

Don't decorate your Christmas tree with paper, cotton or other inflammable material. Use metallic tinsel and other non-inflammable decorations.

Don't let the children light or relight the candles

Let the elders do this, and there will be no danger of Let the elders do this, and there will be a little ones setting their clothing on fire. Don't leave matches within reach of children. Can-dles are meant to be lighted, and, if matches are at hand, children will experiment with them. They imitate their elders.

Don't allow rubbish to accumulate in cellars, or near stoves and furnaces Dont' use any but safety matches lighting only on the prepared surface of the containing box.

Don't permit gas brackets to swing near curtains or
