CALGARY
Alta.

A black and white illustration of a large, cylindrical bundle of twine. The bundle is shaped like a sheaf of wheat, with the top part flaring out into a wide, rounded head. The twine is bundled together with a dark, thick cord that wraps around the middle. The words "PLYMOUTH" are written in a bold, stylized, sans-serif font across the upper part of the bundle, and the word "TWINE" is written in a similar font across the lower part. The background is plain white.
