To the Farmers, Breeders, and all who use this page for advertising purposes

The rates on classified advertising in The Guide have been, ever since its inception, unusually low; in fact, much lower than they should have been to even give us sufficient revenue to meet the cost of production. In view of the present increased cost of production, increase in circulation and service, we now find it necessary to raise the rate on classified advertising.

On and after December 1, 1912, the rates on classified advertising will be as follows:—

4c. per word per week
20c per word for six weeks

Payable in Advance

All ads, however, which are mailed to us before December 1st will take the present rate. The Guide has always carried a large amount of classified advertising and has brought exceptionally good returns, in fact, has produced more business than could be taken care of.

TURKS BADLY DEFEATED

London, Oct. 24.—A three days' battle and a Bulgarian turning movement has resulted, according to Sofia accounts, in the fall of Kirk Kiliseh and the capture of the Turkish garrison, numbering 53,000 men. That so many Turks have been taken is regarded as improbable and the more likely report is that the Turks retreated in the direction of Bunarhisar to the southeast.

The character of this stronghold, to which the Turks attached almost the same importance as to Adrianople, was confirmed tonight from Constantinople in official confirmation, explaining that the Turkish army at Kirk Kiliseh in attempting to split the enemy's forces discovered that they were in greater strength than had been anticipated. The Turks therefore retired to the south to await reinforcements.

The news of the Bulgarian victory has caused great rejoicing in Sofia, where it is expected that the fall of Adrianople will soon follow. If, as is generally assumed, Abdullah Pasha is still engaged in bringing up his main army to Adrianople, the position of that town is critical.

LORD ROBERTS' ADVOCATES CONSCRIPTION

London, Oct. 25.—Lord Roberts, despite his eighty years, is touring the country advocating a national military service. He is addressing huge gatherings who cheer the famous veteran lustily, but his direct references to Germany as an undoubted foe of Britain arouse considerable hostility in certain quarters. Outside of his meetings a memorial has been signed by over a score of members of parliament protesting against this method of advocating a national military service. Today Sir T. Vevey Strong, ex-Lord Mayor of London, writes deprecating statements especially by one so distinguished as Lord Roberts, as to the warlike intentions of Germany against England.

Walker Runciman, president of the Board of Agriculture, addressing a meeting yesterday evening said he deplored Lord Roberts' Manchester speech. He didn't believe that an Anglo-German war was inevitable and a statement like that of Lord Roberts' was not only deplorable but pernicious and dangerous. The rivalry between England and Germany was more commercial than military and the only persons who wished to turn it into a military rivalry were a small group of journalists, a few soldiers, the makers of armaments and a small section of the people who believed that the dignity of a nation was raised by irritating its neighbors. "It is about time," he added, "that the industrial and commercial classes expressed their opinion in a thoroughly organized manner upon this important subject."

CATTLE MEN'S REQUESTS

Moose Jaw, Sask., Oct. 25.—At the meeting of the Dominion Ranching and Grazing Commission at Willow Bunch today the following petitions were made to the government:
