FIRST PLACE IN LIVESTOCK

The fact that The Farmers' Market Place of The Grain Growers' Guide is recognized as a good medium for advertising livestock offerings will be evident by the extracts given below from letters received by The Guide this year. The Guide carries annually more of this class of advertising than any other farm paper in Western Canada. There is an advantage in this to the advertiser because people naturally look most for offerings of this kind in the paper containing the most advertising.

We are well satisfied with our ad. for Hereford Bulls.—Stanley McIntyre, Hayter, Alta.

All my ads. brought good results.—S. J. Andrews, Oak Bank, Man. Ayrshires. All my sheep were sold three days after ad. appeared.—J. M. Ewens, Bethany, Man.

We sold our Yorkshire pigs and could have sold many more.—H. A. Hove, Excel, Alta.

I had wonderful results from my ad. in The Guide.—J. B. Slimmon, Stoughton, Sask. Ayrshires.

The Guide gives the largest circulation among Western Canadian farm papers (over 50,000 copies a week) at a most economical rate. It also has the endorsement of hundreds of advertisers who have used it and found it effective.

The rate is economical—5 cents a word, payable in advance
