From the Lannets, october an, some-the chief points in favor of Mossra, Langton & it's Oil are, first, its assortained freedom from adul-tion; accountly, its contabiling in due proportion all known constituents of Cod Laver Oil in general; and dity, its being beyond comparison, the most agreeable instance and adout, or rather the outy que that it thirdly, its being beyone comparisons, the best in taste and solon; or rather the only one that is agreeable at all.

"We hereby derify that we have examined a specimen of Cod Liver Oil, transmitted to us for this purpose by Messer. Langton, Brothers & Roott,

"The Oil is of a pale yellow color, with a slight but not offensive fiely odour, and is free from any disagreeable taste. It is very fluid, and in outsistency and general appearance resembles good Florence oil.

"We are of opinion, from its purity and the absence of any supplement odour or flavor, that it is prefrable for medicinal use to those samples of Cod Liver Oil which have hitherto come under our notice.
