During the past Session of Parliament, the Council devoted much attention to the Act regulating the inspection of flour; several important amendments were forwarded to Mr. Holmes, M.P.P., by whom they were submitted to Parliament, and eventuality passed. The Council have to acknowledge the prompt sitention and energy evinced by Mr. Holmes, on this and many other occasions, when his servaces have been requested by the Board, on behalf of the mercantile community.

The main features of the amendments referred The main features of the amendments referred to, are an amalgamation of the law passed in 1841 and 1848, blending the clauses of the latter, relating to the inspection of Oatmeal, with those in the former, which regulate the inspection of Flour and Indian Meal, as well as an assimilation of the country of lar, but many objectionable clauses were expansed, on passing the bill.

The Council suggested to the Harbour Commissioners, the necessity that existed for the establishment of a Wharf Police, but were anable to come to a definite understanding. The Commissioners expressed their willingness to cooperate in addressing the Municipal Authorities for that purpose, but the Council, considering that no practical benefit was tikely to result from such a course, have taken no farther steps in reference to the matter.
