

NO RECIPROCITY IN LICENSES IN ONT. PROVINCE

Clause Advocated by Members of Motor League Thrown Out.

PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS, Toronto, April 16.—The Motor Vehicles Act, which from its introduction into the Legislature has been backed by the Ontario Motor League received a battering yesterday at the hands of the members of the Private Bills committee. Practically every clause which marked a radical advance on the present legislation was considered to be an unnecessary subject for legislation and struck out accordingly.

The matter of reciprocity in licenses between Ontario and the United States was brought up but the committee was not willing to take a stand on it until the highway bill had been thoroughly considered in its relation to this question.

Hon. Mr. Hanna is not strongly in favor of it.

"Reciprocity would mean that everything would be ripped and torn to pieces from Niagara Falls to Windsor, and the roads would be in the fields forty rods back."

The clause was struck out of the bill for consideration in different form in the House.

Little quarter was shown the clause proposing to raise the provincial speed limit to 25 miles per hour with municipalities having certain reducing rights, and it was thrown out.

The matter of lights for cars and bicycles was left in the hands of a sub-committee to report on.

The Allan liners Calgarian and Alsatian will use Quebec as their Canadian port.

WOULD CHANGE SYSTEM OF COST

An Important Matter Re Collegiate Institute is Before the Government.

(By Special Wire to The Courier)

TORONTO April 15.—Thomas McGarry, M.P.P., for Renfrew, introduced an influential deputation to Hon. Dr. Pyne, Minister of Education to-day, comprising representatives from some fifty school boards throughout Ontario. The speakers were Messrs. S. T. Chown, Renfrew; E. A. Doolittle of Orillia; A. S. Wei Sarnia and Rev. J. C. Tolmie, Windsor.

Mr. Chown, as the chief speaker, pointed out the injustices of the present system of apportionment of the high school cost and asked that a more-equitable basis be formulated under which county pupils would pay a fairer share of the cost as well as the interest on the cost of the schools which is now borne entirely by the residents of the high school districts. The deputation pointed out that the cost maintenance was contributed to, but instances were given of municipalities expending several thousands of dollars for additions to high schools for the accommodation of county pupils, and total cost of which was borne by the high school district. There are 125 schools to be affected by the proposed change. In some districts special grants are made by the counties towards the maintenance of the high schools.

HOME RULE SHELVED FOR A FORTNIGHT

Next Few Days Will be Taken Up With Welsh Disestablishment.

LONDON, April 16.—Despite rumors to the contrary it is not expected that the Home Rule Bill will come up for further discussion until the end of the present month, or the beginning of May. Next week, and the following week are already practically booked for the Welsh Bill and the budget and the meantime a long series of questions have been drafted dealing more particularly with naval preparations. By Mr. Churchill for the protection of stores and ammunition in Ulster. Questions were put to the Prime Minister yesterday with a view to ascertaining who was expected to take the initiative in making "suggestions" in regard to Ulster. Mr. Asquith assured the House that the Government would announce the form which these should take in due course.

It is apparent that no conversations between the leaders are immediately possible, if they take place at all. Suggestions continue to be framed by the Unionists. Mr. Cassel has drafted one providing that members returned from Ireland, under the Home Rule, shall be entitled to deliberate or vote on any bill, motion or resolution relating exclusively to Great Britain.

Godfrey Locker Lampson suggests the withdrawal of Customs and Excise and Post Office service from the purview of the new Parliament, while James Hope wants to indicate to the Lords that they may exclude Ulster from the bill and include the judiciary, including the county court judges, as matters reserved to the Imperial Parliament.

Early this morning several hundred men swarmed around the city hall, and after being driven away from there by the police, marched in a body to the home of Mayor Allan. He advised them to apply to the city work yards, where notices were posted of the number of men required. The civic authorities fear trouble.

Mr. Cockshutt Shows How Binder Twine Industry Was Killed

And Price of That Commodity Became Higher After Duty Was Removed—His Speech From Hansard.

Continuation of Mr. Cockshutt's speech on the Tariff.
Mr. Cockshutt: I have never known any political economist to contend that the price of an article could be raised above the amount of tariff exacted, that is, the whole duty, which is twenty per cent on some articles and fifteen per cent on others. Prices could not possibly be more than the duty in advance of the prices in the United States, because the manufacturers there would immediately send their implements over the border. I have here an immense list of articles that have been imported into Canada. This list, which is from the Department of Customs, is entirely authentic. The imports of agricultural implements under the existing tariff, which are, as I say, from seventeen and one-half per cent to twenty per cent are as follows: in 1911, $4,510,000; in 1912, $4,221,000; in 1913 $4,440,000; for nine months in 1913, $2,658,000. If you take the whole line of articles which I understand were included in the argument of the hon. member for Moosejaw (Mr. Knowles) in his resolution the other day, and which embraces engines and threshing machines and all the larger items, then we have the following, which is very much more: in 1911, $4,887,000; in 1912, $5,237,000; in 1913 $5,014,000; for nine months in 1913, $3,175,000. If $10,000,000 could come in in 1913, under the tariff of from fifteen to twenty per cent what would be the result if they were put on the free list, and all that vast amount of agricultural implements brought into Canada free of duty? It would mean that all the capital invested in that business in Canada would be wiped out; that over fifty manufacturing concerns employing from $45,000,000 to $50,000,000 of capital, 10,000 hands hands and supporting 45,000 to 50,000 dependents, would be wiped out at the behest of my hon. friend.

He says he is a strong friend of the manufacturers. Well, if he will trust the manufacturer to look after themselves and not take them under his wing, we will feel a little more comfortable.

Mr. Carroll: Has the hon. member figures to contradict those supplied by the hon. member for Assiniboia as to the prices in Winnipeg and Minneapolis?

Mr. Cockshutt: I am only making the bald statement that, on the face of it, his information is false, for the reason that the prices could not be advanced by more than the amount of the duty. No tariff could advance the prices of goods beyond the amount of the duty that is exacted. When my hon. friend quotes a sixty per cent advance, he must know that he is not speaking by the book. I think my hon. friend must realize that he will not get any farmer to believe that the price of implements is fifty to sixty per cent higher in Canada than in the United States.

Mr. Turriff: I was quoting the figures given by the Grain Growers' Guide. The Grain Growers' Guide will prove to my hon. friend that they are right and he is wrong.

Mr. Cockshutt: If my hon. friend's contention is true, supposing he knocked off 20 per cent, he would still be getting 30 to 40 per cent more in Canada than in the United States. In other words if you remove the amount of duty, you have a vast difference of 30 to 40 per cent, according to my hon. friend. Anybody can see at a glance that those figures cannot be correct, and that wholesale prices must have been taken as against retail.

My hon. friend has made an accusation against the firm carrying my own name. Although I dislike to refer to a matter that is so personal, I feel that I cannot allow his statement to go unchallenged. According to 'Hansard' of last night, he makes the following statement, referring to myself:

"The hon. gentleman could sell a Cockshutt plow in the United States years ago, and pay a 15 per cent duty."

You notice he says we pay the duty. —and 45 per cent duty on the repairs, and undersell us compete to the extent of selling trainloads in the United States."

That sounds very fine. I wonder if my hon. friend thinks that is correct. The United States duties on agricultural implements during the last few months have been entirely removed. I have yet to learn of one plow having gone across the line, either our own or any other make. Just the other day I asked a leading implement dealer, who knows more about such matters than I do, and he stated that even with the removal of the duty, he does not think that an agricultural implement has gone from Canada into the United States. My hon. friend has rather tantalized me to give him a little bit of history with regard to a shipment of plows once to the United States. Let me tell him how his friends, the Americans will treat him if he ever gets into their hands, because we know with regret that when we deal with Uncle Sam we have to go in with a coat of mail and with shining armor if we are to come out again with a whole skin. What happened to the train load of Cockshutt plows, to which my hon. friend referred? They were seized at the border, condemned for under valuation, dragged through the courts and fined thousands of dollars, although these plows were entered at a higher price in the United States than American concerns were entering their plows at the city of Winnipeg. My hon. friend wants to place the farmers in the same position. What has happened with regard to potatoes? We send the potatoes across the border. As soon as we began to get a market the Americans say that our potatoes are diseased, not fit to mix with American potatoes of high standard. They are condemned because they are diseased. Ship your cattle over the border, and as soon as you begin to get a market established, quarantine and the tuberculosis test will do the trick. My hon. friend would not be sending his wheat into the United States for more than a month or two before the Americans would find smut in it, or that it was not properly classified, and I will defy my hon. friend to go into the United States and get a clean deal on his wheat. The whole history of trade with the United States from start to finish is that when it comes to carrying out their side of a commercial bargain, they do not do it right. They have not learned the principle of British fair play and honesty. I am sorry to have to say that, but I can speak feelingly. If my hon. friend tries it with his wheat, he will find the same as others have done with potatoes and agricultural implements and fish in cans. The fish go in free, but they catch you on the cans.

When my hon. friend the Minister of Finance said that he did not believe in interlocking legislation, he struck a true chord that will find a responsive ring throughout the Dominion of Canada from every business man. These hon. gentlemen would hand us over, body and soul, to the United States; they would interlock our tariff with that of the United States; they would let Washington dictate the interpretation of the tariff, and we would be hunted in the United States and dragged from court to court for interpretations on this, that and the other thing. My hon. friend knows that that has been the history of trading with the American people from away back. Even when it comes to carrying out financial obligations, we find that they are very slow to do so. We hope to have a fair settlement in regard to the Panama canal tolls, but it is taking a great deal of backbone on the part of Mr. Woodrow Wilson, the President of the United States; and if he succeeds in that, he will put a plume into the American flag that has not been there for some years.

Mr. Turriff: How does it happen, if the Americans treat the Canadians so badly in all commercial deals, that Canada does about sixty per cent of her whole trade with those same Americans?

Mr. Cockshutt: I can tell my hon. friend that very easily. They are always very ready to sell to you, but they are never ready to buy from you.

I suffered so much with my kidneys and La Grippe until I used GIN PILLS, and now would not be without them in the house. I shall always recommend GIN PILLS to anyone I know is suffering with their kidneys."

If my hon. friend knows anything about the returns, he knows that for every dollar we sell to the United States they sell from three to four dollars to us. It is an easy thing to buy; and my hon. friend and some of his friends opposite have the idea that the more you buy the better off you are; the more you buy abroad, the better the country is. I have heard several hon. gentlemen opposite preach that doctrine; they do not take any stock in the balance of trade. A man that buys more than he sells will soon go into bankruptcy; but my hon. friend would let us go on buying four or five times as much from the United States as we sell to them, and say: What a trade we have with the United States! My hon. friend knows that his best market is in Great Britain. The people of Great Britain can yet take his wheat; they are the only people in the world who are taking more from us than they are sending to us.

Mr. Lemieux: What about our cattle?
Mr. Cockshutt: I do not think we have many cattle to send over there at this time. Our meat would probably bring a very good price in Great Britain, but judging from the prices now prevailing in the home market, I think every one will agree that we should keep most of our cattle at home to feed our own people. The home market which our hon. friends opposite often pooh pooh is really the only good market in which to make money. If my hon. friends would remember that about 80 per cent of the farm products of Canada are bought at high prices by the citizens of Canada and consumed in the home market, it is well worth preserving. To those who think that the United States is such a fine market for implements, I may say that they can have that 90,000,000 market for ten cents, so far as I am concerned.

HAD TO STOP WORK FROM THE PAIN

Suffered Ten Years Until "Fruit-a-lives" Cured Him

ST. THOMAS, ONT., May 22nd, 1913.
I was troubled for ten years with the most distressing Constipation and Indigestion of the worst form.

No one could have been worse with these troubles than I was for this long time.

The pain from indigestion was so severe that many times, I have had to stop work and lie down until the acute spasms passed away.

I took a lot of medicine—in fact, I guess I took about everything that was advertised—and gave them all a fair test—but got no relief. About a year ago, however, I was advised to try "Fruit-a-lives". I am mighty glad I did so for they seem to be made exactly for me.

They gave results in a very short time and I am now free from these diseases and enjoying perfect health.

My wife also used "Fruit-a-lives" and we both think they are the best medicine ever made."
