NAMUR IS FALLEN

Announcement is Made Early Today From London.
[By Special Wire to the Courier]
LONDON, Aug. 24, 3.52 p.m.—The official information bureau says: "It is announced that Namur has fallen."

The above despatch as indicated was filed in London at 3.52 o'clock Monday afternoon and received in New York at 6.10 o'clock this (Tuesday) morning. Its transmission was probably delayed by the censor.

BARE STATEMENT.
LONDON, Aug. 25, 7.05 a.m.—Beyond the bare statement made yesterday afternoon that it was announced that Namur has fallen, the official war information bureau, has issued nothing on the subject. It is not yet known known definitely here whether the fall refers to the town or the forts or to both.

The fortifications of Namur and Liege formed the finest examples of the work of the famous Belgian engineer, General Henri Alexis Brialmont, whose reputation was world-wide.

The defensive works of Namur were not so strong as those of Liege, but the position of the city was much better for military purposes.

The forts are nine in number, the four most important being St. Henry, Audoy, Surleire and Cognelle, while the connecting forts of less strength are, Dave, Maizeret, Malonne, Marchevolle and Emmeles.

All are protected by hardened steel domes, generally eight of them in each fort, and the artillery consisting of modern heavy disappearing guns, is very powerful.

OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED
BERLIN, Aug. 25.—(By wireless telegraph to the Associated Press by way of Nauen, Germany, and Sayville, Long Island.)—An official announcement, made public here to-day says that the city of Namur and five of its forts have been captured by the Germans.

The bombardment of the four other forts continues and their fall seems imminent.

FRENCH TROOPS MET TREACHERY IN LORRAINE
Story of an Officer—Inhabitants Tricked Invading Forces.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]
LONDON, Aug. 25.—The French police are very active in stopping people on the street in order to make sure that all foreigners are provided with permits of residence and that no Frenchmen are left in Paris who should be with the army says the Paris correspondent of Reuter's Telegraph company.

Last night they questioned more than three thousand persons in the Montmartre section of Paris at once. Several suspects were arrested. It is said that despite Argentina's prohibition of the exportation of corn, the French supply is amply assured both by the home crops and imports from the United States.

The bust of Kaiser William I, at Victoria Park, Berlin, was removed by vandals and thrown into the lake.

Princess Patricia presented camp colors worked by her own hands to the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry.

Hamilton bakers raised the price of bread from five to six cents a small loaf.

Col. C. C. Grant, one of the most eminent geologists in the Dominion, died at Hamilton in his 90th year.

A smash-up occurred on the T. & N. O. Ry. at Iroquois Falls, in which one Polander was killed.

GERMANY MADE GREAT PLAY FOR U.S. SYMPATHY

American Travellers Were Given Special Trains and Treated Handsomely.
[By Special Wire to the Courier]
LONDON, Aug. 25.—The Times to-day discussing at length the German treatment of Americans who were stranded in Germany at the opening of the war, says: "There are many indications that Germany still hopes to find friends among neutral nations. The most strenuous efforts in this direction were reserved for the United States, as represented by Americans stranded within Germany's borders."

"As soon as the panic that followed the outbreak of the war had subsided elaborate orders were issued that every courtesy be shown Americans. All this week special trains have been running for their benefit from Munich, Frankfurt and other centres to Rotterdam and Flushing. Nothing was left undone which could give the parting guests a favorable impression of Germany. At certain stations along the route these parties were met by Germans bringing hot coffee and other refreshments, and by others waving their stars and stripes."

The travellers were plentifully provided with German papers and received copies of a pamphlet printed in English and issued by the foreign office of Germany entitled 'Germany's reasons for war.'
