

O'BRIEN-JACKSON COMPANY

Arrives on the Yukoner Early This Morning

And Will Open at The Savoy Next Monday Evening—A Very Strong Company.

The Palace Grand is the Palace Grand no longer, as it received the O'Brien & Jackson Company this morning and became the Savoy. The company arrived on the Yukoner at an early hour this morning and at once took possession of its new home, which is fitted to its capacity by the company, numbering, as it does, upwards of 40 people.

Steve O'Brien, in speaking of the trip in said it was pleasant and instructive throughout, as the steamer the party left Victoria on was an excursion boat and the company was shown what is called picturesque Alaska, while en route to Dawson. The most of the personnel of the company were selected from the management's houses bearing the name Savoy at Victoria and Vancouver, although there are several members who hail from Portland and San Francisco.

In speaking of the name the management has adopted Mr. O'Brien said they used it everywhere excepting at Whitehorse, but had been prevented from doing so there by being forestalled by others who had adopted the name for a hotel, a restaurant, and there was even a report that a laundry was to be so named. Therefore the theater is called the Whitehorse.

Among those who will entertain the Savoy audiences are Mille Lloyd, an accomplished vocalist, late with Sousa; Walters and Forrest, balladists; Miss Jennie Guehard, a well known burlesque artist; Lillie Edgerton, who will "float through the air;" Johnny Flynn, a high class comedian; Bryant and Onslow, knock-about comedians; Madge Melville, a contralto singer, Edith Montrose a balladist; Mae Stanley, a buck and wing dancer; Maie Bevis, who singscoon songs; Ollie Darrell and Allen Delmar, who also docoon sketches; Ray Eldridge and Larry Bryant, who will entertain in various ways; Kate Rockwell, a sketch artist; Bertha Lamar, a serio comic fun maker; Blanche Camminetti, vocalist; Celia de Lacy, an operatic singer; Marion Keith, soubrette; Stanley and Scanlon, musical artists, and many others.

The Savoy will open next Monday evening with Johnny Flynn's burlesque entitled "The Century Club," in which Miss Jennie Guehard will play a prominent part as comedienne.

The company brought its own orchestra, under the leadership of Al Hart, late of the Savoy of Vancouver, and some good music may be anticipated.

The affairs of the company are managed by Mr. Charles Friedman, who will be found a very pleasant gentleman with whom to do business.

CLEMENT IN COURT.

ent, and had received no statement. He admitted the genuineness of the statement produced by the prosecution. He stated that he kept two books, one in the office and another which he carried in his pocket, and which is a duplicate of the one kept in the office. This is done in case of loss of the office books by fire.

Mr. McGill called for the production in the court of both books, and as it was then near the noon hour, court was adjourned till 3 p. m., when the administrator's books are to be produced.

Tundra Mining.

One of the men who returned from Nome on the steamer Utopia this week states that J. W. Ivey, collector of customs for the district of Alaska, is attempting, says the Alaskan, to collect gold from the tundra just back of the famous beach. Mr. Ivey has some arrangement, he says, whereby he takes water from the sea and runs it back to a tundra claim. The same man in speaking says further:

"The tundra contains gold, but it has no pay streak, and those who work it have to uncover the entire surface, and that is a great task. A few feet under the surface one encounters ice, or rather a frozen mass of water, moss and earth.

"The beach is nothing big. Hundreds who went to Nome believing they could at least wash out enough with which to get back to the states have been sadly disappointed, and cannot get enough to keep them. The old strike aside from the hard worked old beach was on Topkuk beach.

"The Topkuk beach is a quarter of a mile long. It paid, but paid nothing wonderful. I knew some men who took out $15 a day to the man for four days, but they were four or five days prior to that stripping the pay streak, and I cannot say how long in searching for it. So after all they were not well paid.

"Anvil, Snow gulch and Dexter creeks are good, but the claims that pay are not numerous, and were the water only plentiful enough they would all be worked out in one average season. One of the creeks has only nine paying claims."

Rapid Transportation.

Mr. E. C. Hawkins stated in the Nugget office today that freight had lately been delivered in Dawson on the eighth day after having been shipped from Seattle. This, to the man who packed his outfit over the summit in '97 or early in '98, will appear in the form of almost an impossibility. Of course, all freight matter is not expected to make such phenomenal time, but perishable goods can be forwarded in this time regularly. Dawson is several weeks nearer civilization now than it was in the days of pack trains and raft building.

Will Plow Snow.

A fine new rotary snow plow has been ordered by the White Pass & Yukon road. It will be put to use this winter, and in addition to that received last fall the road will have two modern rotarys. The one lately ordered is to be built according to special instructions with the purpose of having the machine especially adapted to the peculiarities of this region. The experience acquired in last winter's work with the first rotary will be taken advantage of in the making of the new rotary.

Other rolling and motive stock on the road has been increased a great deal the last few months, and it has been within only a few weeks that several fine new engines have arrived. Two splendid Baldwin locomotives were put in use not long ago, and now a third is out on the track. While heavy and powerful of appearance they are beautiful and striking in their symmetry and form. All are just from the factory and have the most modern equipments.

"The Best Laid Plans."

"When I was a young fellow, I was a dreamer," said a benevolent citizen. "I thought that my greatest pleasure would be to give money to the poor and live a life of simple, unworldly devotion and gentleness. That was when I was about 20.

"At 25 I came into some money rather unexpectedly. The first thing I did was to give a dinner. I got tips—the first time in my life. I had a fight with a waiter and nearly punched his eye out. I was arrested and had to be bailed out by my lawyer. The waiter sued me for damages, and I was so angry with him and myself and the downfall of my great ideals that I refused to compromise as my lawyer advised. The waiter lost most of his savings in fees and expenses, and his family came waiting to ask me to pay his doctor's bills and help him get a position and they would drop the suit.

"I came to my senses and did more than that for them. My old ideas, modified and modernized, took hold of me again, and while I am a hard headed business man today most of my friends are poor people. But my first use of money shows how flimsy the pedestals of most ideals are and how foolish it is to say what we would do if we could."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Out With Their Mitts.

The coming "go" between Slavin and Smith will probably attract the largest gathering ever admitted in a local theater for an event of the kind. That Smith will make a good showing is without question, as he is an old timer in the ring and will go at it with a rush, as his personal enmity towards Slavin is well known. Even money has been bet on the go, although in many instances Slavin is the favorite.

BRIEF MENTION.

Harry Ash and wife are at the Regina. L. E. Miller, of 2 Eldorado, is visiting the city.

P. R. Gellet, of Juneau, is registered at the Flannery.

M. Campbell, of Huñker creek, is in town on business.

O. F. Shepperd is registered at the Regina.

The steamers Al-Ki and Seattle are in Skagway today and the Dirigo is due. The construction of the arches for the reception of the governor general is progressing rapidly.

Al Smith, of 24 above, on Bonanza, is registered at the Regina. Mr. Smith is on his way to the outside.

Monday a large wood raft containing 125 cords of wood came down the river adrift and was captured by Dick Brown.

Mrs. J. L. Keeler and Mr. and Mrs. McKann will leave tomorrow on the Yukoner en route to Port Townsend, Wash.

The little steamer formerly known as the Burpee is to be rechristened and after receiving her new machinery will probably be put on the Stewart river run.

John Crowl with his wife and children, have arrived from Skagway. Mr. Crowl is an electrician and has accepted a position with the Dawson Light & Power Co.

Miss Alice M. McAndrews, representing the Butte Inter-Mountain, has arrived here and will remain for some time. Miss McAndrews visited Nome earlier in the season.

Capt. E. J. Smythe, who returned from the outside a short time since has been quite ill at the Good Samaritan hospital for some days, but was seen on the streets again this morning.

Robert W. Jennings, esq., has returned from a business trip to the Jack Wade country and will leave for his home in Skagway tonight. He is much impressed with the future of Jack Wade as a mining field.

The preliminary hearing in the case of Ernest Jordan, who was licensed captain on the steamer Florence S at the time of her upsetting and loss in Thirty-mile, was on for an hour or two in police court this morning, but was not completed.

A forest fire was started sometime this afternoon near the old slaughter house on the left side of the Yukon and almost opposite Swede creek. From the amount of smoke that is rolling heavenward from that place, the fire is evidently an enthusiastic one.

General Manager E. C. Hawkins, of the W. P. & Y. R., who has been in the city for the past three or four days, will leave for the outside in a day or two. He has urgent business for his company in Seattle, but expects to again visit Dawson the latter part of next month. He is very favorably impressed with what he has seen while here.

Won't Know His Town.

When Gov. Brady, of Alaska, who is now gallivanting around among the Indians of the lower Yukon, returns home he won't know his own town. Sitka has been repudiated by the government and officials as an out of the way station, and as the live officials of the district are moving their offices to other and modern cities, Brady will be left with his office and his Indians to revel alone in the ozone of the old town. A late issue of the Alaskan says:

United States Marshal James M. Shoup passed through Skagway yesterday on the steamer Cottage City on his way from Juneau to Sitka. Mr. Shoup left Sitka only a few days ago. He announced yesterday that he is on his way to Sitka to move his office from that place to Juneau or the Cottage City this trip. District Judge Brown will also move his headquarters from Sitka to Juneau this trip of the Cottage City. That means that both judge and marshal will be quartered in Juneau by the end of this week.

When in town, stop at the Regina.
