A RALEIGH WEDDING.

Martin A. Drew and Miss Nellie Wellwood United for Life.

A scene of more than ordinary interest took place at St. Patrick's Church, Raleigh, on Wednesday morning, when Martin A. Drew was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Nellie Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Wellwood. Both of the contracting parties are well-known residents of Raleigh, the bride being a particularly amiable young lady and a great favorite among her many young friends, while the groom is a most highly successful and prosperous young farmer, a son of the late W. Drew. The church was filled not only by invited guests but with many friends of the bride and groom, from far and near. The bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, to the strains of Mendelssohn's beautiful Wedding March, very finely executed by the organists, Miss Annie Drew. The bride was dressed in lawn broadcloth trimmed in cream satin with liberty silk and chiffon, and carried a beautiful bouquet. The bridesmaid, Miss Lena Lahey, looked extremely pretty in her costume of brown Priestley cloth trimmed in pink satin and all-over lace. Gordon Drew supported his brother. Rev. Father O'Donohue officiated and tied the nuptial knot. After the ceremony an adjournment was made to the beautiful home of the parents of the bride, where a very sumptuous repast was partaken of, and many were the hearty congratulations showered upon the happy bride and groom by their host of friends.

REWARD OF MERIT.

A New Catarrh Cure Secures National Popularity in Less Than One Year.

Throughout a great nation of eighty millions it is a desperate struggle to secure even a recognition to say nothing of achieving popular success. At present within one year Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the new catarrh cure, has met with such success that to-day it can be found in every drug store throughout the United States and Canada.

To be sure, a large amount of advertising was necessary in the first instance to bring the remedy to the attention of the public, but every one familiar with the subject knows that advertising alone never made any article permanently successful. It must have in addition, absolute, undeniable merit, and this new catarrh cure certainly possesses in a marked degree.

Physicians who formerly depended upon inhalers, sprays and local washes or ointments now use Stuart's Tablets, because, as one of the most prominent stated, these tablets contain in pleasant, convenient form all the really efficient catarrh remedies, such as red gum, Guaiac, Eucalyptol, and Sanguinaria.

They contain no cocaine nor opiate and are given to little children with entire safety and benefit.

Dr. J. J. Rietiger, of Covington, Ky., says: "I suffered from catarrh in my head and throat every fall, with constant irritation, and in the throat affecting my voice and often extending to the stomach, causing catarrh of the stomach. I bought a 50 cent package of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets from a druggist, carried them in my pocket and used them faithfully, and the way in which they cleared my head and throat was certainly remarkable. I had no catarrh last winter and spring and consider myself entirely free from any catarrhal trouble."

Mrs. Jerome Ellison, of Wheeling, W. Va., writes: "I suffered from catarrh nearly my whole life, and last winter my two children also suffered from catarrhal colds and sore throat so much they were out of school a large portion of the winter. My brother who was cured of catarrhal deafness by using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets urged me to try them so much that I did so, and am truly thankful for what they have done for myself and my children. I always keep a box of the tablets in the house and at the first appearance of a cold or sore throat we nip it in the bud, and catarrh is no longer a household affliction with us."

Full sized packages of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold for fifty cents at all druggists.
