The great amount of design work done at the Victoria Avenue Green House is sufficient proof of the excellence of the work. Nothing but the best at the lowest prices. Telephone 151.

The Frankfort (Ind.) Times says concerning next Wednesday's attraction at the Grand:—The Slayton Jubilee Singers appeared at the Columbia Theater last night and fairly took the large audience by storm. The audience was composed of Frankfort's representative people and one that disposed to be coldly critical, yet the applause was at times hearty and at times amounted to almost ovations. We wish we had sufficient space to comment of each number of the program, for each was so artistically rendered as to fully explain why the Slayton Jubilee Singers are so warmly praised by the metropolitan press.

A Dressy Couple—A pair of $3.50 Slater Shoes and a $2.50 Barrington Hat. The 2 T's.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church held their annual meeting in the board room Friday afternoon, Jan. 4th. The proceeds for the year were $530.92, expenses $129.65, leaving a balance of $401.27. The officers elected for the year 1901 are: Mrs. J. McKee, president; Mrs. S. T. Martin, vice-president; Mrs. A. McKee, treasurer; Miss McCrea, secretary; Miss L. Glenn, assisting secretary; Miss Smith, mite treasurer; flower committee, Mrs. G. McKee, Mrs. S. M. Glenn and Mrs. E. Smith.

DIED IN HARWICH. Leslie Remington, of the 5th Con. of Harwich, who for some months has been ailing, passed away Saturday evening. Mr. Remington was 38 years and 8 months of age and leaves behind him a widow and four little ones. He was well and favorably known in the locality in which he lived. Henry and A. Remington, of Harwich, Jacob Remington, of Blenheim, are brothers of the deceased, and Mrs. Joe Adams, of Harwich, is a sister. The funeral will leave Mr. Remington's late residence at 11 a. m. and proceed to the Maple Leaf Cemetery. The C.O.O.F. have charge of the remains.

Protect Your Lungs With a

Chamois Vest.....

Half the people of this country have lung troubles. This is the reason why it is so easy for you to catch cold. If you are subject to colds, you should in winter always wear a Chest Protector. Every cold you have the weaker your lungs become.

We have a good line of CHEST PROTECTORS and Chamois Vests for both Ladies and Gentlemen.

THEY WERE ONLY FINED

Patrick Kennedy's Assaultants get off Very Lightly.

Although One of Them Was Convicted of Aggravated Assault.

James Browning, Richard Duckett and Caleb Montgomery, the three colored men charged with assaulting the late Patrick Kennedy, had their trial before Judge Houston at the police court this morning. Ed. Barry and Fred Mitchell gave evidence as to the row in the "valley" when Kennedy was struck. Nothing additional to the evidence at the inquest, however, was brought out. N. H. Stevens, John Holmes, Napoleon Predom, Dr. R. V. Bray and Robert Hyatt also gave evidence for the crown. The prisoners Duckett and Brown, Nelson Turner and Mrs. Browning all gave evidence for the defence.

Judge Houston found Duckett guilty of aggravated assault and the other two of ordinary assault. In addressing the prisoners, his honor said that he thought the whole trouble had arisen from the fact that all were drunk. As far as the evidence had gone there was nothing to connect the man's death with the blows he had received in the row. Montgomery deserved punishment because he was out on a rampage hunting trouble and thereby got his friends in trouble. Duckett appeared to have been the worst, for he had brutally knocked a man drunker than himself down.

Duckett was assessed $10 and $12.84 costs. Browning was assessed $2 and $7.84 costs, and Montgomery was fined $4 and $7.84 costs. Duckett's were increased by $5 by reason of the crown attorney's fee.

MISS LAMBERT

LAID TO REST.

Many Friends Testify to Their Esteem For the Deceased—Beautiful Floral Offerings.

Yesterday afternoon the remains of the late Annie N. Lambert were reverently laid to rest in Maple Leaf Cemetery. The funeral was very largely attended, testifying to the universal high esteem in which the deceased young lady was held.

A brief and impressive service took place at the home on Wellington St., which was conducted by the Rev. Rural Dean (Moses), while at the grave Rev. W. H. G. Collier presided. The pall bearers were Chas. Hicklin, G. W. Sulman, Wm. Turner, Robert J. Hall, Herbert Fisher and Ward Stenworth.

Among the beautiful floral tributes which covered and encircled the casket were a pillow from the bereaved family, star from The Planet staff, sheaf from The Planet employees, cross from Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Sulman, crescent from Mrs. Strong, dove on base, from Mayor T. A. Smith, wreath from Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Higgins, sickle from Mr. and Mrs. John Turner, and anchor from Mrs. F. M. Haggie.

The deceased young lady was the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lambert and has been in failing health for some years past. She was deservedly held in the highest regard by all who knew her and the bereaved relatives have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community.

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure Backache, Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phoebe Oberley, of Peterboro, N. H., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me; and, although 73 years old, I now am able to do all my housework." It overcomes Constipation, improves Appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c. at A. I. McCALL & Co's Drug Store.

Rheumatism in all its forms is promptly and permanently cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which neutralizes acidity of the blood.

Substitution is Suspicious.

The attempt by a dealer to sell his customer a substitute in place of the article the buyer calls for at once places that dealer under the ban of suspicion. The only reason why the buyer does not invariably realize the suspiciousness of the substitution and promptly reject it, is probably because in many cases the money transaction involved is so small that it does not suggest the motive for fraud. Suppose a jeweller advertises a diamond at $50.00. He places it in his window. A would-be buyer enters the store and asks for this particular diamond. But the jeweller says, "I can give you that diamond if you want it, but here's another that's just as good as the one advertised." The buyer's suspicions would be aroused at once. He would insist on the stone in the window, and he'd keep an eye on it to see it wasn't changed. But in the case of a fifty-cent transaction it is different. The buyer often accepts the substitute which is offered as "just as good" as a widely advertised article, although substitution is just as suspicious in a fifty-cent transaction as in one involving fifty dollars.

Look at the question from another point of view. A sale of stock is advertised. There are horses with pedigrees and records to be sold. Farmer Brown attends the sale with the purpose of buying one of these good horses. But the seller says to him, "That horse you want is a good horse, of course, but I've got another here that is just as good which I'd like to sell you."

"Well, he just as good a pedigree?"

"Has he any record?"

"Well, no, we never held a watch on him that I know of, but he's just as good as the horse you want."

Would Farmer Brown buy the "just as good" as the horse? The question answers itself. And yet this same farmer will allow himself to be swindled time and time again by accepting "just as good" articles in place of those he called for. The article he called for has, so to speak, a pedigree and a record. It's a standard in the markets of the world. Yet in place of this standard article he will accept a substitute which nobody knows anything about, an untried, unproved article which has no record of value, and no proof of origin. Let the buyer who is offered a substitute bear in mind that substitution is suspicious, and that a substitution always carries the earmarks of a swindle.

Our Great January Clearing Sale of Clothing.....

Now in Full Swing

AUSTINS' was well named when designated "The Bargain Centre of Chatham." How well we deserve this distinction was strongly exemplified on Saturday. The large concourse of enthusiastic buyers that continually throng this store is the talk of all Chatham. We didn't expect such a rush. The crowds kept us on the run all day, we were well pleased, because it shows that our merchandise is right and we want to be right on everything. The fact that our sales were far ahead of a year ago indicates that hundreds of new customers have been added to our already long-list of customers.

Prices for January

Have got to the point where no one can resist buying and if genuine bargain merit counts for anything we will have larger crowds here each day. The items quoted are only a few of the most important.
