TERRORIZED WINNIPEG

Doings of Mysterious Highwayman of Jesse James Type.

Held Up Six People, Entered Six Small Stores, and Disposed of Five Revolvers All in an Hour and a Half—Got $50 From One Clerk and Small Amounts on Street Held-Ups—Police Have No Clue.

Winnipeg, Jan. 15.—A desperado of the Jesse James type, terrorized the north end of Winnipeg Saturday night, when, in the course of an hour and a half, he held up at the point of a revolver six people and entered a similar number of small stores, in one of which, at least, he secured from the clerk $50.
He started operations about 5 o'clock, when he entered Zimmerman's pawnshop on Main street, and asked for cartridges. He returned at 6, when Zimmerman was alone and asked for a 38 calibre revolver. When he got a revolver he started to load it. Zimmerman, suspecting he intended to try and hold him up, seized it.
He then went out and repeated the plan at Weir & Co.'s hardware store, where there was only a clerk at the time. He took from him $50.
On Maple and other unfrequented streets he then held up six people. From one man he got $15, from another $5, and small amounts from others.

He entered several other stores and bought more revolvers, apparently to rob, but there were too many people in.
He then went to a pawnshop and got rid of his revolvers, five in number. At the pawnshop he gave the name of Fred Johnson, Albion Hotel, Winnipeg.
It is thought he got away on a freight train. The police have apparently no clue.

NOTED BANK ROBBER.

O'Connell, Who Escaped Many Years Ago, Brought Back to Prison.

New York, Jan. 15.—The Hamburg-American Line steamer America, arriving Saturday night, bringing among her passengers as a prisoner in charge of Capt. Saemann, Charles F. O'Connell, the famous bank robber, who escaped in 1899 from Clinton Prison, at Dannemora, N. Y., where he still has eighteen and one-half years of a sentence to serve. O'Connell is now 40 years of age. He has just been released from a German prison, where he served thirteen years for a robbery committed in that country following his escape from Dannemora. O'Connell snatched $2,500 from the paying teller of the Fifth National Bank at 23rd street and Third avenue, on Sept. 10, 1888, and escaped, but the same afternoon took $4,450 from the Commercial National Bank, in Wall street, and was captured. He escaped from Dannemora, the only prisoner who ever accomplished that feat, two weeks after his imprisonment. Recaptured, he got free again and surrounded in his flight at Plattsburg, was shot in the leg. In a hospital, convalescing, he made a rope of bed covers and escaped a third time, reaching Canada, where he robbed the Bank of Quebec of $2,000 and the Bank of Montreal of $7,000, and fled to Europe.

He stole $24,000 in his usual manner in Baden, Baden, and subsequently the banker whom he had robbed, called his arrest in Frankfurt-on-the-Main, where he was living expensively and was known as "the American millionaire."

Safes blown at Peterboro.
Peterboro, Jan. 15.—Burglars broke into Ald. Robert Hicks' office Saturday night and knocked the knob off the safe. A heavy charge of nitro-glycerine was inserted and the safe blown. Sixty dollars in bills and silver was secured. The front portion of the premises was badly shattered. Mr. Hicks, who lives near by, heard the explosion and looked out of his window, but seeing the lights burning in his office supposed everything was all right.
Manager Roth committed for Fraud.
Montreal, Jan. 15.—Max A. Roth, the manager of the Canadian Finance Co., was Saturday committed by Judge Desnoyers to stand his trial on a charge of obtaining money under false pretences by means of "fake" telegram to Sylvia Naud, who had borrowed money from the company.

Mr. Lowes Wins.
Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 15.—Ex-Senator McClelland, chairman of the board of appraisers, rendered his decision Saturday in the case of the four horses belonging to W. R. Lowes of Brampton, Ont., that were seized at Niagara Falls for undervaluation. After searching investigation and hearing both Appraiser Hill and Collector Brendel, who raised the question and had the horses seized, the chairman decided on all points in favor of Mr. Lowes and the horses were released.

To Regulate Insurance.
Washington, D. C., Jan. 15.—United States Senator Dryden has revised his bill contemplating government control of insurance, and will reintroduce it in the Senate to-day. He has followed very closely the investigation by the New York legislative committee, and now expresses the belief that his bill will correct practically all of the insurance evils exposed by the New York inquiry.

Yankees Entertain British.
Manila, Jan. 15.—The entertainments provided yesterday by the enlisted men of the American fleet for the men of the visiting British squadron, comprising a dinner and a vaudeville show, were attended by two thousand persons. Admirals Noel and Trevelyan were present. The British squadron sailed yesterday for Saigon.

CLEVER FAKIR

The Alleged Cattle Buyer Travelling Through the Province, Visits Harwich

The current issue of the Farmers' Advocate, on Jan. 10th, gives publicity to the actions of a clever fakir, who is travelling through the Province, pretending to purchase stock, etc., and incidentally borrowing sums of money from the farmers. Under the name of R. H. Reid he went through Elgin County, saying he was a breeder from Bruce County, wanting to buy stock.

A week ago, under the name of Duncan, of Toronto, he visited Harwich, presumably purchasing Jersey cattle. He made a sale, on paper, with W. W. Everett, but, speaking to The Planet this morning, Mr. Everett said he promised to send a draft for the amount of the purchase, which had not been shipped. He was not successful in borrowing money, Mr. Everett said.

The man is described as about 40 years of age, 5 ft. 6 in. in height, 140 lbs. in weight, with dark hair and mustache. He was well dressed in black and wore a stiff hat and prairie wolf overcoat. He spoke with a foreign accent, probably French, and was left-handed.

POLOE COURT

Louisa Jane Turner, who is charged by Miss Malady with theft, appeared before Judge Houston in the Police Court this morning. The case was adjourned until the 25th of January. Mrs. Turner came up on Saturday, when the case was adjourned until to-day. She is out on bail.
Cornelius Wright, who was charged with leading his wife, will come up next Monday for sentence. Mr. and Mrs. Wright have "made up" and are now living peaceably together. It is expected that he will be allowed to go out on suspended sentence after paying the costs. If no more rows occur before Monday.

S. S. TEACHERS

The seventh regular meeting of the city S. S. teachers will be held in Christ Church S. S. Hall on Tuesday next at eight p. m., when Wilson Taylor, B. A., Bible class teacher of Park street church, will give an address on the "Qualifications of the Ideal Sunday School Teacher." No doubt this important subject will be ably treated by the lecturer of the evening. Let there be a large rally of the S. S. workers at this first meeting of the year 1906. A registration of all the members of the class will be taken by the superintendent, D. S. Paterson, B. A., for the information of the Provincial Association.

CHURCH AND STATE.

Archbishop of Paris Won't Permit an Inventory of Church Goods.
Paris, Jan. 15.—Cardinal Richard, Archbishop of Paris, has addressed a circular letter to the priests of this city, in which he declares that he will never permit the tabernacles to be opened for the agents charged with making inventories of church goods, and instructing them to declare on their words of honor as priests the number and the value of sacred vessels, but on no account to open tabernacles.

Nearly all the bishops, including the most moderate of them, have issued letters similar to that of Cardinal Richards. The order to make an inventory of church goods is looked upon as a mistake by all except the most violent of the anti-clericals, and is believed by some persons to be the beginning of a real conflict between church and state.

Mayer After the McCurdys.
New York, Jan. 15.—It was reported Saturday that Attorney General Mayer will bring suit against Richard A. McCurdy, former president of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., to recover part of the moneys paid to him as salary. It is authoritatively said that the increase which Mr. McCurdy got a few years ago from $100,000 to $150,000 a year was not legally authorized. It was also reported that the Attorney-General would probably bring an action against his son, Robert McCurdy, and his son-in-law, Lewis E. Thebaud, to recover at least in part commissions that were paid to them.

Funeral of Dr. Harper.
Chicago, Jan. 15.—The body of William Rainey Harper, late president of the University of Chicago, was placed yesterday in a vault of Oakwood Cemetery. The final resting place, however, will be on the university campus, where it is planned to build a memorial chapel and crypt. The floral tributes were numerous and included wreaths from President Roosevelt, Emperor William of Germany and many other distinguished persons.

Going to Have a Belt.
Port Arthur, Jan. 15.—Port Arthur is to build an electric belt line around the town at once.

WANT CHATHAMITE

A. R. McRitchie, B. A., of the C. C. I. staff, has been offered the science mastership of the Pembroke High School at a salary of $1,200 per annum.

When the heart is won the understanding is easily convinced.

GOOD WIFE,

TRUE MOTHER

Rev. J. W. Hoyt Delivers Excellent Address in Baptist Church.

The Services were Largely Attended Yesterday—Ordinance of Baptism Administered in the Evening.

"A Good Wife and True Mother" was the subject of the sermon preached by Rev. J. W. Hoyt in the William street Baptist church last night to a crowded house. Mr. Hoyt began a series of sermons a week ago for the evening services on Women of the Bible, and last night he preached the second sermon of this series, taking his text from Gen. 23, 2, which sets forth the life and character of Sarah, the wife of Abraham. The preacher proceeded to show the qualities and traits of character which made Sarah a good wife to Abraham and a true mother to Isaac, and drew many useful lessons and important truths for the women of to-day as home makers and home keepers. In his own opinion, the speaker said, a man's goodness and greatness depends largely upon the goodness of his wife. In history and biography we read much about our forefathers but very little about our foremothers. The history and biographies have been written largely by men about men and nothing has been said farther than a passing word about the part the wife and mother has played in the life and character. If the influence of the mothers and wives were extracted from the lives of great men, there would have been no greatness. If a man has a wife at home a sympathizing friend, who shares with him every joy and grief and bears with him every burden, he can face the world's frowns with a smile and fight its battles confident of ultimate victory. But if the wife turns against him and the home after the day's work and disappointments offers only criticism and repining the strongest man will succumb under such treatment unless he is supported by the everlasting arms of Jehovah. A good wife is the best gift of God, and a bad wife is the best agent of the devil. The Reformation owed as much to the loving ministry and encouraging words of Catherine as to the brave, thundering speeches of Luther. It was the gentle spirit of Spurgeon's invalid wife that gave tenderness to the heart and tones of the great preacher. Moody's mastery over men drew more than the world ever knew to the mastery of quiet love of which he delighted to be the servant at home. The greatness of Abraham's character and life reflects only the goodness of his wife Sarah.

Sarah was not only a good wife, but she was a true mother and seemed to realize all the responsibilities of motherhood. Abraham is mentioned in the Scriptures as commanding his children well, and there is
