

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JULY 19, 1889.

The Farmer and His Prospects.

According to the official crop report the outlook in Manitoba is better than it has been for years, and we are encouraged to hope that our flour will be cheaper than has been the case for the past year at least.

In regard to the farming interests in our own province, and more particularly in the Annapolis Valley, the hay crop, now being rapidly housed, will be above the average, both on upland and dikes.

There are 3 Baptist churches, 2 Methodist, 1 Episcopal, 1 Methodist Episcopal, 1 Free Baptist, 1 Presbyterian, 1 Congregationalist and 1 Catholic.

The people were always very democratic, and they still adhere in large measure to the traditions of the fathers.

OUR DUMB ANIMALS.—This is the title of a handsome and well-conducted journal published in Boston, monthly, by the Massachusetts S. P. C. A., at 50 cents per year.

JOURNALISTIC.—The Arc Light, of Acadia Mines, which has recently changed management, comes to us greatly improved. This week's issue is bright and new—replete with reading of the right sort.

W. A. Payzant, dentist, has just returned from dental college and is prepared to do finer work than ever. All kinds of dental work done by the latest methods.

SIGNS OF PROSPERITY.

Yarmouth is flourishing. The celebration of her natal day gave convincing evidence of the fact. Something over 6,000 inhabitants of the town, and not a man or woman of them but seen possessed of one idea,—to make things boom.

There are eleven of them, and the salvation Army, which, no doubt believes itself to be as good as any two churches.

Yarmouth has a beautiful situation of which the inhabitants have not been slow to take advantage.

is just warm enough in the summer months to make vegetation luxuriant, and cool enough to make breathing a pleasure, and walking always an exhilaration.

door to support the minister.

And the minister, hanging up his coat on the nearest nail, and laying aside the stiff stock which would impede elocutionary movements, stood in the doorway between two rooms and exhibited in true New Light style, when some of these preachers (not all I am glad to say) would conclude their remarks, a semicircle of tobacco-juice would appear about the door-sill of either room, the product of the excited expectations of the animated exhorters.

But these absurdities, to us, were not noticed then; intense spiritual experience was what these people were after then, and what indeed they obtained.

Vacation Jottings.

ACADIA MINES, July 15.—In a slight mist, scarcely enough to make the drive in from Londonderry station unpleasant, but enough to destroy the beauty of scenery and to give the town a somber aspect as we came upon it, nestling under the mountains at the south, magnificent in scenery and rich in minerals, we reached Acadia Mines, the Pittsburg of Nova Scotia.

The drives in and about Acadia Mines are beautiful, several of which it has been my privilege to enjoy.

The past week has been an interesting and eventful one in Acadia Mines. On Tuesday evening I had the pleasure of attending a floral concert given under the auspices of the Baptist Sabbath-school of the place.

On Saturday afternoon the Episcopal held a strawberry festival, fancy sale and branie pie in one. It was a pronounced success.
