Death of a Journalist.

It is with deep regret that the ACADIAN announces this week the sudden death of Mr John A. Woodworth, editor of the Windsor Tribune, which occurred at his residence in Windsor last Sunday morning.

Mr Woodworth was born at Grand Pre fifty one years ago. His early life was spent on the farm. When a young man he went to New Brunswick, where he was engaged in contracting for supplies of material for bridges on the Intercolonial.

He was a most pleasing acquaintance. He leaves a widow and three children, who have the profound sympathy of a host of friends.

The funeral took place on Tuesday morning. After an impressive service at the house the remains were taken to Grand Pre and interred beside his parents and other members of the family in the old cemetery at that place.

The marriages of Rev. Charles A. McNally, of Fredericton, and Miss May E. Stuart, of Truro, took place at the latter place on Wednesday evening.

Mr J. H. E. Woodworth, publisher of the British Register, and Mr George Chisholm, mechanical foreman of the Windsor Tribune, were in town on Tuesday and paid the ACADIAN a call.

Rev. C. A. Read, Ph. D. of Acadia '91, who is professor of psychology and pedagogy in the Kalamazoo college at Michigan, has refused the offer made by the trustees of the Des Moines college to become its president.

Mr Henry W. Dimock, Collector of Customs at Windsor, has resigned that office, and Mr William O'Brien is named as his successor.

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., FEB. 5, 1899.

Local and Provincial.

Wolfville was in darkness for a short time on Wednesday evening, owing to an accident at the light station.

The congregation of St. Andrew's church, this town, are considering the purchase of a pipe organ for their place of worship.

An interesting hockey match will be played in Aberdeen rink Saturday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, between the collegiate school boys of Windsor and Junior team of Wolfville.

The first quarterly session for 1899 of the Grand Division, S. of T., was held this week at Round Hill, beginning on Tuesday. There was a good attendance of members and representatives.

The new Baptist church in Percus is to be dedicated Feb. 15th. Dr. Trotter, Dr. Keirstead and others will participate in the services of the day. A strong effort is being made to dedicate free of cost.

The many friends of Miss Fleet, teacher in the primary department of our public schools, are very sorry to hear of her illness, and trust she may soon be restored to health. Work in her department in the school has been suspended since Thursday last.

Prof. and Mrs. Haley have the deep sympathy of the community generally in the loss they have sustained by the death last Sunday of their only child by creep. The remains were taken to the United States to the home of Mrs. Haley on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Haley accompanied.

The subject of the lecture to be given in the Presbyterian church next Tuesday evening ("Canada and Her Future") is one that should interest every patriotic citizen.

The speaker, Mr. E. M. MacDonald, M. P., of Pictou, is one of Nova Scotia's foremost orators. We predict a treat for all who attend.

The sad news of the death of Mr. Fred Harris was received here yesterday morning. His death occurred at Boston on Wednesday night. For days the family had been expecting the sad tidings as the doctors had pronounced recovery impossible. The deceased was a brother of Mr. E. E. Harris, of this town. He resided here for several years, and had many friends who will hear of his death with deep regret. He was 51 years of age. The ACADIAN extends sympathy.

The Wolfville hockey team went to Annapolis on Thursday of last week and played their first game this season with the Annapolis club. The game is described by the Spectator as being full of "glugs" from start to finish. The score was 5-2 in favor of Annapolis. Our boys returned on Friday well pleased with their visit and speaking in highest praise of the manner in which they were met by the Annapolis players. On Tuesday the team went to Canning, where they again sustained defeat—the result being 3-1 in favor of the home team. The game was played without any friction and the best of feeling prevailed throughout. At the close the visitors were entertained at the Canning Hotel and a most enjoyable time was spent. It is expected that return matches will be played here in the near future with both these teams, which are the best in the province.

Hon. Sidon Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, is to address a public meeting at Kentville on Monday, Feb. 20th, under the auspices of the Board of Trade of that place.

The roads have been reported quite dangerous during the past week, owing to ice. In town we have had good sleighing, but outside in many places the roads are bare.

The Windsor Magazine for February has been received from the N. S. agents, Messrs T. C. Allen & Co., of Halifax. The two leading articles are "Joan of the Sward," by S. R. Crockett, and "Stinky & Co.," by Bayard Kipling. An interesting sketch of "Women Artists of the day" is very readable.

Mr. W. W. Robson has had several changes made in his Wolfville Studio during the past week, which will add much to its appearance and convenience. The operating room has been enlarged, which will add to his facilities for photographing people. A neat dressing room has also been arranged, and the whole studio brightened and made more attractive.

A lot of Hard Nut Coal just arrived. COLDWELL & BONDERS.

Personal Mention.

(Contributions to this department will be gladly received.) Mr. A. H. Johnson has been in Halifax for some weeks having his eyes treated.
