

BRONCHIAL ASTHMA

Choking and Gasping for Breath
Relieved by "FRUIT-A-LIVES"

MRS. PENNINGTON

New Rockland, P.Q.
"In 1919, I was taken with Bronchial Asthma and no one knows what I suffered with it during the winter. I began having Choking Spells—gasping for breath and could not speak. I would have one of these bad spells in the evening, one during the night, and one in the morning. The doctor said he could do nothing for me."

"In the spring of 1920, I started taking 'Fruit-a-lives' and in a few days, the choking spells stopped, and I have had none since May 7th, 1920. I have so wanted to tell other sufferers who have the same trouble about 'Fruit-a-lives' for I know how they must suffer."

Some thought the Asthma would come back on me as winter came on but it has not, thanks to 'Fruit-a-lives'. Mrs. J. M. PENNINGTON, 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

Indoor Life

Spending more time indoors makes women far more subject to constipation than men.
The liver becomes sluggish and torpid, the bowels constipated and the system poisoned by impurities.
If you would get away from the myriads of ills which result from constipation, it is only necessary to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.
The benefits from their use are as lasting as they are prompt and certain.
Mrs. John Barry, 18 St. Amable Street, Quebec, Que., writes:
"This is to certify that I was troubled for years with constipation and tried all kinds of medicines without relief. At last my husband suggested that I try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I did so, and must say that they have given me more relief than all the medicines I have taken during the last fifteen years. I may also add that I have used Dr. Chase's Ointment for piles with excellent results."
Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box, all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Schoolgirl Amazes Experts

At various intervals throughout the ages persons have arisen who astonished their generation by their strange gifts and occult powers. Sometimes these persons were revealed as fakers in their own day. Sometimes they got by while they lived, only to be unmasked by subsequent investigators. Sometimes they had made discoveries slightly before their time and claimed a supernatural origin for natural phenomena. Occasionally a man amazes the people of his own time and leaves a mystery which is never solved. To one of these classes belongs Eugene Dennis, a Kansas City girl, who is attending High School and who appears to have some remarkable gift. She makes no claim of being in communication with the spirit world. She does not know how she performs her wonders, and is in every respect an ordinary flapper, who admits she is fond of boys and chocolates, and who is no brighter, save for her queer gift, than the ordinary girl of her age. The theory is advanced that she has "psychic eyes," whatever that may be. That she is a trickster appears to be an untenable theory. She has already been investigated to establish this point by a man who is an acknowledged expert. It was about a year ago that Miss Dennis began to startle her friends by her powers, one of her first victims being a youth who was driving her in his car and chose a shady spot just outside the town where he thought he might suitably stop and refresh himself with a kiss. He was getting himself all set for the exercise, with Miss Eugene not averse, when suddenly a rapid look crossed her face and she stammered: "A man—hurt—an automobile—quick—if they do not—hurry he will die—a message to the hospital—quick." Then she fainted. The amazed boy shook her by the arm and in a moment she came round. She told him to hurry with his car into town, as there had been an accident, and if help did not come immediately a man would die. He put on all speed in the direction she pointed out and presently saw two wrecked automobiles and a little group of people. They told him that the victim of the collision had been already taken to the hospital. It would appear that Miss Dennis was somehow or other made aware of the accident at the moment it happened. In fact she saw it.

Some time ago she paid a visit to Omaha, and it was from there that the first public news of her queer gift emanated. One of her young friends remarked that she had lost a valuable diamond ring the day before, and Eugene, without going in to a trance, but merely concentrating her mind, told her where it had been dropped. She said it would be recovered if she hurried, because in half an hour a man with a vacuum cleaner would be busy with the rug. The matron hurried away to the friend's house, went to the room, and at the designated spot picked up the ring. She had not recovered from her amazement and delight when a servant knocked at the door and asked if it would be convenient for him to clean the rug. There were several other similar incidents which found their way into the newspapers, with the result that the American Society for Psychical Research in New York became interested and commissioned an investigator.

It happened that the best investigator for one phase of the problem was a resident of Omaha. He is David Abbott, whose business is the manufacture of paraphernalia for magicians. It is said that half the tricks of the professors of lagerdmain are the invention of Abbott. He has often said that he can duplicate any trick of the professional mediums and was eager to interview Miss Dennis. It was arranged that she should live at his house for a few weeks. She did so, and Abbott's report, which has been forwarded to the society, will say that she remains a mystery to him, and that there can be no possibility of fraud in what she performs. Nothing more dramatic in the history of these investigations ever occurred than the incident one evening recently. When Mr. Abbott invited some twenty-five guests to meet the girl and witness a demonstration of her powers. For a while she remained chatting with them, telling them things about their past lives, which astonished them, when suddenly she stopped and cried: "Wait! Wait!"

"I'm getting something!" she exclaimed. "Something awful is happening. A man is being killed right now—right here in Omaha. I see a street car. I see three dark-faced men running through the streets. The man is dead." She resumed her chat in normal tones, and a few minutes later the guests were leaving the house. They boarded a street car and noticed the excitement of the other passengers. They then learned that three negroes had shot and killed a policeman at the end of the car line, fifteen minutes before, at the precise moment when Miss Dennis had her vision. It is said that the girl has also successfully repeated a test message agreed upon between Abbott and a dead friend, who had promised to send this particular message if ever he found a medium. Eugene is to be further investigated by the Society for Psychical Research.

No More Cornish Tin.

The last Cornish tin mine has been closed and in industry which was the oldest in Great Britain, having been carried on by the Phoenicians long before the invasion of the Romans, is now extinct.

NOT ALL DUE TO COMEDIAN

Part of Laughable Entertainment Was Being Furnished by Original Tenants of Barn.

Speaker Sweet said the other day in the New York state legislature at Albany: "Because an agitator gets a lot of newspaper space it does not necessarily mean that he is a great man. Newspaper space may mean something else. It reminds me of a story. 'A rich man hired a comedian to entertain the workers on his estate one evening. The entertainment was staged in the barn, and it went well, almost too well. The comedian, in fact, had hardly got under way when the barn began to shake with shouts of laughter. Soon the laughter became so uproarious that the rich man rose and said: 'Friends, I know how difficult it is to restrain our mirth when Mr. Backchat is on the stage, but really, you know, if we don't hold ourselves in just a little the performance will hardly be over by midnight.' 'Then a burly plowman rose in his turn. 'Excuse me, boss,' he said; 'it ain't Mr. Backchat we're laughin' at but somebody left the door open and all the pigs have got in, and they're nearly pushin' us off our seats.'"

Blue-Jay Ways.

Last spring a pair of blue jays nested in the crotch of a maple just below my study window. What a time they had of nest building! The female insisted on building in a crotch below, while the male thought a crotch higher up afforded a more advantageous location. They talked and scolded. In the end the female had her way, and the makeshift bunch of twigs and brush was collected. The birds were silent for weeks, tending strictly to family cares; the half of which the male bird assumed without a murmur or complaint. All summer long they were silent, but toward fall they joined their voices with those of the other jays in the neighborhood. It was a new slant on blue jay methods, and hereafter I shall regard the birds with a wee bit more appreciation.—Christian Science Monitor.

Poor Father.

Marian is eleven years old and thinks that she is old enough to stop having her hair bobbed and let it grow out and be braided as do the other little girls in her class. But her mother has different ideas. So, of course, there is an argument every time her cutting time arrives. Last time mother brought forth a new argument. "I want your hair to be pretty and thick when you grow up," she said, "and there is nothing which makes your hair grow better than to cut it often." Marian's eyes opened wide. "Then why don't you begin it on father?" she said. "He says himself that he is getting bald."

A WOMAN'S WORK IS NEVER DONE

It Seems So in Many Cases and Good Health is Always Necessary

Viscount, Saskatchewan—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness of the female organs. I had pains in the back and bearing-down pains in the abdomen, and was in a general run-down condition. I could not sleep, rest or work and was quite unfit to do even slight household tasks. A friend told me about your Vegetable Compound and I in my turn truly recommend it, as my severe symptoms vanished and I am better in every way. I do my own work, look after my children and see to chickens, cow and my garden. I also recommend it for young girls who are weak and run down, as my 16-year-old daughter has taken it and is quite her own gay self again."—Mrs. Edna. WILLY, Viscount, Saskatchewan.

I Live On A Farm

Upper New Horton, N. B.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines and they have done me a world of good. Since then I have been able to do my housework and I have a lot of work to do as I live on a farm. Seeing your advertisement in the papers was what made me think of writing to you. I hope this will help someone else."—Mrs. Wm. B. Knyva, Upper New Horton, New Brunswick.

Ball's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in "run-down" condition will realize that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This is because Catarrh is a local disease. It is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. BALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Tonic and Blood Purifier, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions. All druggists. Circulars free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.
