REPORTERS' CONTEST KEENLY CONTESTED

Much Interest is Taken in The Observer's Correspondence Contest—Perth Reporter Wins for January

As announced in our issue of Jan. 7 a reward of $2.00 will be given to the best correspondent who sends what we call the best copy in the month. Correspondents at Centerville, Florenceville, East Florenceville, Andover, Grand Falls and Woodstock are not eligible for this contest as they are paid in another way. This leaves the opportunity to win the two dollar reward practically to the smaller districts. During January the Perth correspondent won the $2.00. What was most appreciated in this correspondent's work was promptness in having copy in on Mondays, regularly in having copy in every week, and covering a great many items of real news, getting all necessary details of important news stories. This correspondent will not be eligible for the February reward, but may, if February and March work are both good, capture the March reward.

In valuing the worth of a correspondent competing for this reward the relative size of the community is considered, so there is really just as good a chance for the reporter in a small remote district as in the larger ones.

Remember we want no item that the writer cannot vouch for absolutely; we want no "funny" items, nor items with a hidden meaning or only understandable by the persons they refer to. Never send items of neighbours visiting each other, except it be in the way of a party or general or special gathering. What we particularly want is news of people leaving the district for elsewhere, and of visitors from elsewhere, record of people who are really—not those suffering from colds, bunions and such simple ailments; deaths and all the circumstances. In deaths of adult people give more particulars than if a child died. Always try to get the correct age, place of birth, names of immediate family surviving, time of death and all such details. Funerals should be spoken of briefly—make no eulogy, and please, oh! please, send no poetry. Weddings should be fully reported up to the list of wedding presents—at which the editor draws the line. Accidents, fires, removals to or from the community, sales of property, new buildings, community improvements and all unusual events should be reported.

Don't forget that copy should be mailed to reach the office on Monday—every Monday—whenever possible. Always sign your name to every contribution so that the editor will know who is responsible for it.

If certain of the correspondents in the smaller districts keep up the good work we will give one of them the February reward. Reporters should know that it is not quantity that will win, but the prompt delivery of quality. Don't try for a long string—see how much you can say in a few words.

Now then—all ready for the February contest.

HENRY TEOLE DEAD

The death occurred at his home on Friday morning of Henry Teole. Mr. Teole was a son of the late William Teole and a brother of George and Fred Teole, while Mrs. G. B. Triston of St. John and Mrs. Amanda Boyer of Vancouver are sisters. He is also survived by his aged mother, his wife, who was a daughter of the late Zopher Phillips, one son, Wendell, and a daughter Miss Evelyn, both of whom are at home.

Mr. Teole, who was 53 years of age, was born and lived the whole years of his life up until 5 years ago at Lower Brighton where he was pre-eminently successful. He rendered good service as road commissioner and was for years post master in his district. He was of likeable nature, always honest and dependable, a good neighbor and friend. In religion he was a Baptist and in politics a Liberal.

Five years ago Mr. Teole sold his farm to his brother George and removed to Hartland and soon after was appointed agent for the express company which position he held up to his death.

The deceased had been in failing health for some years. A year ago he went to the Royal Victoria Hospital at Montreal where surgical treatment revealed an incurable disease. Since his return home he was fairly comfortable and was confined to his bed only a short time.

The funeral was held from his late residence on Sunday afternoon. Rev. E. A. Trite preached the sermon while Rev. H. S. Mullin and Rev. N.

Franchette assisted in the service. Members of the Baptist choir sang "Jesus Lover of My Soul," "Lead Kindly Light," "Abide with Me." There were floral offerings from many sympathizing friends. The body was laid to rest in Greenwood cemetery. The pall bearers being J. E. MacCallum, J. F. Murdoch, A. Plummer, L. E. McFarland. Those from out of town who attended the funeral were Rev. and Mrs. G. B. Triston and sons William and Charles of St. John; Clarence Britton and Davis Phillips of Upper Woodstock; Mrs. Charles Smith of Alameda, Calif.; Nathan Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Phillips of Pembroke.

SPECIAL MEETING OF TOWN COUNCIL

Special meeting of the Town Council convened last evening for the purpose of selecting committees and defining the boundaries of the Kennedy Road.

Jas. Faulkner, representative at the County Council reported on his findings regarding the records of the Kennedy road. Considerable discussion ensued in which the majority of the council participated. E. A. Britton being present, upon motion he was permitted to give his views on the matter.

On motion it was decided to have the Street Committee get in touch with both parties engaged, also Mr. Teddie, former road commissioner, ex-councillors Morgan and Britton, Ass. Kennedy and any others interested, in order that this matter might be settled amicably between all parties concerned.

The regular meeting of the Council will convene Monday, Feb. 7, at which meeting the matter will be brought down, amendments expounded, etc. The budget will no doubt be about the same as 1920, with few variations.

ENTERTAINING A WESTERNER

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilnot Kimball of Waterville was the scene of a pleasant event on Jan. 26, when the birthday of Murray C. Lloyd, Mr. Kimball's brother, was the occasion for the festivity. Mr. Lloyd, as announced several weeks ago, is here from Saskatchewan to spend the winter in his native county. At the party about 30 were present, among them old friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd. On Friday evening a pleasant social time was spent at the home of Allen Burpee. This affair was, also, in honor of Mr. Lloyd's visit to his native county. After refreshments were entertaining and reminiscent speeches by Miss Kimball, Mr. Watson and Mrs. Frank Burpee.

MOUNT ALLISON EN- DOWMENT CAMPAIGN

Gets a Good Start at East Florenceville—Other Topics of Interest

On Friday evening a meeting in the interests of the Mount Allison campaign which comes off February 7-14 was held in the basement of the Methodist church. The engineer of the campaign, R. H. Kethner, of Dayton, Ohio, met and discussed final plans with the ministers, group leaders, and representatives from Hartland, Andover, Centerville and Florenceville circuits. Before the business was transacted an appetizing supper was served to the visiting friends by the women of the Ladies Aid Society which was much enjoyed.

Ora Tompkins, son of F. L. Tompkins, met with a severe accident last week when he fell from a team and broke his left arm at the elbow. It was not thought so serious for a day or two and no medical attention was called for but it soon became very painful and doctors were summoned and pronounced it a very nasty break and immediate attention was rendered, which we trust will soon mend matters.

Misses Stella Hunter and Amy Tompkins spent a few days in Bath recently.

Revs. Charles Flemington and Hugh Miller were here on Friday to attend the Mount Allison meeting.

Misses Julia Salmon of Linville and Carrie Tompkins of Upper Kent were in town on Friday.

Miss Katherine Flemington of Andover was the guest of the Misses Wightman on Friday.

B. F. Smith was the week-end guest of his daughter Mrs. J. R. D. White at Aroostook, Me.

The fortnightly bean supper held regularly in the Baptist church basement was well attended on Thursday last. Try your supper there Thursday, Feb. 10.

The many friends of Miss Grace Bell will regret to hear of her contracted illness, having suffered with sciatica of the ear for the past six weeks. All wish her a more speedy recovery.

M. W. Wilson is convalescing from his attack of pneumonia.

Messrs. Baber, McCollum and Moore drove from Hartland to attend the gathering in the Methodist church on Friday.

Miss Verna Gaudet of S. W. Smith's spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Isaac Gallagher of Centerville.

Edson S. Hunter, assistant at the C. P. R. station, expects to leave during the week to take up his new position in Presque Isle. Being very popular and well liked his many friends will miss him from their circle but all wish him success.

George Smith went to Sherbrooke and Montreal on business last Friday.

R. S. Sample is in Boston on business.

Miss McNett of Debec has been engaged to teach the primary department of the school and arrived Jan. 27 to take up her duties, commencing Feb. 1.

Cause of Early Old Age

The celebrated Dr. Micholoff, an authority on early old age, says that it is "caused by poisons generated in the intestines." When your stomach digests food properly it is absorbed without forming poisonous matter. Food coming on early old age and premature death. 15 to 30 drops of "Kidney Syrup" after meals makes your digestion sound. 10
