TROUT
Mezzework

The undersigned have received from
Mr. Nash of Maine the agency for New Brunswick for his famous trout mezzework.
A trout mezzework is one half the fish
so mounted upon a convex elliptical panel as to stand the fish out in bold relief, giving the effect of an oil painting or of a carved fish, with the real thing to be seen at your fingers. The process of preserving fish in this artistic way was discovered by Mr. Nash in 1900, and patented by him.

DOCTOR BRIGHAM SAYS

MANY PHYSICIANS PRESCRIBE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of womanhood is not because it is a stimulant, not because it is a palliative, but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and restorer ever discovered to act directly upon the generative organs, positively curing disease and restoring health and vigor.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures and physicians who have recognized the virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and are fair enough to give credit where it is due.

If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female ill, as they know by experience it can be relied upon to effect a cure. The following letter proves it.

Dr. S. C. Brigham, of 4 Brigham Park, Fitchburg, Mass., writes:

"It gives me great pleasure to say that I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound very efficacious, and often prescribe it in my practice for female difficulties. My oldest daughter found it very beneficial for female trouble some time ago, and my youngest daughter is now taking it for a female weakness, and is surely gaining in health and strength."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, bloating (or flatulence), weakness of organs, displacements, inflammation or ulceration can be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If advice is needed, write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. She is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge. No other living person has had the benefit of a wider experience in treating female ill. She has guided thousands to health. Every suffering woman should ask for and follow her advice if she wants to be strong and well.

Old Crossby worked eighteen hours out of every twenty-four until he amassed a fortune.

Yes, and now his son is working twenty-four hours out of every twenty-four.

Making another fortune?
No, trying to find a way to spend the fortune his daddy made.

BROKEN SLEEP TIRED NEXT MORNING.

Sleep not only rests, but builds up the body. Cut down the hours of sleep, and you cut down health in the same proportion. Rebuilding then ceases, never go to sleep, you grow tired, weak and with-ed.
To restore sleep you must get more bodily strength, more nutritious blood, healthier nerves. Ferrozene solves the whole problem, makes you sleep soundly gives endurance, vim, and vigor. No more morning weakness—instead the fire of youth will run in your veins, supplying abundance of energy and vigor. Write very expresses the instant effect of Ferrozene; try it.

Did you ever cast your bread upon the waters? asked the parson.

he said. "Yes, it is pretty, but prettier in the copest below, where I think you must have observed it yesterday. Here it runs very gravely; below it is a noisy vagabond. You see it has uses here."

"You draw your water here?" I asked, fascinated with the primitive idea.
"Not unusually," he replied, "but there is a well within the castle, doubtless from the same springs. Yet the brook rendered a more important service in my predecessors' times."

I looked at him inquiringly. He smiled.
"Let me see," he resumed, "if I can give you ocular proof. It should be here." He stopped and, dipping his stick into the water, poked among the pebbles of the stream. "Ah, here it is! I think I have it!" He looked toward the castle, above the battlements of which now shined the morning sun. They rose some fifty yards away. "There is a connection with the moat by means of a conduit," explained Mr. Kesteven.

I uttered an exclamation of delight and vowed that I must explore farther. Assenting graciously, he led the way toward the house and, letting himself gently down the sloping bank, walked, peering about him, along the bottom of the moat. "You will find it overgrown, no doubt," he said. "But your eyes are better than mine. It is ten years since I looked for it."

I searched amid the trailing creepers and presently discovered the mouth of the conduit. It was of thick stone and mortar and from its appearance must have been of very ancient construction. But the opening was choked with earth and grass and probably had been so for centuries. I said as much to Mr. Kesteven.

"No," he returned, "I think not. I believe my predecessor in the tenancy of the castle had it opened some fifty years ago, and flooded the moat for his own amusement. I understand that the experiment was quite successful and entertained a party of guests, one of whom," he added dryly, "fell into the water and was only rescued with some difficulty. But you shall make better acquaintance with our neighborhood after breakfast. I assure you, Mr. Grestorex, it is worth your study, and this castle of mine is by no means singular."

TRIBE OF 2,000 CHOSE DEATH

St. Petersburg, June 18.—One of the most terrible stories of nomadic vicissitude ever told has just reached St. Petersburg. It is to the effect that an entire tribe of the Tshukotoes, numbering about 2,000, has just perished by its own act as the last avenue of escape from famine.

The tribe inhabited one of the bleakest parts of Yakutsk and obtained a precarious subsistence by rearing reindeer. Early in 1905 a deadly disease appeared among the deer and by Winter the entire herd had perished. The unfortunate people endured much, hoping that Spring would bring some better prospects. This hope was disappointed and, with slow starvation staring them in the face the elders of the tribe spent a day in discussing what should be done. The almost incredible decision was that each father should first kill his family and then himself.

On the following day the appalling tragedy was carried out in the open air in a general assembly. The only exceptions were a few old men without families, who when left to themselves had not the determination necessary to commit suicide, and some of them continued to drag on a miserable existence until they were found.

Take me fum de gumbin!
En de growlin' ob de town.
Take me to de dogwoods.
When de blooms am tumblin' down.
Forty-leben singin' birds
Make de woodlands ring;
En yo can't hear my gumbin!
Fro de timber lan's in spring.

Why, Harker, I haven't seen you in five years. I am always glad to meet two old friends.
Very nice of you, old man, but where is the other old friend?
In your hand. That is my umbrella.

Jack—So Katherine decided to withdraw from the field of literature?
Helen—Yes, indeed. After she found out the much-talked of literary style had nothing to do with gowns or hats she was disgusted.

The millionaire's motherless son had just filed his application for a job as husband to the fair maid.
You'll have to excuse me, Percy, she said, but I can never be anything more than a mother to you.
A mother! echoed the surprise Percy.
That's what I said, rejoined the millionaire. Your father spoke first.

Some of The Stringent Royal Rules.

Regal Etiquette at Royal Courts and Restrictions of Royal Power.

A curious curtailment of the royal prerogative is effective by an act of parliament passed in the reign of George III, which deals with Sabbath breaking. In this act it is distinctly stated that the monarch shall not have the power to pardon any persons convicted of a certain form of Sabbath breaking. Yet his majesty can, of course, pardon 90 out of every 100 prisoners in the land.

A number of years ago it was perfectly permissible, and, in fact, a matter of strict etiquette, for a visitor who should obtain an audience with the Sultan of Turkey to bow and kiss the hand of that oriental potentate. Anarchists, however, took advantage of the privilege, and on one memorable occasion a treacherous emissary drove a dagger into the heart of a sovereign, and from that time forth the privilege has been disallowed.

When the youthful King of Spain was 12 years of age he one day had the misfortune to slip and fall down a flight of the palace stairs. The fall would very probably have been attended with fatal results had it not been for a servant who extended a kindly hand and saved his young master by breaking the fall. But by a stringent rule of Spanish etiquette, no one dare even touch the sacred person of the King, and for this very grave offence the servant was at once dismissed from his position.

By a remarkable law of royal etiquette which has existed for a number of years past at the court of Siam, no person is permitted to sleep in an apartment situated above that occupied by the King. A deliberate breach of this rule has on more than one occasion been punished by death.

Recently, when the King of Siam paid a visit to Paris, a number of bedrooms were reserved directly above that in which the King was to have slept for the dusky followers of the royal visitor. The blunder caused great consternation among the fearful courtiers, until the matter was explained to the management and duly rectified.

It is a traditional etiquette custom in the Malborough family for each duke to present a Blenheim spaniel to the duchess when she enters Blenheim palace for the first time as its mistress. The story from which this custom has its origin, is that during the battle of Blenheim a spaniel followed at the heels of the great duke throughout the day, never leaving him until the victory was assured.

When the emperor or empress of China appears in public, no other person is allowed to occupy a higher place than they do. Therefore on such occasions the shutters of all buildings are drawn and the upper parts of the houses past which the royal procession is expected to move, are deserted, the inhabitants swarming to the ground floors in order to show deference to their rulers.

Woman, remarked the home-grown philosopher, is a conundrum without an answer.
Hub! rejoined the man who had been married three times. I never saw a woman who didn't have an answer.

Giles—Our old friend Scopsen has joined the ranks of the star gazers.

Miles—What! You don't mean to say that he has taken up astronomy?
Giles—Oh, no; he has got a job as dramatic critic on the Weekly Owl.

When the Liver is out of Order calomel, cascara, salts, strong liver pills and purging mineral waters won't do any permanent good.

When a person is bilious, the liver is not giving up enough bile to move the bowels regularly—and some of the bile is being absorbed by the blood. In other words, the liver is in a weakened, unhealthy condition.

Now, purgatives don't act on the liver at all. They merely irritate the bowels, and afford only temporary relief. But FRUIT-A-TIVES are the one true LIVER TONIC. They act directly on the liver—strengthen and invigorate this vital organ—and put it in a normal, healthy condition.

FRUIT-A-TIVES also stimulate the glands of the skin—and regulate the kidneys and sweeten the stomach. When skin, liver and kidneys are normally healthy, there can be no biliousness, no constipation, no kidney trouble, no impure blood, no headaches.

No other medicine known to science is so reliable and so effective in curing biliousness as these fruit liver tablets.

FRUIT-A-TIVES are fruit juices with tonics added—and are free from alcohol and dangerous drugs. 50c. a box or 6 for $2.50. Sent on receipt of price, if your druggist does not handle them.

FRUIT-A-TIVES LIMITED, OTTAWA.

PAPER MILK BOTTLES

Toronto News: Paper milk bottles are now being put on the market along with paper beer bottles, paper carbonated water bottles and paper moisture-proof cigar boxes. As Canada is unquestionably the paper country of the future with her immense spruce forests, this interests us. Many advantages are claimed for the paper milk bottles over its glass competitor. In the first place, it is sterilized, while it is claimed it is difficult to sterilize a glass bottle. Then with breakages, cost of collecting and the smaller loads carried the dairies figure that the glass bottle costs between four and five dollars per thousand bottles of milk delivered, whereas the paper bottle costs $3 per thousand and the drivers take out larger loads and make better time by reason of the fact that they do not have to wait to collect empties. The paper bottle is, of course, used only once and is then thrown away.

IMPROVE YOUR COMPLEXION

Give up Cosmetics and Seek the Cause of Your Bad Color.

When it's so easy to bring back the bloom of youth, to remove the blemishes and fill the hollows, isn't it foolish to plaster on cosmetics?
Sallow skin and fallen cheeks are produced by disorders of the alimentary canal.
Remove the cause—correct the condition that keeps you from looking as you ought. Use Dr. Hamilton's Pills and very soon you will have a complexion to be proud of.

Just imagine how much happier you will feel when those purples and mucky look have gone.

Dainty looks came to Miss Vrooman, a well-known resident of Belfast, from using Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Read what she says.

"My friends all admit that I have a very delightful complexion. This I owe positively to Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I used to look so yellow. I thought it might be jaundice. There was simply no color in my cheeks at all. Today my skin is clear and never gets that mucky, dull appearance that before. Dr. Hamilton's Pills have given me a good appetite and improved my general health also."

Not only the complexion, but every organ of the body is strengthened, cleansed and made healthy by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. The yellow, slim and a fading of vigor invariably follow their use. Sold in yellow boxes by all dealers, 25c. per box or five boxes for $1.00, or by mail from N. C. Pillsbury & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S. A., and Kingston, Ont.

Dick—Was Jack jealous because I called the other night?

Edna—Terribly! He almost hates you.

Dick—Does, eh? Well I shall send you a box of candy tomorrow for revenge. Adna—Ah, revenge is sweet.
