Show Interest in Fight Waged Against White Plague.

School Children Are Shown Around by Experts.

Convention of Canadian Association Opens To-morrow.

That people are waking up to the importance of the battle waged against the appalling white plague and are anxious to assist in checking its ravages is evident from the interest displayed yesterday at the opening of the Ontario Government's free tuberculosis exhibit, which is being shown here in connection with the annual convention of the Canadian Association for the prevention of Consumption. Yesterday afternoon over three hundred children from the city schools viewed the exhibit and heard the views explained by Dr. Roberts, Medical Health Officer, Dr. Holbrook, Superintendent of the Mountain Sanatorium, Dr. Carrick and Dr. Davey. Every afternoon this week children from the different schools will see the exhibit.

Last night the exhibit was thrown open to the general public, and a large audience spent an enjoyable and profitable time. The illustrated lectures were thoroughly appreciated and those who were instrumental in securing the exhibit for Hamilton are more than pleased with the active interest shown. Dr. Davey spoke on "Tuberculosis and Its Prevention," and Dr. Holbrook on "Tuberculosis in Childhood."

Both lectures were brimful of helpful suggestions. The abolishment of carpets, fresh air, pure food and the prevention of infection by general hygienic rules were some of the points Dr. Holbrook emphasized. The diseases germs, he said, were everywhere, and their growth was hastened by poor light, bad ventilation, and so forth. Common sense rules of health prevented any tendency to the disease. Climate, rest, proper food and right living effected the cure.

Dr. Davey dealt instructively with his subject, defining the contagions, the cause, the entrance of the germs into the body, the nature of the attack, and the methods of preventing it. An ounce of prevention, he emphasized, was worth a pound of cure.

To-morrow at 10 o'clock in the Conservatory of Music hall will take place the official opening of the ninth annual convention of the Canadian Association for the Prevention of Consumption and Other Forms of Tuberculosis. The morning session will be taken up with routine business and the evening session with the large and interesting exhibit. In the afternoon Dr. William Charles White will tell the story of Pittsburg's fight against the white plague. In the evening at 8:30 Dr. J. George Adams, of McGill University, one of the foremost pathologists of America, will lecture on "Economic and Social Success in Tuberculosis Crusade."

It has been decided to adhere to the original intention of holding the convention meetings in the Conservatory of Music hall, and thus allow more room in the Knox-Morgan building to accommodate the large crowds which it is expected will view the Ontario Government's exhibit and the lantern slide lectures, to-day, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week.

The exhibit is a particularly interesting one, as it shows the methods which have been adopted for fighting consumption in England, Germany, the United States and Canada. There is no admission charge to the exhibit or lectures in the Knox-Morgan building, and the public is also cordially invited to attend the addresses which will be given by Dr. William Charles White and Dr. J. Geo. Adams to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 and evening at 8 o'clock in the Conservatory of Music.

MURDERED OPENING HIS OWN DOOR.

Friend of Palermo Petrosina Shot in New York This Morning—Black Hand Tragedy.

New York, May 18.—What the police believe may be another Black Hand assassination was perpetrated early today, when Poggio Puccio, 56 years old, a cigar maker, tried to enter his flat on the fourth floor of the apartment house at 321 East 75th street. As he was fitting the key into the lock of his door a man leaped over the balustrade of the fifth floor and sent a bullet through Puccio's body. Puccio dropped dead on the threshold as a member of his family opened the door. By the time the police arrived the assassin had escaped, presumably to the roof, and down through an adjoining house. The police say that the man who shot the cigar maker had been lying in wait for him, apparently for several hours. Residents of the fifth floor had observed a strange man enter in the evening. A motive for the assassination was found by the police in the fact that Puccio was a close friend of Lieut. Joseph Petrosino, of the New

Where Brantford and Hamilton Grocers Will Picnic.

A deputation of the retail grocers of Brantford were in the city last night and made arrangements to have a joint picnic of the retail grocers of the two cities, as in former years. The local grocers entertained them at the Waldorf Hotel and took them for an automobile ride. After the ride a meeting was held in the Board of Trade building and the matter discussed. It was unanimously decided to hold the picnic at Niagara Falls. The committees are getting down to work, and a good programme is assured.

WHEAT RECORD.

Price on Hamilton Market To-day $1.30.

The demands for wheat on the local market is so strong that the price reached $1.30, which is 4 cents a bushel higher than the grain buyers remember it having been sold at on the Hamilton market.

The farmers sold practically all the wheat they had when the price reached the $1 mark and now the foreign demand is increasing, very little can be had even at the unusually high price, and it may go higher. The price seems to be general and it reached $1.29 in Chicago, which is 1/2 cent less than when Patton cornered the market. With such a poor supply of wheat the flour mills are unable to run to capacity.

LEAVING CITY.

Watkins' Advertising Manager Going to Worcester, Mass.

Mr. G. E. Newkirk, for the past three years advertising manager with the firm of Thomas C. Watkins, the well-known dry goods merchant, has accepted a position as merchandise manager and advertising manager with Denholm & McKay Co.'s big department store of Worcester, Mass. Mr. Newkirk will have charge of twenty-four buyers for the firm, in addition to his duties as advertising manager, and he will have four copy writers under him in this department. The Denholm & McKay Co. is a large concern, doing a yearly $5,000,000 business. Mr. Newkirk has won for himself in this city an excellent reputation as an advertising manager, and his departure from the city will be regretted by his many friends and business associates, all of whom hold him in the highest esteem.

ARE DIVIDED.

Remains of Sir A. Mac Nab and Relatives Re-Interred.

In connection with the burial of the remains of Sir Allan MacNab in Holy Sepulchre cemetery, a service will be conducted in the chapel at the cemetery to-morrow morning at 8:30. Besides the remains of Sir Allan in the Roman Catholic cemetery have been placed the remains of Lady MacNab, his second wife, who was instrumental in his conversion just before he died, Mrs. David MacNab and several other relatives.

The removal of the remains has brought to the mind of older residents some stirring incidents in connection with the funeral in 1862, when representatives of the Roman Catholic and Episcopal Churches claimed the right to officiate at the burial. Sir Allan, however, had been given the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church, and the clergy of that church conducted the services.

HAMILTON BOYS

Wander Away to Brantford and Get Locked Up.

Hamilton Men in Chicken Fight—Salary Increased.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Brantford, May 18.—Two youthful vagrants, each 12 years old, wandered into the city last evening, footsore and weary, after a long day's tramp from Hamilton, where they said their parents resided. They gave their names as Alex. Shaver and William Brisbane, and were gathered in by the local police. The boys were placed in a cell by themselves. The two boys will be sent back to Hamilton.

CHICKEN FIGHT. Geo. Ireland was charged at the Police Court here yesterday with having a cocking main on his premises in the northern part of the city. Only a part of the evidence was taken. Some twenty others, including Hamilton men, were charged with being present at the alleged fight, and it is stated a Hamiltonian pleaded guilty through his lawyer and settled the case quietly, paying a small fine. Although the police presented a thin case, the action of the Hamiltonian, who did not want to appear, it is said will likely mean a conviction being registered. The local sports are sore over the affair, and claim they have been given away by an outsider.

SECURED INCREASE. The congregation of St. James' Church met last evening and decided to give their rector an increase in stipend, in order to prevent his acceptance of an invitation to become pastor at Delaware, near London. Rev. T. B. Howard is the clergyman in question, and he decided to stay.

A SAD EVENT. Word has been received here by Mr. John Harper of a fatal accident at Morristown, N. J., in which his son, Fred, was killed, while a brakeman on the Pennsylvania & Reading Railway. The victim met instant death, being squeezed between two couplings. A sad feature of the case was that a railway clerk withheld, through oversight, orders for Harper's promotion to another job for a period of four days. On the fourth day the fatality occurred, when the clerk was reminded of the young man's intended removal.

CASE DISMISSED

Two Women Accused of Assaulting an Officer.

Ida Lockhart and Mrs. Mary Simpson were found not guilty this morning before Judge Snider on a charge of assaulting John Hunt. He charged them with unlawfully resisting and obstructing his efforts to make a seizure under an execution he held against Mrs. Simpson. Hunt said that he had gone to their house, John street north, where he was ordered under the execution to seize whatever he could to satisfy a claim of $15, made by a man named Saunders. When he started in with the assistance of three other men to take some of the goods out of the house, he claimed he was set on by the two women and pretty badly beaten up. He complained that he was struck in the lip by his fountain pen, which he claimed she grabbed, that his right eye received a coat of black paint that would have done justice to a shoe-shine parlor's assistant, and that he was generally used up.

Ida Lockhart and Mrs. Simpson had a different story to tell, and they said Mr. Hunt had provoked the assault against Ida Lockhart, and that he called her some "beautiful names."

Judge Snider said that the stories were so mixed up that it was a hard matter to tell which one had provoked the assault. He told the women that they had no right to interfere with an officer of the law.

Mr. A. M. Lewis appeared for Mrs. Simpson and her daughter, and Crown Attorney Washington presented.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

Henry Carpenter, acting on behalf of John Hill, a farmer out in Saltfleet, has issued a writ in the County Court for unstated damages, against Jacob Pettit, also of Saltfleet, for breach of contract to lease a farm. Hill went to work on the farm he had rented, and pruned the trees, and had started in to do the plowing, when something broke. Leaving the plow he went to get another implement. While away Mr. Pettit locked the gates, and when Mr. Hill came back he was told to get out as he was not wanted. Mr. Pettit stated that he was not satisfied with the manner in which Hill was doing work.

A WAR TRUST.

South American Republics to be Overthrown at So Much Per.

Canadian Brigade of Five Hundred War Veterans.

New York, May 18.—A revolution trust has been formed in New York. Captained by Melville Boynton, it will be incorporated under the laws of the State this week. It purposes to provide fighters, dictators, and presidents for any South American republic that needs a rebellion to raise its taxes, or for any North American corporation that needs a rebellion to secure concessions. No less than 200 soldiers of fortune are behind Captain Boynton in the present war trust. It is to be incorporated under the name of the "Imperial Soldiers of Fortune Dragoons," with offices in New York.

"We've got a skyscraper for our purpose," said the captain to-night. "I have just returned from Canada, where I have organized the Canadian brigade, consisting of 500 war veterans."

Out of the United States we will get 3,200 more—the standing army of the revolution trust. Then when a leader of the Opposition in Venezuela or Paraguay or Chile or Columbia wants to put through a revolution and be sure to win he'll come to me and say how much he'll give to be made what he wants to be. If he offers enough we'll put our fighting men on board a boat and go down there and overthrow the Government. He can take his job and pay us off and we'll come back and look out for another contract."

USE JUDGMENT

Magistrate Agrees With Inspector re Indians.

Regarding the statement of License Inspector Sturdy that so many requests have been made to put drinkers on the prohibitive list that he cannot fill all the orders, Magistrate Jellis says he thinks it is better to confine the list to the worst cases—that it is better to have a small number of the worst drinkers on the list and be able to keep track of them than have a large number and be unable to keep any of them from being served.

"But isn't the Inspector compelled to put a man on the list if proper application is made?" he was asked by a reporter.

"Well, the statute says so, but I don't think it is always advisable to do so."

MRS. TAFT ILL.

President's Wife Suffering From Nervous Breakdown.

Washington, May 18.—Mrs. Taft, who suffered a nervous breakdown yesterday, was much improved to-day. After the call of Dr. Delaney, the attending physician, at the White House this morning, it was announced that the President's wife had rested comfortably and was much better.

Mrs. Taft became ill yesterday while on a trip down the Potomac River with the President and a small party of friends. The excitement, heat and exertion, as the President himself expressed it, were too much for her. She slept well last night, however, and she slept Delaney called this morning he was satisfied with the progress Mrs. Taft was making in recovering from the nervous collapse.

BACK TO TORONTO.

Wilfred Graham, the fourteen-year-old lad who disappeared from Toronto early this month, was located in this city and taken back home by his father. The lad took a notion to paddle his own canoe, and chose Hamilton as the place to make a start. He got a job here almost on his arrival on May 2. On Saturday night the people in the house where he was boarding saw a picture of the lad in one of the Toronto papers, together with the story of his disappearance. Without letting Wilfred know anything about it they telephoned his father, who came to this city on Sunday and surprised his son by his sudden appearance. The lad went home quite willingly.

N. D. Galbraith Purchases A.E. Carpenter's House.

One of the most important transfers of residential property this year has just been completed, by which Mr. Newton D. Galbraith becomes the owner of Mr. A. E. Carpenter's fine residence, on the northwest corner of Main and Tisdale streets. This is one of the finest pieces of residential property in the city and while the purchase price has not been made public, it is away up in the five figures. The transfer was made through Mr. Richard MacKay, the well-known real estate man.

SUDDEN DEATH

Mr. Chas. W. Servos Passed Away Last Evening.

Mr. Charles W. Servos, a clerk in the freight office of the T. H. & B. R., and a popular young man, died suddenly last evening, after an illness of only two or three days. Spinal meningitis was given as the cause of death.

He attended a meeting of a lodge of the Canadian Order of Foresters last Thursday night, and later rolled a few games of ten pins. Soon afterwards he complained of feeling very sick, and Dr. Carr was called the next day. Subsequently he was removed to the City Hospital, where he passed away.

Deceased was 28 years of age, and leaves a wife and two children. He took an active part in sports, being Secretary of the Transports Bowling Club and the Transports baseball team, and was connected with other athletic organizations. His death will be regretted by a host of friends.

The funeral will be on Wednesday at 2 p. m. from his late residence, 68 Steven street.

WORKED HERE.

Sad End of Percy Stinson, a Decorator.

Percy Stinson, the young London man who was killed early Sunday morning on the Grand Trunk Railway one mile east of Dorchester station, had been residing in Hamilton for three or four weeks previous to the accident. He came to Hamilton late last month, and had been employed as a decorator by the Maple Leaf Amusement Company. He was staying at Bessey's restaurant, and had made a number of friends during his short stay here. He had been drinking Saturday night, and it is thought that he decided to make a visit home. About 12:30 Saturday night he left a number of his friends at the corner of Merrick and MacNab streets, but said that he would be back in a short time. He apparently walked straight to the G. T. R. depot and boarded a freight train.

At daylight Sunday morning the body of the young man was picked up by a railway man, a passing crew seeing him lying beside the rails. Identification was not established until late in the day, when a police officer called on Stinson's father and asked him if his son was absent from home. Mr. Stinson said that his son had been in Hamilton for the past few days. The constable then told him of the accident, and his fears that the dead man was his son. Mr. Stinson immediately went to the scene of the accident, where he found the body in charge of the Coroner. He had no trouble in identifying the remains.

There seems no doubt whatever that death was accidental and was due to the deceased having stepped aside to allow the train to pass and in so doing stepped directly in the path of another.

The train coming from behind had evidently been heard by him an instant before he was struck, as he had apparently tried to clear the rails entirely, and while in the act he was hit on the left side.

TO GO BACK.

Toronto, Ont., May 18.—Robt. Huddleston, of Detroit, was arrested here this morning, arraigned before Judge Winchester a few minutes later and agreed to go back without extradition proceedings, and will shortly commence the return journey in the custody of a Detroit officer. He was charged with misappropriating funds of Colliers' Weekly.

WOULD HAVE GAS LAMPS RETAINED.

Company Thinks City Will Require Them on Some Residential Streets.

Although the Board of Work several weeks ago decided to use electric lights under the new contract will get 650 arc lights for about $9,000 less than it paid for 489 lamps under the old contract.

It has been suggested to some of the Parks Commissioners that a portion of the MacNab plot, adjoining Dundurn, may be sold for building lots, the houses to face on the opening into the park from Tecumseh street. If there is any ground for this it is stated that the board will close up that entrance into the park. The northern portion of the MacNab property will likely be purchased by the Hamilton, Waterloo & Quebec Railway, which will enter the city back of Dundurn Park.

The conference which was arranged for yesterday afternoon between the Board of Works and Street Railway Co. representatives to decide about the Barton street work proceeding, was postponed until this afternoon.

ED. HUGHES COMMITTED.

Sent Up For Trial on Assault Charge.

Buswell Case in Police Court To-day.

Complainant Could Not Identify Him.

Edward Hughes, 166 Market street, the young man accused of assaulting Henry Buswell, was this morning committed for trial by Magistrate Jellis. George Kerr, K. C., acting for Hughes, pleaded not guilty, and declined to elect. The assault occurred on New Year's Day. Buswell, together with his wife and another lady and gentleman, was returning home about 1 o'clock after spending the evening at a friend's, when they were accosted by a gang of young men near the corner of King William and James streets. Several insulting remarks were made at the women, and when Buswell went back to remonstrate with them he was struck over the head and severely injured. He was taken to the City Hospital, and for three weeks was on the verge of death. Particular interest was aroused in the case, as a charge was made that one of the city detectives went to the house of Buswell and offered Mrs. Buswell $100 to drop the charge against Hughes, who was then in New York city. An investigation was conducted, but the result was never given out. About week ago Hughes returned to the city and gave himself up.

Buswell was put on the stand, and told his story of what occurred on the night of the assault. He said that Mr. West, his wife and himself were returning home early New Year's morning after seeing the Old Year out at a friend's house, and were walking across the Market Square when they saw two men. The two ladies were walking ahead, and several improper remarks were made by the men about them. They continued on their way, however, and were proceeding east on King William street just past James, when the two men, who had joined a gang at the corner, began yelling "chirper" and other names after him. There were about ten of them, and when he went back to speak to them they said they wanted to fight. He told them to wait a minute, and it was at this point that the assault occurred, he said. He knew nothing after that for three weeks.

"What did they hit you with?" asked Crown Attorney Washington.

"I do not know," Buswell said, "but whatever it was it must have been pretty heavy. It left a dent in my skull."

After feeling the dent the Crown was of the opinion that it had been done by something heavier than a fist. "Look around the court and see who your assailant was," he said. "I saw a man who was in the crowd that night," said the Crown. Buswell looked, but could not pick out any person.

Dr. Langrill, Superintendent of the City Hospital, testified to the condition of Buswell when he was brought to the Hospital. He said that he was in a semi-conscious condition, and an examination of the wound showed that he had been struck a severe blow on the head. The doctor did not think it had been done by a fist, but more likely by some instrument. The injured man was operated upon and a clot of blood removed from the brain. The skull was not fractured.

Thomas O'Hair, 40 Emerald street, saw part of the fight and was asked if he recognized any of the young men who took part in it. He said he saw the blow struck, but on account of the crowd standing there could not say who did it. The Crown then began to question O'Hair about things he told Detective Sayers, but Mr. Kerr objected, on the ground that it was not evidence. Mr. Washington said that it was something that should be allowed. He said that a witness will tell the police a story, and when they get in the box will tell an altogether different tale. "There is too much of that going on," he said.

Thomas West, the man who was with Hughes, swore that he saw Hughes strike the complainant. He had a good look at his face, he said, as Hughes passed him on the way up King William street, after striking Buswell.
