

THE PROTESTANT AND EVANGELICAL WITNESS.

Protestant & Evangelical Witness.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1859.

ONE-SIDED THEOLOGY.

Not a few of these late religious works which become popular among a certain class, exhibit a tendency to one-sidedness. This one-sidedness is a study and vigorous Christianity. This position holds out the person of Christ as the object of the believer's regard, without any special reference to the great object which he is to glorify in.

It is in some respects an extreme rebound from the old Romanism of late years. But it is no less liable to the charge of one-sidedness. In Romanism, man seems to be the central point, and the center of all things. In the new system, the man is regarded as a true believer who gives credence to the story of divine love, irrespective of a divinely revealed law.

Cromwell and his Maligners.

The last number contains a communication brimful of indignation against Cromwell and his admirers. The writer recalls some of the old stories that have been related a thousand times, and ignores the late powerful and conclusive vindications of Cromwell and his admirers.

Catholic Young Men's Literary Institute.

It appears our correspondent "F" has touched with his own pen some of the vulnerable points in the proceedings of the C. Y. M. I. Institute, if we may judge from two communications which appeared in the last number.

laboring under some mental hallucination or he would never have undertaken to write a defence of the proceedings at the Institute in question, which proves in the main that "F's" statements were correct.

On Thursday evening last, the Rev. Neil McKay, of Murray Harbor, delivered an able and eloquent lecture before the Association on the "Scottish Reformation."

RELIGIOUS ITEMS.

The Prayer meeting for adults on Sunday next (tomorrow) will be held in the upper room of the Temperance Hall at 4 o'clock p.m.; and the one for children in the lower room at 20 minutes to 4.

We understand that in response to an appeal which has reached us from Lodiana in India, published in a late No. of the Protestant, arrangements have been made for holding a series of United Prayer Meetings in this city during the second week of January, 1860.

AYER'S PILLS.

The following statement from James R. Chilton, M. D., of New York City, after a thorough examination of the subject, bears testimony in any reasonable mind of the intrinsic virtues of Ayer's Pills.

As a Cathartic for general use, they are far superior to any which have hitherto fallen under my notice. They do not contain any mineral substance whatever, and, consequently, all objections urged against such ingredients are obviated.

We have known Dr. J. J. Abbot, a physician in whom we have the highest respectability, and a chemist in whom we have great confidence.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENT.

THE SYMPHONIAN, WITH ORGAN PIPE attachment, similar in some respects to the Accordion, but much superior, and as an accompaniment to the voice equal to the Melodion.
