ARRIVAL OF THE ENGLISH MAIL.

The Courier with the English, American, and Colonial Mail arrived in Town on the evening of Sunday last.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The arrival of the English mail has been awaited with interest in Town, as it has been expected to contain some important news.

Lord John Russell has received a despatch which notified the influence of the Foreign Office in stopping certain preparations to which the Protestants in Spain are said to be subjected.

The Earl of Aberdeen has passed away. Death is doing his work among the nobles of the British Empire.

Another subject of Court gossip is the completion of the negotiations for the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Alice with Prince Louis of Hesse Darmstadt.

FRANCE. The formation of a 4th battalion will add 40,000 men to the French army.

PARIS, Dec. 4.—The formation of a 4th battalion will add 40,000 men to the French army.

REMEDY. The Minister de la Flotte says that the general system of the defense of the French coast is to be completed by cutting down the coast forts and placing them.

VIENNA, Dec. 14.—The Ostend Post, in a leading article, says the accumulation of arms and ammunition in Austria and Wallonia, and the organization of foreign legions in Italy, are to be attributed to an extensive scheme which partly aims at the separation of these provinces from the Austro-Hungarian empire.

ITALY. At Genoa, on the 23rd November, a fight took place between the English Volunteers and the Garibaldians.

resulted in loss of life on both sides. This led to the disbandment of the English Legion.

Another protest of Francis II., just issued from Genoa, complains of the apathy of European Sovereigns.
