a tariff of 171 take out a panel to stow away the young There was nothing a aptain Hoskins, and afterwards is would account for dge of the place, and they knew settificates that he was there in e only point which he had about that French ship which ut the jarry mat consider whether sufficient to upset the other If they believed Captain Oates a Hoskins, it seemed to him that be but one result. With regard 's knowing Luis, it was obvious a not there in 1853. So that in hat, he has sworn to that which hat he has sworn to that which hat the same time they would haider whether in so swearing he a mistaks. The only thing he only thing h e gave an ac as one of the guests at the din-bishop Tache, given by the Mr. Justice Brett said the prose-Mr. Justice Brett said the prose-discretion whether is abould be proceeded with a locked-out agricultural labour-i Quebec by the Sarmatian, and ught to Untario unfer the Mr. Poland said that, after his Lor hing of his boat in the ice. Forta-	charge. Luis having been brought back an beside Brown in the dock, Mr. Just proceeded to pass sentence. He sai have both been convicted upon evit clear as that dpon which Arthur Or convicted. You have both been or of the crime of wilful perjury. can be more essential to the admin of the law than that it should be h from perjured testimmor. I don's

ARTHUE OBTON. AND SENTENCE OF LUIE AND

BEOWN. April 9, the trial of Jean Justice Brett came to any and notwithstanding the close the Judge maid the close the Judge maid the close the Judge maid before the close the Judge mid your own story. The primi-gainst you is that you swore you the Oprevent of the same which although some people are of opinion that that were in Sogland at the time that which was the Tich-art of this is untrue you must be to say so the facts of the case which although some people are of opinion that that were in Kogland at the time is at the time you make the here presecution have proved way of the law if, when perjury is brought home to defordante, they were not severely punished, i but in all cases of orime there are dis-ounstances with regard to particular cases. A man might constitute the association. Where a person is being cross-examined, as you weres, land that you were the question of the prody when you say you well, my lord, during my is of the Court of Queen's durating to my past life and the ad met with, but the lord ad met with, but the lord into my mind at the time of wincesse have been and into my mind at the time. I would the source of the being or the periods of the being or the source of the being or the source of the being or the source of the source o ner as that it would do the the most ser depart—by the thought of the servitade to a divergence of the description of the servitade of the serve.<sup>3</sup> Har I am sorry for you, but at the same time far I am sorry for you, but at the same time for a solution of the servitade of the serve.<sup>3</sup> Har I am soceasary for ne to carry out the law. The sentence is that you be kept in serve, who throughout his examina serve, who throughout his examina meanination in the Court of noh, his examination is the court of noh his proceedings completely was then removed from the dook. This last for seven your, Mr. Justice Prest com-timed : All have said to the other man ap-ples to you; but there is this difference, and the proceedings completely was then removed from the dook. The sead they estences the with wilful and corrupt perper-vide day reserved his summing the law at some of the server bound the seven your sentences. But your a since the proceed the board with wilful and corrupt perper-vide by the law, and its will be all the thr as heared Judge was delivering the sen-tons of the served by the prisoner at Rio, was shipyrocked and he Osproy, and taken to heared at Rio, was shipyrocked and he Osproy, and taken to heared at the out the secould by the Ospresence at his operation of the secould perperperperperpendence of the served of the law of the served by the prisoner. A A EELOAN. <text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

Mr. Mackenzie and Sir John Macdonald that parties who had devoted their

THE WEEKLY MAIL: TORONTO FRIDAY, MAY 1 1874. GRICULTURAL AND OTHER of clover, tim

1 30 0 00
1 35
1 55
1 56
0 66
0 74
week's quotations.
0 65
0 74
week's quotations.
0 105
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0 60
0

In the second se

this way is that they attempt too much. Their efforts at handling bees and opening