New Brunswick Masons Invited

Great Masonic Meeting to Be Held in London During Coming Summer

St. John March 6—The United Grand Lodge of England, the mother grand Lodge of Freemasonry, is arranging to mark the final declaration of peace by a great celebration in London in June next. It is to extend from the 23rd to the 30th of the month, and so will include the festival of St. John in the summer. A cablegram has been received this week inviting the Grand Master and the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of New Brunswick to be present as guests of the United Grand Lodge. As there are some eighty Grand Lodges throughout the world in fraternal relation with England, it would seem that this proposed gathering will be the most representative, as it certainly will be the largest in the history of Freemasonry.

In recent years two notable Masonic meetings have been held in London. The first was on the occasion of the jubilee of her late Majesty, and the great concourse of ten thousand prominent Masons of Great Britain met in Albert Hall, presided over by the then Grand Master, the Prince of Wales. Such another great assemblage celebrated the 200th anniversary of the formation of the Grand Lodge of England in June 1917, the present Grand Master, H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught being in the chair. A special feature on that occasion was the reception of official delegations from the Grand Lodges of Ireland and Scotland.

Churchill's Message To British Battalions

London, March 5—Hon. Winston Churchill, Secretary of State for War, has sent a message to the new soldier battalions which are proceeding to the Rhine, saying: "You are about to proceed to Germany to form a part of the British Army keeping a watch on the Rhine until the Germans agree to carry out our just terms of peace. Your period of training has been completed and you are in every respect fit to undertake the serious business of active service. You will find British troops where victories have led them along the banks of the most famous of German rivers, and in one of the finest enemy cities. The bridgeheads which they will be guarding will enable the Allies at any moment to move swiftly forward into Germany in case of any failure of the enemy to comply with rightful conditions."

"I am confident you will bear yourselves with modesty and discipline, observing at all times a correct demeanor towards the inhabitants, who should neither be treated with harshness nor familiarity. I am sure you will keep yourselves in the highest state of military efficiency so that at any moment you can discharge any duty entrusted to you."

"Lastly, you will realize that you are in a special sense the inheritors of the glories won by the British armies chosen to uphold in your own persons by your daily conduct their high traditions, bravery and fair play. I wish you God speed, a fine adventure and a swift return."

A government bill introduced in the Quebec Legislature provides for a referendum to permit the people to choose between beer and wine on the one hand and prohibition on the other. Should the majority of the people decide in favor of beer and wine it would only apply to those places in the province where prohibition is not at present in force. Places where the Canada Temperance Act is in force, it will remain in force until it is repealed, and beer and wine licenses will not be issued for those places.

A tornado which swept over Alabama on Wednesday last did damage to the extent of about $500,000, besides causing four deaths.

"CASCARETS" WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—Take Cascarets tonight.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fumes, everything that is horrible and disgusting. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

COULDN'T FOOL HIM

Employer Had Read Detective Stories to Advantage.

Why Mr. Petty, With Other Members of the Office Force, Regretted Their Choice of Birthday Present for the Boss.

Mr. Petty hurried into the office an hour later than usual and was relieved to find that his employer was late also. "Pretty good!" laughed Mr. Petty to his assistant. "He will never know that I was late."

When the head of the firm came in he scrutinized Mr. Petty long and closely, then leaned casually against the desk.

"Your session at the bowling alley was prolonged last night," he began. "How do you know?" asked Mr. Petty, opening his eyes very wide.

"I infer it from your stiff manner of handling the ledger this morning," replied the head of the firm severely. "You exerted yourself more than usual on the alleys. At breakfast this morning you were so drowsy from want of sleep that you dozed over your morning paper."

"So I did," admitted Mr. Petty, uncomfortably.

"I know it was at breakfast, because there is an egg and coffee on the paper," frowned the head of the firm. "And while you were asleep your little six-year-old son climb into your lap."

"Yes, he did," gasped Mr. Petty. "But—"

"How do I know?" interrupted the head of the firm. "I know because your collar is written over in a blue ink scrawl. It is done in the peculiar shade of lead that you had in your gold lead pencil, which is usually in your left-hand vest pocket. It is not there now. I hope that the boy has not lost it."

Mr. Petty felt for his lead pencil.

"It is gone," gasped Mr. Petty.

"You were late to work this morning," went on the head of the firm, coldly. "I do not have to be told so, because you bought an evening edition of the paper at the subway station and it is an edition that does not come out until a late hour. I am very particular about the hours of work observed here."

As the head of the firm was finally disappearing into his private office Mr. Petty wiped the perspiration from his brow and remarked to the assistant:

"We were all against giving him a watch for his birthday because he is always watching the time, but we made a great mistake to give him the detective stories instead."

Enlists at 53; Says He's 39.

American Magazine has an article about "Foghorn" Macdonald, who enlisted as a private in the Canadian forces at fifty-three and is now a major at fifty-seven. The author of the article says:

"By canoe for 31 days through the wilderness, by an old tub of a leaky steamer, by whatever means of travel he could find, including his own feet, he made his way back to Winnipeg, only to find that the troops he left. All right! A machine gun company was being formed and he applied for that."

"The recruiting officer was a friend of his, had helped celebrate Foghorn's fifty-third birthday the previous January. But when in making out the papers he came to the question, 'How old are you?' and Foghorn whipped out: 'Thirty-nine!' he never batted an eyelid."

"Before his official crosses at Ottawa knew it, Macdonald was on his way to England—a private at fifty-three! Two years later he was a major; the only man in the forces of the allies who has risen from the ranks to that grade in the present war."

War-time Economy.

Mr. Benson went to New York to business, but lived in Brooklyn. Often he was not able to get home in time for dinner at night. He told his wife that he would phone her every day as to whether he could leave the office or not.

Mrs. Benson was of a very thrifty disposition, and the following was her solution of the problem: "Sam, if you find that you can't be home for dinner, phone me exactly six o'clock. If the telephone rings at that hour, I'll know it is you and that you are not coming for dinner. I won't answer it, and you'll get your nickel back."—Ladies' Home Journal.

Stoves From Whale Intestines.

The Norwegian state whaling stations have caught 200 whales, but expect to catch in all 500 during the summer. The stations have orders to take care of the intestines and salt them down, as it is the intention to make stoves of them. The material is fine in every respect, pliable, soft and exceptionally strong. The manufacture of stoves will probably be commenced at once.

Plenty of Color.

Several soldiers were standing on a street corner talking when a "tidily dressed" girl passed. One of them turned to his comrades and said: "Here, boys, salute the colors; there goes plenty of 'em."

New Phone System.

Barranquilla, Colombia, is to have a municipally owned and operated telephone system to replace the antiquated equipment now in use. There will be a demand for American supplies.

Lady Laurier Declines Pensions

Ottawa, Mar. 6—It is asserted here that Lady Laurier has been approached by the Government to see if she would accept a pension. While deeply appreciating the compliment to her dead husband, it is understood that she has declined it, feeling that she has been sufficiently well provided for. Twenty years ago Liberal friends of Sir Wilfrid arranged an annuity of $5,000 and this has been accumulating for sixteen years. He has been getting $2,500 annually as member, and $7,000 as Leader of the Opposition, while his house has increased in value from $7,000 to $40,000. His savings were judiciously invested, and the investments have increased in value.

Failure of Congress to take any action on pending bills providing for repeal of the Daylight Saving Act, made certain that the nation's stocks would be advanced an hour during the period between the last Sunday in March and the last Sunday in October.

THREE YEARS IN PENITENTIARY

Fred King and Walter Cribs were sentenced Wednesday morning, to three years in the penitentiary for the theft of goods from Hickey's drug store and two years for old offences—the sentences to run concurrently; and Thomas McCarthy was sentenced to one year in the county jail, being his first offence.

Robert I. Mapes, awaiting trial on a charge of murderous assault upon a police officer, was killed in his cell at the county jail at Alfred, Maine, on Tuesday. According to the turning, Mapes was hit over the head with a fat iron by Carl V. Goodwin, of Lebanon, his cell mate.

Dr. Harry J. Haiseldon, of Chicago, of Baby Bollinger fame, has again declined to operate in the case of a defective infant, believing it better that the little life should be allowed to go out in order that the world may not be burdened later with a defective adult. The baby is Mary Saliza, of 1843 South Fisk Street. While an operation would save the child's life, Dr. Haiseldon declares he will not perform it.
